Foreword

This year will be remembered by many people as one of hardship and conflict. However, those who were fortunate enough to be at Harding have memories of a year of peace and happiness as far as such is possible in a world at war. Lest you forget these memories, the staff has endeavored to leave with you a panorama of this year as you have experienced it. The most important part of our school—its spirit—cannot be printed in ink; but we shall have served our purpose if this spirit is renewed in your heart as you view the 1945 Petit Jean.

100690

Tirelessly, unassumingly and unselfishly she has performed her work, asking no favors for herself and never seeking personal honor. Her joviality and dry wit have endeared her to all, and she has been thoroughly appreciative of every kindness shown her.

Because of the unselfish service she has rendered us, we, the senior class, do dedicate this 1945 Petit Jean to MISS CATHERINE SCORE, our librarian.

President's Message

TO THE CLASS OF 1945:

Almost the entire time of your college career has been during the world's greatest war. The fact that you have been able to remain in college, and have been called upon to endure so little real privation, is a testimony to the great strength of our nation, which for two years has been producing more war materials than all the rest of the world combined.

The successful termination of the war, which now appears in sight, and in which many of our Harding College boys have given their lives, will not lessen your individual responsibilities. A post-war world must be built anew. Our own American political and economic structure is under great strain, and will go through certain changes.

The great need of the hour, at home and abroad, is for honest, sincere, capable devoted leadership in every field of human endeavor. The Christian religion, in which you have been grounded, constitutes the best possible foundation for such sterling leadership. An understanding of the Christ is the world's greatest need—in fact, its one need.

My prayer is that you will ever respond to the increasing calls of a needy world, guided by that same beautiful spirit in which you have responded to the calls of your Alma Mater during these four war years, with their increasing shortages of gasoline, rubber, food, and labor. May the spirit which made "cotton picking" only fun fill your entire lives with joy and satisfaction.

Sincerely,

GEORGE S. BENSON

During the year several outstanding improvements have been made. A new program of study was carefully planned and the library was substantially enlarged. Transcripts and past records of all children have been secured and will be kept on permanent file to promote individual treatment of each child. The children have their own social clubs and a scout troop has been organized among the boys. In April the upper three grades made an educational tour of Little Rock.

This year more than eighty children attended the Harding Elementary Training School, which is in connection with the college. The Bible is taught daily by each teacher and regular chapel programs are planned by the faculty to bring cultural and spiritual education to the children.

In Memoriam

Brother Armstrong is no longer with us in person; God has called him home. He was the first president of Harding College and served as its head for twenty-nine years. His service gave the school a pillar of immeasurable strength.

He was thorough, longsuffering and fair as a teacher. He was brief, wise and understanding as a councilor. Difficulties were many and trials hard; but he overcame them all as a true Christian. His uncompromising exactness, deep spiritual fervor and simple love exemplified what Jesus meant by the greatest being the servant of all.

He was studious throughout life and always turned to the Bible itself for his instruction. Through his teaching thousands saw God more clearly and came to a deeper understanding of His word. He worked untiringly to please God and to serve his fellowman.

A spirit so great is not dead. It still lives in the lives of thousands whom he has influenced. His picture lingers in the memory of his students. Truly this great and noble character has set us an example which should inspire us to greater achievement in life.

J. N. ARMSTRONG

Bible Faculty

All the instructors in the Bible department are graduates of one of our Christian schools and are devoted to the cause of Christ.

Student Preachers

Eighty-five young men fill appointments in four states and are preparing to dedicate their lives to the preaching of the Gospel.

1st Row: Sparks, Wills, Moody, Vernon Lawyer, Vaughan, G. Tipps, Helsten, Healy, Peddle, Howell, P. Copeland, Temples; 2nd Row: Stovall, Curtis, Durham, Ferguson, W. Collins, I. Wolfe, Murray, J. ## Chapel Every Day

Harding pauses at 10 each morning for a period of prayer and song. The remainder of the half-hour is used in various constructive ways. Usually faculty members or visiting speakers present inspirational, spiritual and moral lessons.

