Pursuit of Excellence — Decade of Development

By Dr. Clifton L. Ganus, Jr.

Harding alumni have so much for which to be thankful. The love of God has showered us with material and spiritual blessings, as individuals and as a Christian college. The unstinted, dedicated service of many and the moral and financial support of a host of friends has brought us to a high plateau of excellence and achievement for which we are humbly thankful. Now we must press forward and rise to greater heights. There are academic and spiritual mountains yet to climb before we can rest. It will not be easy but neither was the conquest of Mt. Everest. Many people, much money, intense dedication and hard work carried the small party to the top of this giant.

I know that all of us want our Alma Mater to be the best possible institution and to render the greatest service possible. To this our faculty and staff have dedicated themselves, but we need the help of every alumnus. My thanks goes out to the many of you who have given so liberally of yourselves and your possessions. Please continue to do so. My pleas go out to those who have been holding back and saying "Let George do it." We need your assistance today more than ever to help take care of the many additional students this year (240 more this year than last). We appreciate the opportunity of educating your children and those whom you send us. We welcome your suggestions and the good job you do in presenting Harding to the world. We are happy when you some home to visit and to renew acquaintances.

Harding Hundred Club

We will further inform you of the tremendous program approved by the Board of Directors which calls for $10,000,000 in the next ten years. In the meantime, however, there is one area in which you can help us greatly — the general fund. In addition to tuition, fees, room, board, auxiliary enterprises and endowment, we must raise $160,000 each year just to keep on operating. This does not include any new building or major repairs, which, of course, must come.

I would like to invite you to become a member of the Harding Hundred Club. This honor group will be composed of all alumni and ex-students who give at least $100 each year to the support of their alma mater. Many of us can do this without much sacrifice. It would help tremendously if we could find 1,000 alumni and ex-students who would provide this amount — in addition to any building or special programs — to help finance a greater future for Harding and Christian education. Louise and I are depositing the first $200 for membership and plan to continue each year, in addition to our other Harding contributions. Please join us. We just need 998 more to reach the goal and I believe it can be done. Special notice will be given from time to time of the progress we make. Join the Harding Hundred Club now and be responsible for greater accomplishment and service.

Please fill in the form in this bulletin and mail it now while it is on your mind. We must be ready for the wave of students now coming. We just can't tell them they can't have a Christian education at Harding when we have the means to provide it. Let's work together to make the next ten years the greatest ever.

President's Corner

By Virgil Lawyer
BA '46

If man could envision and think in terms of God's blessings and provision of opportunities, there is no measuring of what man might accomplish. Almost without exception we plan too small and settle for too little. Like the ten spies of old "we seemed to ourselves as grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them."

How many of us supposed Exodus Bay Shore would have been so successful? How many felt we would fail in our efforts at the World's Fair in New York? Who among us would have dared fifteen years ago to have predicted the success of the Herald of Truth? All of these efforts were successful because man ventured out with his "five smooth stones" and God guided the efforts to conquer the Goliaths in his path.

I am reasonably sure James A. Harding, J. N. Armstrong, B. F. Rhodes, and others of their day did not visualize the tremendous forces they were setting in motion when they first opened the doors of their school to a few students interested in preaching.

Yet, some sixty years, hundreds of frayed shirts and suits, and meager meals later we can look out our office window and see a campus basking under the warm sun of a November day, with fourteen hundred sixty-five students, one hundred eighty faculty members, and around twelve and one-half million dollars in physical assets.

Did we just "hit it lucky?" Ask Dr. Benson if that is how it happened. He, better than any of us, realizes just how much work it has taken. However, he, and all of us, would acknowledge that God was with us.

What about the future? Already some are saying we ought to "level off" in growth. This is a "hold your own" philosophy. I do not believe in it. Why? Because it does not work! We either progress or regress.

More and more fine young people want to come to Harding. We are trying to awaken our brethren to the need of educating their children in Christian institutions and will default if we fail to provide the facilities for them when they hear us and respond.

Dr. Ganus has proposed the Harding Hundred Club for our Alumni. One thousand Alumni giving one hundred dollars per year to our general operating fund. We must have this as a minimum.

I am one hundred percent for this plan. It will insure better Alumni giving, supply the answer to a pressing need, and bless countless young people through the critical years of their lives.

Lou and I are buying a house, a car, educating in a private school three children, giving to our church program, sending to my twin in Africa, sharing with Uncle Sam, purchasing insurance, and eating regularly. In fact, we are living about like the rest of our Alumni—having the same problems — enjoying the same blessings.

We are joining the Harding Hundred Club. We believe in the future of Harding College. We hope there will be one thousand of us in the club before another twelve months have passed.

Alumni Officers Nominated

The alumni nominating committee has submitted the following candidates to be considered for new officers of the alumni association. For president, Virgil Lawyer, (BA'46); for vice-presidents, Jim Maple ('42), Bill Lynn ('46), and Dean Priest (BS'61).

The nominating committee was made up of Mrs. Guy Petway, ('40) nee Loudine Guthrie, Mrs. E. A. Hanks (BR'45) nee Polly Box, Leon Gibson (BA'48) and Jim Howard (BA'62).

The slate of candidates is submitted by the nominating committee, as directed by the constitution, by October 1 of election year, and the list is then submitted to the association membership. Any member may then submit additional nominations, providing the nominee has consented to serve if elected. These nominations must be mailed to the alumni secretary not later than February 1. The candidates receiving the largest number of votes are added to the list submitted by the committee. On or before May 1, these candidates will be presented to the association membership to choose officers for the next two years.

The Alumni Association is a vital force in the life of the College and every member is important. Each is urged to give thought to the election of the officers and then to render full support, thus building a greater and better Harding.

Another from Big Mac

(Jim Bill McInter)

A man's wife said, "Why don't you play golf with George?" and he said, "Would you play golf with somebody who moves his ball when you are not looking, and if he walks by yours he stamps it in the mud, and takes his heel and pushes yours three inches from the cup when you're about to make a good putt?" She said, "I certainly would not," and he said, "Neither would George."
