*“And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it:
but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.”*

—Matthew 10:13

Foreword

“Peace, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin: The blood of Jesus whispers peace within. Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed: To do the will of Jesus—this is rest.”

We have endeavored to make this Petit Jean a mirror wherein you might find reflected vividly the peaceful yet enthusiastic life on the campus during 1945-46. It is our wish to preserve some tangible memories of the splendid, though invisible, spirit of our college. If at any time you find a picture or a word that will recall pleasant memories, our book has served its purpose and we are the happier for our labors.

This is our dedication to . . . . .

PATTIE HATHAWAY SEARS

For the beauty of her unassuming life of service to all, for her loyalty to high ideals and for the shine in the eyes of her "primary children" when they see her coming—we, the Senior Class of Harding College, gratefully dedicate the 1946 Petit Jean to PATTIE HATHAWAY SEARS.

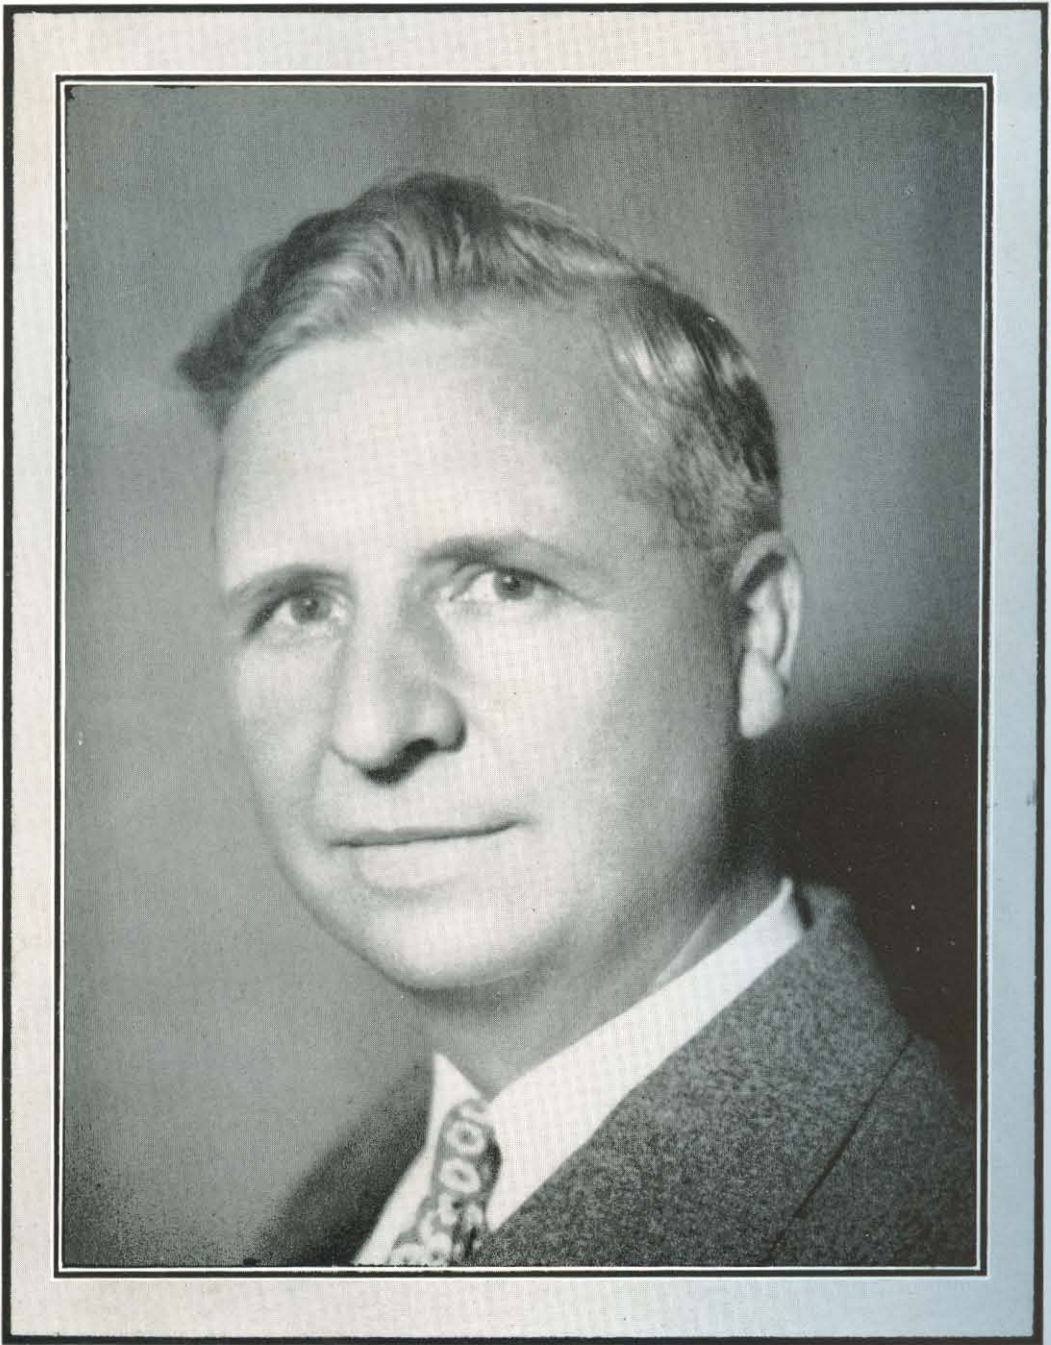

To those men who have fought and given their lives in the great struggle for peace, we pay tribute.

Religion

Morning chapel — Daily Bible classes — Inspirational talks — Vesper services — Devotional singing —

Since Harding's foremost aim is building men and women of character, religion is stressed as the most effective means of cultivating the moral and spiritual nature. Christianity is taught as a way of life and is not only taught in the Bible classes but emphasized in every phase of daily living.

Some things at Harding may be forgotten but not the daily chapel period at 10 o'clock. All who attended Harding attended chapel and all received some blessing by this service. It was not a mere assembly; it was a period of worship — a period for God. Nothing helped so much to instill the Christian spirit as this daily service.

An atmosphere of reverence and devotion surrounds the students and teachers as they worship.

Singing, led by Bro. Jess Rhodes, prayer and scripture reading characterize the worship period. Visitors were always welcome because of their inspiring and helpful messages. The faculty also gave practical and helpful messages because of their association with the students.

