TOON IN!

Spring Sing 2006

Harding University

April 13-15

President's welcome

Thank you for visiting our campus this Spring Sing weekend. We believe you will find this year's production exciting and enjoyable. Hundreds of students have worked countless hours to bring you "Toon In," and we are proud of the energy and commitment they have demonstrated in bringing to life this high-quality show.

The students you will meet around campus uphold the principles on which this University stands, and I am convinced they are some of the best and brightest in the nation. Their leadership and service to others represent the fulfillment of our mission and the promise of a bright future.

We hope you enjoy Spring Sing 2006. Please let us know if we can assist you in any way.

David B. Burks,
University President

A note

“Animation offers a medium of storytelling and visual entertainment that can bring pleasure and information to people of all ages everywhere in the world.”

— Walt Disney

from the director

It was always best on a Saturday morning. There were three channels from which to choose and cartoons on all three channels. Five hours of cartoons just waiting for me. I thought it the perfect way to start the weekend. As I got older, I discovered Disney movies on a big screen. Then I began to understand the real power of storytelling and visual entertainment.

The years have come and gone. Cartoons are now on cable somewhere 24 hours per day. Saturdays are not the same. But because of Dreamworks, Pixar and anime, I am still convinced of animation's power. I am always delighted when transported to another world where fantasy comes to light and life.

Maybe that's why I love Spring Sing.

Spring Sing offers thousands of people and hundreds of performers the chance to share in storytelling and visual entertainment. So, it is perfectly fitting that students and staff have joined together this year to create a tribute to animation. Our theme is “Toon In!” It's time for Spring Sing to get animated. Enjoy the show!

Steve N. Frye
Director of Spring Sing

A brief history

Dating back to 1974, Spring Sing began when a group of students planned a small-scale musical showcase for campus guests. Performed with the glamour and excitement of a big-time production, tonight's show surpasses the imaginations of its originators.

Each club show is judged from four perspectives: choreography, costumes, music and originality. Winners receive cash awards, plaques and trophies after the Saturday evening performance based on the compilation of the judges' decisions. Two additional awards are presented — one to the club with the best percentage of club members participating and one to the club that best demonstrates the spirit of Christ during the Spring Sing process.

Last year, a new tradition began for the production as each club performed to serve a selected charity. This year will follow suit, with cash awards ranging from $200 to $1,000 presented to the charities dependent upon the show's rank in the John H. Ryan Award competition.

Hosts and Hostesses

Travis Wisely

Travis graces the Benson stage again after playing Lumiere in "Beauty and the Beast" last October. He is a junior middle-level math education major from St. Louis. The son of Phil and Sharon Wisely, Travis participates in Good News Singers and the Honors College.

Jillian Shackelford

Returning as a second-year hostess, Jillian is a sophomore family and consumer sciences major from Bolivar, Tenn. She is the daughter of Jeff and Kandy Shackelford.

Shawn Frazier

Shawn returns to Spring Sing, making Harding history as a third-time host. A junior music major from Searcy, he is the son of Allen and Pam Frazier. Shawn has performed in the last three Homecoming musicals, most recently playing the role of Cogsworth in Disney's "Beauty and the Beast." He also sings with the Chorus.

Lindsay Hoggatt

A junior music education major from Scottsdale, Ariz., Lindsay is no stranger to the Harding stage. She appeared as Belle in the 2005 Homecoming musical and performed in "The Music Man," "Kismet," and as a member of last year's Ensemble. Lindsay stays busy on campus in Chorus and Chamber Singers. In February 2006, she competed in the National Association of Teachers of Singing and placed first in classical and third in musical theater. She is the daughter of Jim and Susan Hoggatt.

Chi Sigma Alpha, Regina and Friends

The island couldn't be lovelier; its natives couldn't be happier. But trouble bubbles and brews behind the scenes — in the very volcano on which their beautiful homes are built. Earthquakes begin to interrupt their lives daily and smoke spills from the volcano's mouth in ominous billows. The islanders need a plan — a plan for escape — and time is not on their side. Despair threatens to seize them as their coming demise appears inevitable. After all, what blows up must come down.

What Blows Up Must Come Down

Special thanks to Jessie Stewart, our seamstress; John Scott, our music arranger; Lindsey for designing our fast break; Amy Bradley, Elizabeth Brewster and Cameron Kraus for directing our music; Rebecca Cato and Piper Counts for directing costume measurements; Courtney Campbell and Aaron Combs for your assistance during practice; Meghan Lindsay, our treasurer; Brandon Shirey, Dustin Vyers, Kirk Harris, Matt Eastridge, et al. for helping with set construction and design; and to our wonderful sponsors for your unconditional support and trust.

Ju Go Ju, Ko Jo Kai and Friends

Join our recruits as they experience the trials and tribulations of JK Boot Camp. Camp is much more difficult than our naïve recruits expected — especially having to deal with some very unfriendly majors! Despite being faced with all these obstacles, the girls work hard and survive until graduation.

Come with us on a journey to Super Mario World, where the Mario brothers have set out to rescue the beautiful Princess Peach from the evil Bowser and his Koopa clan. Earlier, Mario, Luigi, Peach and Toad were enjoying a day by the castle, safe from Bowser. But when Princess Peach is taken suddenly, the Mario brothers — with the help of sidekick Toad — must battle Bowser and win back the princess.

