April 19, 1956

The Student Council met April 19 in the seminar room of the library, Prayer was led by Jerry Martin.

Business Discussed;

1. Dr. Benson Day-Weldon Hendrix will try to schedule a chapel period to fit into Dr. Benson's busy schedule. Frames must be selected and pictures obtained. Committee will work in the project.
2. Spelling Bee- No time has been set.
3. Honor Rec. Day- Date was set for May 29. Nina will organize and get material for the program. Installation of officers will be worked up by Nina and Jerry.
4. Student Elections will be held May 9. Winfred will make announcements in chapel concerning qualifications and petitions for candidates for officers. Petitions must be in by Tuesday May 1.
5. Report from ASGA convention by Jay Byerley. The convention was held at Philander Smith College, Little Rock. Jay reported on the activities of the association. Material concerning the organization of the Arkansas chapter will be left in the files for next year's council. The council could see no reason for joining unless we could help them or they could help us. We will recommend to next Year's council to investigate further and then join if they can profitably.
6. Lights on the Tennis Courts- A suggestion for lights on the tennis courts so games could be played at night was made. We must check on objections by people who live by tennis courts. Jay will bring it with the Bldg. and Grounds Committee.

Respectfully submitted
