LECTURESHIP THEME IS TIMELY AND IMPORTANT

Harding College will present its 36th annual Lectureship in Searcy Nov. 23-26 with a qualified panel of speakers scheduled to discuss timely topics.

Theme of the Lectureship will be "Some Current Problems and Opportunities Facing the Church." Some 49 speakers and teachers will take part in the program. Panel discussions, special topic reports and classes will supplement main lectures at night and chapel programs.

John D. Cox will speak Monday, Nov. 23, at 7:30 p.m. on "Some Current Problems and Opportunities Facing the Church: Backgrounds and Definition of the Subject."

J. P. Sanders is the evening speaker on Tuesday, Nov. 24, with the subject, "Problems and Challenges in Christian Education."

J. D. Thomas will speak on "We Be Brethren" Wednesday, Nov. 25, at 7:30 p.m. while Marshall Keeble will close out the Lectureship Thursday night, Nov. 26, when he speaks at 7:30.

Chapel speakers Tuesday will be George S. Benson and Leon C. Burns. Speaking Wednesday at chapel will be Willard Collins and Judge Sam Davis Tatum. Two addresses are planned for Thursday morning, one by Clifton L. Ganus, Jr., and Reuel Lemmons.

A series of 11 classes are planned Tuesday through Thursday at 3:15 p.m. Topics will range from "Challenges in the Primary Grades" to "Personal Counseling." A special feature of the Lectureship this year is a class for women at 4:45 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday. Mrs. Theo Kail will lecture each day on "The Graces and Responsibilities of Christian Women."

Other special features include the following: dinner for past and present Harding graduate Bible students, 5 p.m. Tuesday; dinner for friends of 20th Century Christian, 5:30 p.m. Tuesday; free Thanksgiving barbecue at noon Thursday; and a dinner for elders and ministers as guests of Harding, 5 p.m. Thursday.

HOMECOMING DINNER

A special alumni dinner is planned during Lectureship this year on Wednesday, Nov. 25.

Executive secretary Buford Tucker said the dinner is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. at the Rendezvous restaurant in Searcy. "All alumni, friends, wives and husbands will be welcome," he added.

Tucker suggested that those interested in attending write him for reservations in care of the college. Tickets are $1.50 each, he said. They will go on sale on the campus Monday, Nov. 23.

Tucker said a program is planned which should interest all alumni. He urged as many as possible to attend.

A New Year on Campus

The largest freshman class in our history has now been enrolled. Total enrollment is also at the highest figure in our history. It is a unique thrill each fall to meet new students. These students have high hopes for their Christian education.

This year more than a thousand students from 40 states and 10 foreign countries demonstrated their belief that to obtain a Christian education is worth crossing oceans and mountains, worth overcoming national and international boundaries, worth financial strain and sometimes financial privation. Those of us to whom so many have entrusted their education feel the need of God's help in working to justify such a faith in the worth of Christian education.

Those of us who are beneficiaries of some great Christian educator know that we would not exchange our educational experience in Harding College for anything. We who now stand in the position of "Christian Educator" fondly hope and fervently pray that we may impart some of these same values to our students.

Plan to Contribute in 1959-60

The financial report elsewhere in the bulletin is a matter for your consideration. The percentage of graduates contributing this year is two-tenths of a point higher than last year. The amount of money contributed last year was about $7,000 more than this year. Nevertheless, $25,000 is a sizeable amount

FROM HERE AND THERE . . .

Ann Laura Dean (BA'54) participated on full scholarship in the American Studies Program of ACC this summer. She received an M.Ed. degree in August from Abilene Christian.

James D. Brown (BS'55) enrolled at Georgia Tech to do work toward M.S. and Ph.D degrees on a grant by the Atomic Energy Commission of research fellowship.

Jim Eckerberg (BS'59) is a chemist for Corn Products Refining Co. in Kansas City. His wife Mary Jane Everhard ('59) is a secretary for Hardware Mutual Insurance Co.

Dick Otey ('56) formerly with Republic Steel in Cleveland, Ohio, is now teaching music in Memorial Junior High School in South Euclid-Lyndhurst, O.

of money. Some alumni made a sacrifice to give to the alumni fund and it is deeply appreciated. I do hope that we all plan to continue giving and do better during 1959-60.

We're planning to make the Thanksgiving Lectureship a real old-fashioned Homecoming occasion. Why not plan to come and enjoy the lectures, the visits and the fellowship of the alumni dinner? We'll look for you.
