HARDING ALUMNI BUSY AT 10th GERMAN LECTURESHIP

The 10th annual European Lectureship, held in August in Frankfurt, Germany, drew representatives from 16 nations of Europe, Africa and Asia. At least 15 Harding alumni were on hand, with six conducting part of the lectures.

Evening lectures were built around the theme "Adding to Your Faith." Morning lectures expanded from the theme "The Church in Paul's Epistles." A class for men was conducted on "Developing Spiritually" and special classes were also held for women.

Ex-Harding students conducting part of the lectures were Bob Hare (MA'56), Austria; J. L. Roberts (BS'48), Belgium; Dale Buckley (MA'55), Scotland; Gottfried Reichel (BA'53), Germany; and Glen Olbricht (BS'53), Germany.

One of the class leaders, Henry Seidemeyer of Frankfurt, gave this appraisal, "This lectureship is the highlight of the year for many missionaries in Europe. It is the largest gathering of Christians outside the United States and helps the missionaries to return to their work spiritually refreshed."

The closing day crowd added to a total of 400 persons.

Part of the Harding Alumni who attended the European Lectureship last August in Frankfurt, Germany, were, front row, Robert Skelton (MA'53), Austria; Margaret (Assoc.) and J. Lee Roberts (BS'48), Belgium; Nedra Olbricht McGill (BA'49), Germany, (who sent the picture), and Ruth Hare (BS'43). Second row, Gottfried Reichel (BA'53), Germany; Margaret Brown (55), Germany; Truman Scott (MA'58), Italy; and Glenn Olbricht (BS'53), Germany. Third row, Jerry (MA'56) and Peggy (BA'56) Porter, Ireland; Norman Kee ('55), Germany; Wil Goodheer (Spec.) Holland; and Bob Hare (MA'56), Austria. Dale Buckley (MA'55), Scotland, also attended.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Your particular attention is called to the two items below. The Lectureship, including the Alumni Dinner which is a part of the Lectureship program, offers a great opportunity to get together with old friends and re-live college days. Considering the fact that this blessing can be enjoyed on the beautiful present campus that once was only a dream makes it doubly fruitful. We are looking for you!

LECTURESHIP NOV. 20-23

Every effort has been made to make this lecture series outstanding. The theme, "Current Challenges and Dangers Facing The Church," offers challenges and opportunities to all Christians. To discuss this subject in its various aspects, fifty speakers from twelve states will help to make this lectureship interesting and fruitful.

In addition to a three-day feast of spiritual things, you will be the guest of Harding for barbecue dinner on Thanksgiving Day. Special events like alumni dinner, the elders, deacons and preachers dinner, music by the college quartet, the women's ensemble and the A Cappella Chorus, the faculty-alumni softball game, and the Harding Bison basketball opener, personal contacts with old friends and the meeting of new friends, will make your trip pleasant and worth while.

Bring your family, and friends and join us on November 20 for three unforgettable and enjoyable days.

ALUMNI DINNER NOV. 22

You are invited to attend the annual Alumni Dinner on Nov. 22 at 5:30 p.m. Your family and friends are also invited. The cost per person will be $1.50 for this Thanksgiving dinner at the Rendezvous Cafe.

Each year brings a larger number of alumni back home. As a means of getting together for a real fellowship period, this dinner has been made an annual affair.

The dinner will feature enjoyable entertainment, appetizing food, no more than three speakers of five minutes each and plenty of time for visiting. Dr. Evan Ulrey will preside.

Make your plans to meet your friends and share this dinner and the lectureship with others who will attend.

Nominating Committee Reports on New Slate

At the Alumni Luncheon and Business Meeting last June, President Evan Ulrey appointed a nominating committee to recommend the names of candidates for consideration by the membership. The committee consisted of Walter Buchanan (BA'57), chairman, Mrs. Lucien Bagnetto (BA'47), and J. Lewis Foster, (BA'31).

The committee has made its report and the following names are submitted: For vice president, Leon Sanderson (BA'54), Virgil Lawyer (BA'46), and Mrs. Florence Bartley (BA'39). For president, Evan Ulrey (BA'46).

Additional nominations can be made by any alumnus before Feb. 1, 1962. If you submit names, you should first determine their willingness to serve. Send all nominations to the Alumni Office indicating the position for which the alumnus is being nominated.

The person receiving the largest number of nominations for president, and the two persons receiving the largest number of nominations for vice-president, will be added to the final ballot for your consideration.

The nomination and election of officers are important to you because they will direct association activities for the next two years. Give this careful consideration and express your thinking by mailing in your choice of candidates. Help select your association candidates and be actively interested in all they seek to accomplish.

After 28 years of teaching — 18 years with the East Detroit schools and 10 years with Kentucky schools — Mrs. Scott Greer (Mary Gray-BS'41) has retired.

NO FALSE ALARM HERE

Gay Willis Bowers ('56) and her husband Clayton of New Orleans never will forget Feb. 22.

