Journey into Myth & Legend

ODYSSEY

Your journey begins here ...

alpha

Welcome

We're thrilled to have you join us on this Spring Sing adventure —
a voyage into the realm of legend.
Our students have worked countless hours to bring you this production, and we're extremely proud of the outcome.

I'm convinced the young people you'll see on stage, and those you'll meet around campus this weekend, are some of the best and brightest students in our nation. By using their talents to lead and to serve, our students uphold the principles upon which this university stands.

Thank you for your visit to campus this weekend, and thank you for believing in Harding's mission. Please let us know if we can be of service to you.

Enjoy the show!

David B. Burks
University President

Brief History

Hundreds of Harding students have poured their creative talent into making tonight's show the best Spring Sing ever!

The event dates back to 1974, when a group of students planned a small scale musical showcase for campus guests. But what you'll enjoy tonight is bigger than they ever imagined, with all the glamour and excitement of a big time production.

The musical numbers by social clubs are judged at each performance from four perspectives — originality, music, costumes and choreography. Plaques, trophies and cash awards are presented after the Saturday evening performance on the basis of a compilation of the judges' decisions. An award is also given for best participation of club membership.

We hope you'll sit back, relax and enjoy our tribute to you. Thanks for your attendance, and please come back next year!

The entire Spring Sing cast and crew

HOSTS AND HOSTESSES

Hosts and Hostesses

Shelley Faulkner

Shelley returns to the Spring Sing stage for a third year, her second year as hostess. A junior communication management major from Searcy, Shelley is the 20-year-old daughter of Freddy and Kay Lawson and the wife of Mat Faulkner, who performs with ensemble this year. Shelley belongs to Zeta Rho social club, and her stage experience goes beyond Spring Sing to include roles in Peter Pan and Seven Brides for Seven Brothers.

Kim Hodges

Kim is our first second-generation Spring Sing hostess, following in her mother's foot steps. A 21-year-old senior marketing major from Searcy, she is the daughter of Steve and Carol Kell and the wife of John Hodges. Kim belongs to Shantih social club, Good News Singers and the Chorus. She directed her club show for Spring Sing 1998 and performed in Seven Brides for Seven Brothers.

Joey Kincheloe

Joey is a 20-year-old sophomore from Virginia Beach, Va., majoring in Bible. The son of Jim and Terri Kincheloe, he performed with his club show in Spring Sing 2000 and has sung with Concert Choir. Joey belongs to King's Men social club.

Joe Yale

A senior biology major from Kennett, Mo., Joe is making his second appearance as Spring Sing host. The 21-year-old son of Jon and Sandy Yale, Joe has performed with Searcy Summer Dinner Theatre and in the 2000 Homecoming musical, Man of La Mancha. He sings with Concert Choir and is active with Pi Kappa Epsilon social club.

Sand Dunes and Don'ts

GATA, Alpha Tau and Friends

The 40 thieves' greed has led them to follow an incompetent leader. They begin their search for riches by trying to catch a magic carpet. Unfortunately, the carpet gets away and they are forced to travel by camel. The thieves get lost in the desert, and their only hope of surviving is a miracle. Suddenly, they find a genie's lamp and are saved! Then the thieves celebrate the wealth that the genie granted.

Rough Riders

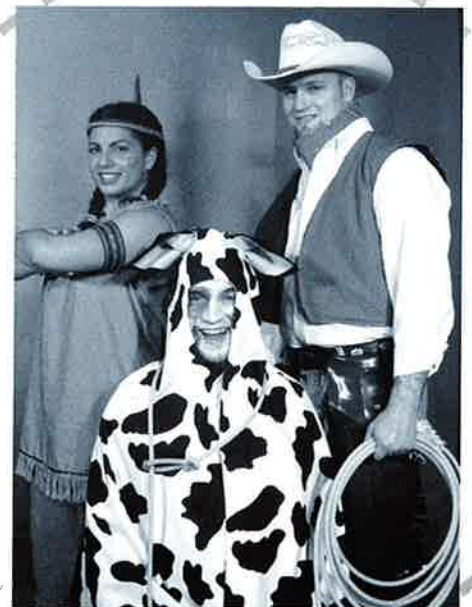

OEGE, Omega Lambda Chi and Friends

We invite you to take a step back in time to the years of the cowboy. Just walk through the doors and enter the Wild West, where the night is young and the party's just beginning. We'll deal anybody in but cheaters beware! If you get caught the sheriff will kick you out of this town. Come high noon you'd better be ready 'cause there will be a showdown you won't soon forget. That's just another day in the life of a cowboy. So grab your horse and hang on for a rough ride!

Goin' for the Gold!!

Chi Omega Pi, TNT, Zeta Rho and Friends

The torch has been lit, and the Olympic games have begun! The athletes from America are ready to show off the red, white and blue and prove that they're the ones to beat! The world is watching as they run, swim and ride with all their hearts. No matter what happens, nothing will keep them from working as a team. But when the final moment comes, will the judges choose America to win the gold? Join the members of Team USA as they prove that they're number one!

Step Aside, Here Comes the Bride!

Shantih and Friends

Love is in the air, but there's so much to do before the wedding: flowers to buy, a cake to choose and — of course — finding that perfect dress. But there's one more thing these girls must find time to do before the big day ... PARTY! The girls have a blast, though they can't help wondering what those boys are up to. Finally the day arrives. The boys are getting nervous, but the bride and her friends are ready to go. So step aside, here comes the bride!

Goin' Postal

Chi Sigma Alpha, Regina and Friends

Catalogues, packages, magazines, letters, sweepstakes, rebates, junk mail — how on earth can one person generate so much mail ... and complain that it takes so much longer than e-mail to get delivered? Chi Sigma Alpha, Regina and friends take a sympathetic look at a day in the lives of America's unsung heroes — postal workers. Once you spend a day sorting letters, weighing packages, running from rabid dogs, swatting off swarms of angry bees and braving the suburban mailbox jungle, you'll understand that going postal is actually much more than it's cracked up to be!

Okay ... Who was Driving the Boat?

Delta Chi Delta, Delta Gamma Rho, Kappa Gamma Epsilon and Friends

Welcome to our island! Pull up a seat (or some sand) and stay awhile! In the mean time I guess you're wondering why we're here.

It was a beautiful, summer day with the sun shining bright above, the wind blowing softly, and the sea gulls soaring overhead. Our cruise ship was steaming through the crashing ocean waves as we played shuffleboard on the top deck. Then all of a sudden, dark clouds rose on the horizon and rain began to pelt us as the wind howled over our heads. I think our captain must have fallen asleep, because we tipped over into the dark swirling sea. We swam and swam until we found some sandy earth beneath us. We slept until morning and then combed the island for civilization. There was no sign of life and our stomachs were howling!

Well, that about brings us up to speed. There are still some questions in our minds. Where are we? Will we be saved? Can we work together? Will our stomachs ever stop growling? What do you mean no TV? I guess the only thing that we know for certain is that we will survive!

There's No Place Like Home

Ju Go Ju, Ko Jo Kai and Friends

It's a perfect day for a family yard sale, until Mom makes a mistake. Now all Molly's dolls are for sale! The dolls ask for help from a group of friendly GI Joes. But before they can help, some scheming Barbies distract them, ruining the dolls' chance of getting home. Feeling hopeless, the dolls just want to find out why they were thrown away and how to get back home. When some neighborhood moms come to buy toys for their kids, the dolls have to make a choice: will they leave with the new kids or stay with Molly?