As a result of the keen interest of the students in missionary activities, there was a group that met each Friday evening to study the mission work that was conducted both in foreign fields and in our own nation.

Activities

Rehearsing choral numbers — Writing Bison stories — Working on The Petit Jean — Polishing up debate arguments — Memorizing play lines — Practicing music lessons.

The unusually large variety of activities at Harding afford great opportunity for personal development. Not only do they provide relaxation from school work but they provide valuable training in many useful skills. A well-rounded course of study coupled with a well-rounded extra-curricular program tends to develop a well-rounded student.

Clubs

Pledging — Planning parties — Inviting dates — Working on projects
— Nominating Queens — Creating impressive banquets —

Club activities are one of the most enjoyable features of Harding life. Thoroughly democratic, the social clubs provide an opportunity for every student to become a member. Many other clubs exist for special purposes. Students learn to live and work together. Within these groups, friendships are strong and lasting and many cherished memories are created.

Harding's vast intramural program is designed to give every student an opportunity to develop physically as he develops intellectually and spiritually. The program has proved much more satisfactory than intercollegiate sports, and has resulted in a greater number of students being benefited by the program. Much interest and enthusiasm is manifested in the campus sports activities.

Harding Academy is a unit in itself. It has its own social clubs, athletic program, daily chapel, and maintains an extensive curriculum. High school students learn of college life first hand which prepares them for the future adjustment which must come when the chasm from high school to college is crossed.

GODDEN HALL, LOCATION OF HARDING HIGH SCHOOL

In high school, boys and girls are trained and their lives are molded to meet future problems which must be faced without fear. Knowledge is gained in every walk of life—society, athletics, religion, associations and learning. Striving for character, high ideals, and high scholastic averages are the motives of our High School students.