Most parents recall fondly the birth-dates of their children, but the birth of little Randal that day involved a fire station, the fire captain and a baby boy big enough to excite any hospital's obstetrics ward.

Signals came shortly before midnight Feb. 21 that Randal was about to enter the world, and arrangements were made for the Bowers' other three children to be cared for. The physician was telephoned, the hospital notified and the parents started the typical last-second dash.

Little did they know just how few seconds were left, though, and when they drove in front of Engine No. 28 at 4131 Elysian Fields, they realized the hospital was out of the question.

Firemen in the station awakened Capt. Raymond Sander, who claimed experience some 28 years ago in such emergencies, and with the aid of Clayton, the two delivered an 11½-pound boy.

"He was a real big child," said the captain. "A whopper." Capt. Sander administered the usual entrance initiation to Randal . . . a sound slap on the seat.

Later, an ambulance took mother and child to Mercy Hospital where both were reported in good condition. Capt. Sanders estimated Randal was born shortly after midnight, placing the date on Feb. 22.

"That's a coincidence," said the exhausted father. "All my babies have been born on the 22nd. Danny came Nov. 22, Connie Sue on July 22 and Tammye on Nov. 22. Danny is 4, Connie Sue 3 and Tammye 2."

A commendation came to Capt. Sanders from his superiors along with the suggestion he recruit Randal as a fireman for later years. Certainly, no other little guest ever caused so much excitement in Engine house No. 28.

VIRGIL WEARE SUGGESTS

Pleasant, heartening encouraging! These words help express a real feeling of satisfaction when alumni write in or come in with ideas they feel will be an incentive to alumni giving. Here is one of those suggestions:

Virgil T. Weare (BA'56) writes: "As an alumnus of Harding College, I would like to suggest a method of helping the college and those that desire to attend college.

"Each Harding Alumnus, graduate or non-graduate, could pay the room reservation fee for every student entering Harding from his local high school or local congregation. If the cost should be more than one person could pay, seek the assistance of other local alumni. When the student leaves Harding, either as a graduate or as an ex-student, the room fee would automatically be turned over as a contribution to the Alumni Fund from the one or ones making the deposit."

Virgil has made this offer at the high school where he graduated.

The plan suggests that you:

1. Serve as an agent of Harding in interesting able and worthy students.
2. Help in getting them to enroll.

This plan will serve to strengthen your interest in Harding and safeguard the future of the college.

It Was Surely Inevitable!

When a plea went out in late summer for alumni to build up the total number of contributors a parting thought suggested giving the "price of a meal or a bale of hay," followed by a P. S. saying, "If you can't send the money, send the hay."

Well, you guessed it. Somebody did just that. In fact, many of you could guess who would be first to follow up on that suggestion. It was none other than our good friend and humorous prankster, Bill Floyd (BA'57) who is now teaching at Tennessee Tech after doing work toward the PhD at Penn State University.

Loyal Bill's first response was a letter containing a sprig of Pennsylvania hay, but was soon followed up by arrangements for a full bale of the real stuff to be delivered from the College Dairy Farm. Thanks, Bill, your gift means much more than hay to us. It helps us prove the importance of any gift of value.

This may give you an idea of some-

Southern California

The annual picnic was held Saturday, Sept. 16, at Irvine Park in Orange. Sixty alumni and friends attended despite showers during the day.

The Pay-For-A-Day project was completed and a check was mailed to Harding together with the names of all who contributed to the project.

The following were elected as officers for the coming year: Gene Koken (BA'40), president; Lloyd D. Frashier (BA'40), vice president; and Freda Gibson (BA'51), secretary-treasurer.

Middle Tennessee

On Monday, Sept. 25, Harding alumni in the Nashville area attended an organization meeting. Elected to serve for the following year were: James R. (Jim) Williams ('61) president; Clifford Huddleston (BA'36), vice president; and Alexine Hankins (BA'37), secretary-treasurer.

Another meeting is being scheduled soon to discuss a program of activity and officially accept the alumni charter certifying the Middle Tennessee Chapter. Jim Bill McInteer (BA'42) and Jim Williams ('61) were active in getting the chapter started.

Houston

The alumni in Houston met recently at McGregg's Park and reorganized. This meeting was called for the purpose of electing officers and a good turn-out was reported. Another meeting has been scheduled for October, at which time chapter activities will be discussed. Charles Jester (BA'60) and Bill O'Daniel (BS'60) were helpful in the reorganization of the chapter.

Those chosen to serve as officers for the first year were: Charles G. Jester (BA'60), president; Rex Davis (BA'55), vice president; and Wanda Gwin (BA'57) secretary-treasurer.

thing you can give of value other than money. Heading the list of possibilities would be a gift of part of yourself — perhaps a contribution of time and effort helping your Alumni Association to be of better service to past, present and future Harding students.

You can do this in a number of ways. The simplest way would be to encourage other alumni to be more active in the interest of Harding. Another opportunity would be to help organize an active Alumni Chapter in your area if there is not one. After all, when your heart is in the right place your treasure will be also.