Bible Classes for All

Prayer Meeting

Many of the students attend the prayer meeting service with the downtown congregation for which T. H. Sherrill is minister. Young men from the college actively participate in these meetings.

Radio Singers

Thanksgiving Lectures

The Alpha Honor Society is composed of juniors and seniors with outstanding records, a scholarship index of 2.7 being required for juniors and one of 2.5 for seniors. Only a small percentage of either class is permitted entrance. Membership in this group is considered a high honor as requirements are just as high as those for Phi Beta Kappa. Officers were Harold Holland, president, Ruby Jean Wesson, vice-president, and W. K. Summitt, secretary-treasurer.

Alpha Psi Omega

In order to promote a greater interest in dramatics and to encourage the highest possible attainment in acting, staging and directing, the Eta Omega Cast of Alpha Psi Omega was chartered in 1940. To be selected for membership a student must be a Campus Player, maintain satisfactory scholarship, do a specified amount of acting, work behind the stage and show a willingness to work in any needed capacity. Officers were Joseph E. Pryor, president; Dorothy O'Neal, vice-president; and Jane Gately, secretary-treasurer.

Who's Who

In American Colleges and Universities

Over six hundred colleges and universities cooperate in publishing an annual edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. The book, containing biographies of the students selected by each of these schools, is a means of national recognition for honor students. Basis for inclusion in the publication has been set forth as character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and potential usefulness to business and society.

The recognition of the student serves as a reward to him for diligent and worthwhile service.

Since copies of the book are sent to prominent businessmen throughout the nation, it also takes the form of a recommendation of these students to the business world.

Business, education, and civic leaders believe that students who are the most prominent while doing undergraduate work will more likely be the most prominent citizens after their graduation. Since it can be an indication of future success, this is an honor well worth the effort of underclassmen.

Debaters

First Column: Evan Ulrey, Therman Healy, Bill Smith, Bill Baker, Emmett Smith, Wayne Moody, Wyatt Sawyer

Second Column: Lewis Mikell, Tolbert Vaughan, Sidney Roper, Joe Cannon, Bob Helsten, Lois Gurganus, Dr. Frank Rhodes

The College Debate Club, under the capable direction of Dr. B. F. Rhodes, Jr., enjoyed the most successful year of its history, winning first place in all the tournaments entered. The senior men's team, composed of Billy Baker and Emmett Smith, won the Mid-South Championship in the tournament held at Conway in December.

Bill and Emmett Smith won Harding's first championship in the famous Savage Forensic at Durant, Oklahoma, in March. They were the senior men's team. Wyatt Sawyer and Tolbert Vaughan placed third in the same meet.

The Smith brothers again combined to take first place in the St. John's Invitation Tournament held in Winfield, Kansas, the following week in March.

Though the records of the other debaters are not as victory-studded as the one of the outstanding Smith boys, each member of the class did unusual work and showed marked advancement in development.

Mixed Chorus

This year membership in the large chorus was opened to everyone who enjoys singing and desires an increased knowledge of music. This group met for two rehearsals each week and learned folk songs of various countries, sacred songs, patriotic selections, and Fred Waring's arrangements of popular numbers.

Though the chorus was made up of voices of varying degrees of experience, adaptability, tone quality and power, Leonard Kirk's very able direction coupled with a sincere effort from the group resulted in splendid progress and accomplishment.

This organization is a member of the American Federation of Music Clubs. Officers were: George Tipps, president; Harold Holland, vice-president; Ann Richmond, secretary-treasurer. Accompanists were Ann Richmond, Christine Neal and Janet Rea.

Front Row: Director Leonard Kirk, J. Zazzi, Bergner, Hemingway, Thornton, B. Ulrey, Halbert, Hefton, M. Lanier, Young, Camp, Schuchardt

Third Row: Jewell, Shannon, H. Summitt, F. Rhodes, Lewis, F. Magness, G. Tipps, Virgil Lawyer, Baldwin, Killebrew, K. Johnson, D. Dillard

Fourth Row: Richmond, Clampitt, King, Cooley, J. Dillard, Therman Healy, Crawford, Bagnetto, Gordon, I. Wolfe, Helsten, J. Tipps, Spruell, Smart, Rea

Fifth Row: M. A. Cranford, Gurganus, Webb, Dean, Fritts, Straughn, J. Ganus, Mabrey Miller, Holland, Vanhooser, Willett, Moyer, Whitelaw, Wesson, Garner

Small Chorus

The small chorus was composed of thirty members who were selected from the larger group. They made several anticipated trips during the year visiting high schools, army camps, broadcasting stations and churches. A very successful program for the benefit of the Music in Hospitals campaign was given in conjunction with the large chorus and a generous contribution was made to this cause.

