Welcome to Spring Sing 2008!

Spring Sing acknowledges that we are all a work in progress. We are all "Unfinished." Follow the Spring Sing timeline throughout the program (the dotted line), and by the end of the show you will know that, just like us, Spring Sing is never completely finished.

*funny*business

March 2005

The Production Team first realizes in March 2005 how early Spring Sing Weekend 2008 would be on the calendar. They joke about the theme "Unfinished" at the time. Little did they know .....

April 2006

"Unfinished" named as theme concept for 2008.

finaldecisions

October 2006

The Creative Committee meets and decides to adopt "Unfinished" as the theme for 2008.

April 2007

Announce theme at Spring Sing 2007.

true love?

The sailors of the U.S. Navy are returning home from WWII. Upon their arrival, the boys discover they have been away so long, they don't know which girl is their girlfriend. Through singing and a little advice, we'll watch the sailors find their way back into their girls' good graces, and maybe even a proposal at the end ...

president's note

Welcome to the Harding campus and Spring Sing 2008. While this year's theme is "Unfinished," the high-energy performances will demonstrate polish and refinement. These students have spent countless hours in preparation for this weekend, one we all look forward to each year.

"Unfinished" represents the idea that Harding and its students, faculty and staff are always works in progress. Never content with the status quo, this is a community in constant search of opportunities for spiritual and academic development. While you are here, I hope you will take time to visit with some of these individuals as you explore the campus.

We hope you enjoy Spring Sing 2008. Please let us know if we can assist you in any way.

"The architecture of the future is not only unfinished; the scaffolding has hardly gone up."
-George Lamming

Welcome to Spring Sing 2008. Our production is earlier this year than it has ever been before. It is earlier than it will ever be for another century. And as a result, it is "Unfinished."

But what does it mean to be "Unfinished"? The dictionary states that in regard to an object, unfinished means "not having been given an attractive surface appearance as the final stage of manufacture." It would suggest that the object is in process, a rough cut of what will eventually be beautiful. That's about where this show is today. That's about where these students are today. It's about where I am today.

The students of Harding University are learning that every day is just another rehearsal. Their greatest reward will not be found in completing a shiny facade, but in the genuine process of discovering how hard work, cooperation and faith in Jesus Christ will help them move a step closer to their goal. They are the architects of the future. Spring Sing 2008 celebrates the scaffolding work underway.

Welcome to the rehearsal.
