“THE MORE YOU LOSE YOURSELF IN SOMETHING BIGGER THAN YOURSELF, THE MORE ENERGY YOU WILL HAVE.”

Norman Vincent Peale

I got lost at the age of 15. I was pulled by something bigger than myself, and I am confident that I would have drowned if not for Jesus Christ pulling me up out of the water and saying, “Now you are free.”

His love energized me to pursue a Christian education. I got lost again a few years later. Fortunately, Dottie said yes, and I was energized again to be a better man, husband, and then a father to Andrew and Matthew.

A few years passed and I got lost again in a little city named Searcy. I met people who were Larger than Life—Dr. Joe, Dr. Ganus, Jimmy Allen, Neale Pryor—and I was energized to be a greater servant to Christian education. I am thankful to have been mentored by Dr. John H. Ryan and led by Dr. David B. Burks.

I have now been lost for 19 years in something else that is Larger than Life. It is Spring Sing at Harding University. When something or someone is Larger than Life, they are said to be very impressive, imposing, even legendary. There are many examples of Larger than Life songs or musicians. There are individuals in history that are unforgettable.

Harding University is, in many ways, Larger Than Life.

Some ideas and beliefs are so big that we seem to lose ourselves inside them. So, let me invite you to come get lost with us for the next two hours. I believe you will feel the energy. Then join us as partners for an adventure that is truly Larger Than Life.

BENJI HOLDER

A senior from Fort Wayne, Ind., Benji Holder is appearing as a Spring Sing host for the second year in a row. Benji is the son of Andy and Kerry Holder. Benji recalls a Larger than Life moment he had at Bandido's Mexican Restaurant on January 16, 2000.

"My parents asked me [that night], if I could have anything I wanted, what would it be," Benji, who was 9 years old at the time, said. "Expecting me to respond with some toy, I told my parents that I wanted to be Jesus' disciple and to be baptized. From that day on, I have been walking with Jesus, and I have been forever changed."

A music and leadership and ministry major, you have probably seen him perform with the Harding Chorus or as Daddy Warbucks in Annie in 2011. He has also performed on the Benson stage as Zebulum in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat in 2012.

TORI WISELY

Larger than Life has a special meaning to junior English and Spanish major Tori Wisely.

"Our time on earth is but a vapor, and our purpose is so much bigger than just this life," Tori said. "Thanks be to God that we have the promise of an eternal home in heaven. Our Christian walk is way larger than this life."

Tori, the daughter of Phil and Sharon Wisely, is from O'Fallon, Ill. A 2011 Spring Sing hostess, Tori has also appeared in Thoroughly Modern Millie and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

"I love Spring Sing," Tori said. "I always have. I love the idea of a massive production that brings the entire campus together. Spring Sing, at its very core, is about a group of students and faculty who love God, love one another and desire to share that love."

JONATHAN ANDREW

The only freshman host this year, Jonathan Andrew is a theatre major from Pittsburgh, Pa.

"I just wanted to be involved in the show in any way possible," Jonathan said. "And to be honest, I didn't even know what being a host meant [at first]. I had simply heard many wonderful stories about the relationships and memories that are formed through the Spring Sing process. I wanted to be a part of it."

Jonathan is the son of Keith and Tammy Andrew. He is already a familiar face to Harding theatre. He was Gad in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat this fall. He is also a member of the Pied Pipers and the Harding Chorus.

Excited about this year's show, Jonathan sees a bigger meaning in the 2013 Spring Sing theme.

"Larger than Life is a reminder that we are part of something larger than ourselves," Jonathan said.

LINDSEY SLOAN

Lindsey Sloan is a native of Willard, Mo. The daughter of Marty and Connie Sloan, she is a junior communication sciences and disorders major.

She was a club director for Zeta Rho and TNT's 2012 Spring Sing show. This year she is excited to be serving in the hostess role.

"I have been coming to Spring Sing since I was in middle school, and the hosts and hostesses have always really impressed me," Lindsey said. "This is absolutely one of the greatest blessings I have ever been able to be a part of."

She last appeared in the fall 2012 Harding production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

"For me, Larger than Life is something that is seen to be extraordinary—something that has an aura of greatness about it," Lindsey said.

AUSTIN COLLUM

A sophomore music and communication sciences and disorders double major from Cherokee, Ala., Austin Collum is the son of Rickey and Lisa Collum.

Austin's Harding musical resume includes Spring Sing 2012 Ensemble, Good News Singers, Harding Chorus and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

Austin said this year's Spring Sing theme reminds him of something very special.

"Larger than Life reminds me of Colossians 3:23, which talks about putting your whole heart into everything you do and doing those things for the Lord," Austin said. "That verse has been my motto thus far throughout my college experience. If you truly want to do something that is Larger than Life, you have to work at it with your whole heart while you're working for God."

THE SHOW

Welcome to another beautiful day at Camp Iron Lily! We are taking you on a musical journey from sunrise to sunset at a place we hold close to our hearts. Think back to your first camp experience and reminisce as Iron Lily brings those memories to life. Get ready for some fun in the sun, flirty summer flings, and even a night of fright. Pull out that camp uniform and we'll meet you at the sound of the rooster's crow!

THE SHOW

The people of Camelot have been plagued with ogres, robbers, and dragons, for years. When they reach the end of their rope they turn to the wise old wizard Merlin for help. Merlin tells the people to find a ruler to lead them. The peasants take his advice and set up a contest involving a sword and a stone to find their rightful king.

THE SHOW

Dive into the lives of Olympians from all over the world. We'll stop at four different countries participating in seven different sports from track to rowing. Although the competition is fierce, the 2013 Spring Sing Olympics will remind us that we are part of the same team.

SPECIAL THANKS

God, for being there always through this whole process. Steve Frye and Cindee Stockstill for all of their hard work and encouragement. Elizabeth Schall, Carly Taylor, and Matthew Eller for helping us out during our music practices.

Spring Sing 2013

PRESIDENT'S NOTE

LET ME WELCOME YOU TO SPRING SING 2013 AND TO THE HARDING CAMPUS.

This is always an exciting weekend for prospective students, alumni, parents and visitors. We enjoy having you here as much as you will enjoy the musical performances of Spring Sing. Our many talented students have prepared a show full of fun, energy and creativity.

This is Spring Sing's 40th anniversary and the last one of my presidency. The theme Larger than Life serves not only as a fitting backdrop for the weekend's performances but also encompasses how I feel about this marvelous university. In my time as president, Harding's spirit of faith, service and — yes — camaraderie has created a shining example to others, and it has been my privilege to serve as president surrounded by such wonderful people spreading the message of Christ — one which is truly Larger than Life.

With that being said, I hope you will sit back and enjoy each group's performance celebrating music, people and ideas that are Larger than Life.

David B Burks