Trio

A trio combining pulchritude and talent was composed of Doris Johnson, first soprano; Patricia Haibert, second soprano, and Mildred Lanier, alto. They gave special numbers on programs and chorus trips and also made recordings.

The Equestrian Club, with over thirty-five members, has been one of the most active groups on the campus. The addition of several registered Tennessee walking horses and a buggy have increased riding opportunities and stimulated development in horsemanship. An exhibition of riding techniques, early morning breakfasts and seasonal trips to Doniphan Lake and Bee Rock have been both instructive and entertaining. Under the enthusiastic and capable leadership of Leonard Kirk the stable and lot have been improved, new horses have been procured and club members have been encouraged.

Intramurals

Some phases of the intramural program are pictured above by individuals taking part in the various sports. They are Ordis Copeland, basketball; Buddy Vaughan, ping pong; Bill Smith, horse-shoes; Hugh Rhodes, Swimming; Virgil Lawyer, archery; Sidney Roper, Football; and John Cannon, track and field.

Pictured on the division page is Hugh Rhodes who this year returned to Harding as Physical Education Director. A fine athlete, a true sportsman and an advocate of character development through athletics, Hugh has promoted a program in which all who participated have benefitted physically, spiritually and morally.

Softball

The year's intramural program opened with the softball tournament in which the faculty was outstanding. The Aircobras, composed of Dean, Fogg, John Cannon, C. Shaffer, R. Miller, E. Smith, Hulen, Porter and Cone, were the champions. An All-Star team of J. Ganus, John Cannon, Stroop, O. Copeland, Vanhooser, C. Shaffer, Wooton, R. Starling, T. F. Vaughan, J. C. Davidson, Fogg and D. Starling was chosen.

Football

Football season opened with a high-mounted enthusiasm which increased as the season progressed. The Junior class was on the top of the pile in the class tournament, and Sidney Roper's Cardinals triumphed over Ordis Copeland's Buzzards to take the intramural crown. Comprising the Cardinals were Roper, Virgil Lawyer, Fogg, Crawford, B. Smith, T. F. Vaughan, and Farrar. Chosen for stellar performance and good sportsmanship, the All-Star team was R. Starling, Wiser, O. Copeland, Roper, Fogg, Hawkins, Baldwin, Joe Cannon and Stroop.

Basketball

Much enthusiasm was displayed in basketball this year, both in the class tournament which was won by the Juniors and in the intramural tournament taken by Dr. Joe Pryor's Bloodhounds. Members of the winning Bloodhounds were Lee Burford, Leon Gibson, Coy Campbell, Joe Pryor, Vernon Lawyer, Al Stroop, John Baldwin. Ray Miller, Al Stroop, Virgil Lawyer, Vernon Lawyer, Ordیس Copeland, John Cannon and James Cone (not pictured) were selected on the All-Star team. The Junior team was composed of Clovis Crawford, John Cannon, Ray Miller, Ordیس Copeland, Evan Farmer, Bill Smith, Al Stroop, and Virgil Lawyer.

Ping Pong

Jimmy Ganus emerged ping pong champion out of a field of nearly fifty contestants. For the championship he defeated Lucien Bagnetto, leading contender for the title.

Volleyball

Some keen competition developed in the volleyball contests before the tournament was completed. Jimmy Ganus' Clashers, composed of Coy Campbell, Charles Brooks, Jimmy Ganus, Ira Wolfe, and Vernon Lawyer, took first place in the intramural games and the faculty led the entire group in the class tournament. Mattox, M. Miller, J. Pryor, J. Rhodes, F. Rhodes, Dykes, Summitt, H. Rhodes and Kirk comprised the "Bald Eagles."

