Where Christian and American ideals go hand-in-hand

Richardson as Pagliaccio

Little Rock Opera Likes Our Singers

Morgan Richardson, post graduate music major from Bellewood, Ill., was chosen for the star role in "Pagliacci," presented this month in the Robinson Memorial auditorium in Little Rock. In the other half of the twin bill, "Cavalleria Rusticana," Charlene Harris, junior English major, was picked to sing the part of Mama Lucia. The A Cappella Chorus contributed 25 members to the choral efforts of the two operas.

Richardson, who has shown great versatility and talent in other roles, has been such an outstanding success in the lead of "Pagliacci" that he has gained considerable fame both here and at Chicago for his superb performances, and was therefore the natural choice for the Little Rock presentation.

Prof. Kenneth Davis, who triumphed in Little Rock last spring in "Rigoletto," will sing as Turridu in "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Who's Who Lists 20 Harding Students

Twenty students at Harding College have been named to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges in recognition of outstanding abilities and leadership. Candidates are chosen on the basis of contributions to every phase of student life, including scholastic achievements, student government, athletics, dramatics, debate, music, journalism, and service activities.

Nomination begins with the Student Association, and progresses through the faculty who have the privilege of final decision after having added and subtracted names through their discretion.

Two members, Sallie Turner, senior English major, Charleston,

W. Va., and Fred Massey, senior general science major, Pontotoc, Miss., are on the Who's Who list for the second time. Miss Turner is the editor of the Petit Jean, and has been active in student affairs since her freshman year. Massey, who attended the Academy before entering college, has been outstanding in sports, scholastic work, and general activities.

Who's Who members represent 11 different states and one Canadian province. Five are from Arkansas, three each from Missouri and Texas, one each from Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Oklahoma and West Virginia. Two are from Toronto, Canada.

Modern Apartments Nearing Completion For Next Semester

Married students are carefully watching the steady progress of construction on the new 60-unit housing project which will be partly ready for occupancy by the beginning of the spring semester. Exterior brick work and roofing has been completed. Electricians, plumbers, lathers, plasterers, tile setters, and painters are in the process of creeping through unit-after-unit—with the result that present plans indicate that one large building will have all units ready for anxious families before February.

When completed, the entire project will provide 52 one-bedroom apartments which also have living room sleeping accommodations, and eight two-bedroom suites. Space is budgeted with maximum efficiency which still provides adequate roominess. Each of the furnished suites will be equipped with the latest in modern appliances. Laundry rooms with automatic washers and dryers are located in the center of each of the three buildings.

All automobile traffic will be confined to the rear of the buildings, with the large center plaza reserved for landscaping and play areas.

Academy Queen Naita Jean Berryhill

Intramural Queen: Nelda Roach

Queens Of Academy And College Sports

Twice recently, Wildcat Stadium has seen a football queen crowned. On October 23, Academy Homecoming Day, Naita Jean Berryhill, daughter of athletic director "Pinky" Berryhill, was crowned homecoming queen by football captain Timmy Rhodes amid thundering cheers of the crowd and her own tears of complete surprise. A better reason for tears came later as the Wildcats lost 20-7.

On November 1, the college intramural tackle football program came to a thrilling close with a 14-8 game that wouldn't be settled until a last-second fumble by the losing All Stars of the West. Prior to the game, Nelda Roach, Spring Lake, Tex., junior was crowned queen of the intramurals by Dean of Students James Atkinson. She witnessed the game from her special flower-moon throne.

Chorus Fall Tour To Heart Of Grain Belt

The A Cappella Chorus, featuring a new repertoire, leaves in the small hours of Friday, Nov. 28, for a tour of the heart of the grain belt. The traveling group of 43 members, picked from the full chorus of 72, will make its first tour appearance at 2:45 in the afternoon on KTUL-TV, channel 8, Tulsa. Its first evening program, also in this great oil city, will be at the Church of Christ, 2748 E. 15th St.

The tour, which includes other TV programs and several daytime high school programs, continues with these basic appearances; Saturday, Nov. 29, 7:30 p.m., Wichita University Fine Arts Center, Wichita, Kans.; Sunday, Nov. 30, 2:30 p.m., Church of Christ, 130 Cleveland Ave., Wichita, Kans.; 8:30 p.m., Church of Christ, Kingman, Kans.; Monday, Dec. 1, evening,
