Winter Chorus Tour Highlights Year

◀ New robes arrived in time to be taken on trip, were tried at pre-tour performance. Different colored collars of red, white, and purple, surprised, pleased audiences.

Bus loaded and journey underway, stop is soon made for lunch and football game pitting tenors against basses. As bus rolls along into night, many are lulled to sleep.

Trip highspot is Chicago where chorus sings on Don McNeil's Breakfast Club, Alumni Secretary Jo Connell who accompanied group makes hit with Sam, Don and nationwide radio-TV audience. Director Kenneth Davis smiles approval.

◀ Waiting in church basement before time to go on, group is entertained by singer's story of "eensie, teensie, little bird."

Singers at after-concert party in church member's home, take busman's holiday.

Famished choristers crowd cafe, return to bus to sing Alma Mater as bus pulls away.

Chorus Tours Seven States 2,000 Miles in Ten Days

The boys and girls in this special issue are part of the Harding A Cappella Small Chorus. These pictures show them on their annual winter tour. Travelling 2,000 miles through seven states, collecting in ten days a brand new set of memories, they were glad to get back at school, resume other wonderful activities of life on the campus of Harding College.

Singing with spirit and understanding, making melodies in their hearts to God inspires listeners and singers alike.

A banquet was given for them one night, buffets and potlucks all along the way.