The faculty showed unusual interest in the entire program, entering a team in every tournament and taking top honors in two.

Fun in Sports

Late in the spring term the annual Track and Field Day was held. Numerous track contests were spirited and the major field events were of interest to all. In the upper portion of the above are displayed different students practicing for the various track and field events. In the lower portion participation in some of the general recreational activities is depicted.

There was keen competition among the clubs for track and field honors; the Sub-T's winning first by a large margin, TNT's and Lambda Sigma's taking second and third places respectively. Ordis Copeland was high point man in the meet.

Leaders in Girls' Intramurals

Standings when the Petit Jean went to press.
Top Five: Brandon, Kimbrough, Price, E. Waters, Wesson
Next Highest: King, Riggs, Connell, Sinele, D. Johnson, Stover,
Laymon, Clampitt, Smart, K. Johnson, Case

"Bert" Brandon, senior in charge of girls' intramurals, has been largely responsible for the effectiveness and interest displayed in sports among the girls this year. Points are kept for participation in the various intramurals throughout the year. The five girls with the largest number of points receive jackets and the next ten win medals. Seventy-seven per cent of the girls in school took part in the program up until the time the annual went to press.

Tennis

For the fourth consecutive year, Carmen Price came out winner in the tennis tournament defeating Ruby Jean Wesson. Carmen has developed a very unique style of tennis which has proved most effective.

Softball

The Pink Sox, captained by Bert Brandon, took first honors in softball. They clashed with Ruby Jean Wesson's Red Sox in the final game. Pictured are the Pink Sox and the All-Stars. The ten All-Stars were chosen from the six teams in the tournament.

All-Stars: Nadeau, E. Waters, Joyce Jones, D. Johnson, Wesson, Brandon, Case and Smart

Pink Sox: Waters, Joyce Jones, Bullington, Jo Jones, Hargrave, Brandon, Case, King

Basketball

All-Stars: Sewell, Turman, Price, Kimbrough,
D. Dillard, Wesson—Fry and Brandon (absent)

Freshmen: Kelly, K. Johnson, E. Kiihnl, Turman,
Kimbrough, Hodge and Connell

Alley Cats: Fry, Wesson, Brandon, Dillard, Woods,
Lanier, Connell, Pledger and Sewell (absent)

Intense interest was manifested in basketball, there being a class tournament as well as one in intramurals. The freshmen, relying on a combination of speed and height, triumphed over the seniors in a hard won victory.

The Alley Cats, typical of their namesakes, came out victorious over the Persians in the intramural division. They displayed excellent teamwork.

As in softball the All-Stars were picked from the six teams. Interest was so high that the basketball season was extended to include a game between the first and second All-Stars played according to boys' rules. The boys were quite amused.

Intramurals

The Vollets won both the first and the second half of the volley ball tournament to take first place. The winning team was Arms, Kimbrough, Price, Case, Riggs, Clampitt, and G. D. Chesshir.

Carmen Price, displaying a fast game, won first place over Ruby Jean Wesson in ping pong.

Though the archery tournament had not been held when the annual was sent to the printers, plans had been formulated for it and practice had begun. The addition of new equipment in this department stimulated interest in the "William Tell" division.

Though tournaments in all the sports represented had not been completed by the time for going to press, plans for archery, hole-in-one, free throw and badminton had been made. Points for all these sports will be counted and applied on the records toward jackets and medals.

This year the Academy girls have entered the college tournaments. The most outstanding athlete with good attitude, sportsmanship and keen interest will be entitled to a sports' jacket.

Track and field day also provided stimulus for competition among the girls' clubs. When the points were totaled, the Ju So Ju's were first, WHC's second, and GATA's third.

Where's Ruby Jean, Alpha's? . . . Kirby cottage . . . Bye! You'll follow . . . June in January . . . 17th century England for a night . . . Hear from Laura, Wymer? . . . Hold him, Wyatt! . . . Sunning, Bonnie? . . . Clinton, does it balance? . . . The fate of the "one sided" . . . Overflow abode.
