This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in Spring Sing by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

A young child with short brown hair, wearing a white short-sleeved shirt and yellow overalls, stands at the bottom of the frame. The child is smiling and holding the strings of three balloons: a yellow one at the top, a red one in the middle, and a blue one at the bottom. The balloons are floating upwards. The background is a bright blue sky filled with soft, white, fluffy clouds. The overall mood is cheerful and uplifting.

president's welcome

We're thrilled to have you join us on this Spring Sing adventure — one that encourages you to sit back, relax and lighten up. Our students have worked countless hours to bring you this production, and we're extremely proud of the outcome.

I'm convinced the young people you'll see on stage and those you'll meet around campus this weekend are some of the best and brightest students in our nation. By using their talents to lead and to serve, our students uphold the principles upon which this University stands.

Thank you for your visit to campus this weekend, and thank you for believing in Harding's mission. Please let us know if we can be of service to you.

Enjoy the show!

David B. Burks, University President

a note from the director

"Overseriousness is a warning sign for mediocrity and bureaucratic thinking. People who are seriously committed to mastery and high performance are secure enough to lighten up."

— Michael J. Gelb

Well, there you go — lighten up. The perfect theme for a weekend where hundreds of college students pretend to be assorted game pieces, grand hotel staff, circus performers, flight attendants, coffee shop aficionados and retail giants. In a very real way, every Spring Sing is a call to lighten up.

What lighten up means is to simply relax and not take yourself so seriously. However, I can assure you that these college students are indeed serious about making this performance special for you. They are proud of their social clubs, excited to be serving their chosen charities (a first for Spring Sing), thrilled with their University and committed to their Lord. There is no mediocrity in the lives before you this evening.

So sit back, relax and lighten up. Harding University and its students are about to spark your imagination, excite your senses and lift your spirits.

Welcome to Spring Sing 2005. On with the show!

Steve N. Frye
Director of Spring Sing

a brief history

Hundreds of Harding students have poured their creative energies and talents into making this year's show a Spring Sing production you won't forget.

Dating back to 1974, Spring Sing began when a group of students planned a small-scale musical showcase for campus guests. Performed with the glamour and excitement of a big-time production, the show you'll enjoy tonight is grander than what they ever imagined.

The musical numbers by social clubs are judged at each performance from four perspectives: choreography, costumes, music and originality. Cash awards, plaques and trophies are presented after the Saturday evening performance based on the compilation of the judges' decisions. Two other awards are also presented — one to the club with the best percentage of club members participating and one to the club that best demonstrates the spirit of Christ during the Spring Sing process.

2005 marks the beginning of a new era for the show. Starting this year, each club show is being performed to serve a selected charity. Cash awards will be presented to the charities dependent upon the show's rank in the John H. Ryan Award competition.

The awards range from $200 to $1,000.

hosts and hostesses

Mary Catherine Clark

A veteran of the University stage, Mary Catherine has performed with the Chorus, in Spring Sing Ensemble, in the 2002 Homecoming musical, "Once Upon a Mattress," and in the 2003 Homecoming musical, "The Music Man." A senior dietetics major and current vice president of Ju Go Ju social club, Mary Catherine also participates in the Honors College and American Studies Institute. She is the daughter of David and Linda Clark of Huntsville, Ala.

Shawn Frazier

Shawn is a sophomore vocal music education major from Searcy. A second-year host, he also performed in the 2003 Homecoming musical and the all-state choir for four years. The son of Allen and Pam Frazier, Shawn sings in the Chorus and plays in the marching and concert bands.

Sam Peters

This production marks the second time Sam has hosted Spring Sing. A senior special education major, Sam is an active member of Gamma Sigma Phi social club and a Beaux for Shantih social club.

He also performs regularly as part of the drama ministry group Theatron. He is the son of Stacy and Kathy Peters of Little Rock, Ark.

Jillian Shackelford

A freshman from Bolivar, Tenn., Jillian is making her Spring Sing debut as a hostess. Her musical experience includes performances as a member of the Concert Choir. A nursing major, she is the daughter of Jeff and Kandy Shackelford.

checkin' inn

Alpha Tau Epsilon, Chi Lambda Chi, GATA, Kappa Gamma Epsilon, Kappa Kappa Kappa, Shantih and Friends

It's check-in time at the hotel, and who better to show the way through the day at a hotel than the staff? An overly anxious hotel manager greets the workers as they start their day. As the day continues, the maids and bellhops encounter four very different guests. How will the staff react to such preposterous demands? Join the hotel workers as their guests are checkin' in and checkin' out!

fellowship of the rings

Chi Omega Pi, Delta Chi Delta, Delta Gamma Rho and Friends

Ladies and gentlemen ... children of all ages ... the circus is here! With three entertaining rings of tigers, jugglers and acrobats, no wonder each group claims that its ring is the best. Will the ringleaders choose just one, or will the rings be able to unify and work together to perform a great show? Sit back and relax as you witness the exhilaration and timelessness of the three-ring circus extravaganza!

Join KJ Airlines on our first flight out of training. We'll be swooned over by our pilots, conflict with veteran flight attendants, and face a horrible storm. Through these difficult situations, we must keep the passengers calm and content, while maintaining our composure and trying to look our best.

Chi Sigma Alpha, Regina and Friends

The coffee shop — it's more than a place; it's a state of mind. It's an oasis of serenity, a haven of hyperactivity, and most importantly, a whole new world where all your problems disappear. Chi Sigma Alpha, Regina and Friends invite you to spend some time with us at our home away from home, The Coffee Beanery. We should warn you that our java lifestyle is highly addictive. Once you come in, you probably won't want to leave. But after all, what's so important that it can't wait on just one more cup of coffee?