Judges

Phyllis Alexander — visuals

The work of this local artist has graced the covers of many magazines and books over the last 30 years. Phyllis specializes in portraits, photography and graphic design, and her watercolor portraits are in high demand. She currently cares for her parents and enjoys spending time with her husband, Tom; her children, Rachel, Isaac and Hannah; and three grandchildren.

Laura Eads — music

A Spring Sing Hostess in 1983 and 1986 and a club director in 1985, Laura holds a bachelor's degree in music from Harding and a master's degree in vocal performance from the University of Mississippi. She is currently working on her doctorate in voice at the University of Memphis.

A former Spring Sing vocal coach, she now serves as vocal coach for our Homecoming musicals and as an adjunct instructor of music on campus.

Laura recently made her professional operatic debut with Opera Memphis as the lead in "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

Renée French — staging

Currently serving as the cheerleading adviser for Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tenn., Renée has also been a choreographer for area high school cheerleading squads and dance teams. She is an experienced judge for local, regional, state and national cheer and dance competitions for Universal Cheerleaders Association and JamFest. She is also a former All-Star cheerleading coach and choreographer.

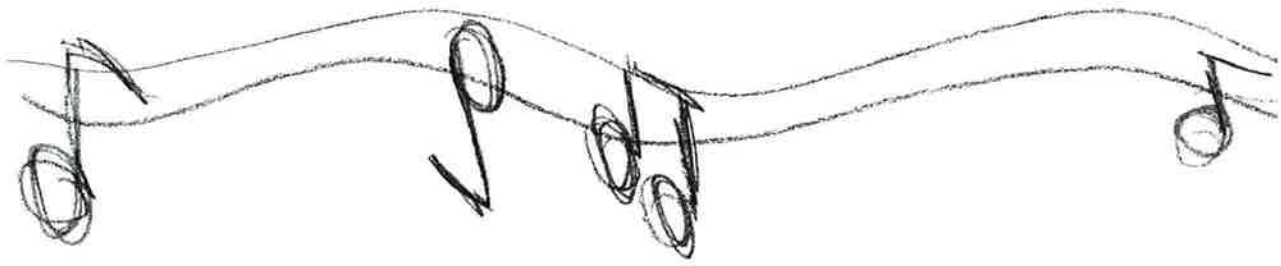

While at Harding, she performed in the Ensemble in 1992, 1993 and 1994. She served as a club director/choreographer in 1993 and 1994. She holds a bachelor's degree in English from the University.

Robert Stacy Harris — music

Robert's Spring Sing experience is extensive. Not only was he a member of Ensemble in 1990, 1994 and 1995, but also he served as a club director in 1991, club choreographer and music arranger from 1991-1995, and arranger of the first three "megamix" finales from 1996-1998.

Robert has been a K-4 music teacher, a district fine arts coordinator in Dallas, and a choral arranger and conductor. He is currently the administrator of instructional technology in the Highland Park Independent School District in Dallas. He holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education and a master's degree in administration, both from the University.

Ben Jones — visuals

A seasoned performer, Ben currently teaches theater at Page High School in Franklin, Tenn. He has been a lighting director in Branson, Mo., member of Ensemble in 1994, and judge for Freed-Hardeman University's Makin' Music. He holds a bachelor's degree in theater from Harding and a master's degree in administration and supervision. His most recent production was "Oklahoma."

Ellen Jones — staging

Ellen helps her husband, Ben, with music directing, choreography and costumes for his high school plays. She is more than capable, having been a stage manager for two Harding Homecoming musicals; a seamstress for a club show in 1999; a costumer for the Shoji Tabuchi show in Branson, Mo., for two years; and the musical director, as well as an actress, for the Pull-Tight Players in Franklin, Tenn. Ellen holds a bachelor's degree in music and theater from the University.

Jenny R. Moses — visuals

Jenny is very familiar with Spring Sing, having served as a club director in 1997 and a member of the Ensemble in 1998, 1999 and 2000. In addition to these credentials, she has been a cast member of numerous musicals and plays, directed Searcy Summer Dinner Theatre, and performed at the Texarkana Reparatory Theatre and served on its board of directors. She is currently the director of theater at Hooks High School in Hooks, Texas.

Marcus Neely — staging

A veteran of the Benson stage, Marcus served as Spring Sing host in 1998 and 1999, a member of Ensemble in 1997, and a member of the backstage crew in 2000. He also performed in numerous University musicals: "The Secret Garden," "Camelot," "Peter Pan," "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers," and "Fantasticks." He holds a bachelor's degree in theater and vocational ministry with a minor in TV/radio from Harding. Since graduating, Marcus has been a professional stage actor, including residencies at Casa Manana's Children's Playhouse and roles at the Dallas Theatre Center, Dallas Children's Theatre, Stage West, and Pittsburgh Public Theatre. He is a member in good standing of Actor's Equity Association and has done voiceover, video and television work. He is currently youth minister at College Hill Church of Christ in North Richland Hills, Texas.

Stacey Neely — music

Stacey holds the bachelor of music education degree from the University and a master's degree in vocal pedagogy from Texas Women's University in Denton, Texas. She is currently choir director for the Birdville Independent School District in Birdville, Texas.

She has worked as a private voice instructor, vocal coach for musicals, recitalist, and vocal judge for Texas UIL and was a member of Schola Cantorum of Texas. Her Spring Sing credits include student music director for a club show in 1996.
