Students Contribute 1,062 Christmas Gifts To Children's Homes

An array of toys, dolls, games, puzzles, stuffed animals, books and almost every child's gift imaginable filled the Student Association office the week before Christmas holidays began, the result of Harding's annual Toy and Dolly Drive.

Lucy, Snoopy, the Calico Cat, Hansel and Gretel, Leonardo the Lion and some 400 other handmade gifts were among the total of 1,062 items donated by Harding students and sent to Christian children's homes for Christmas. Twenty-five homes in thirteen states received the gifts.

... only an idea

Harding College is no more than an idea — an idea that has been clothed with human flesh and breathed upon by the spirit of God. Thousands of people all over the world are in debt to Harding because the idea of service, sacrifice and righteous living has been planted in their hearts. These people could not have been served by Harding if there had not been men like James A. Harding, David Lipscomb, J. N. Armstrong, L. C. Sears and George S. Benson who sacrificed to put flesh around the idea of Christian education.

There are thousands of young people approaching college age who have yet to experience this great idea. Some of them are your friends. They may be in your Bible school class. They need to learn what real Christian education is.

It is our hope that you will fill out the form below and see that your young friends receive some literature from Harding College. Give us an opportunity to plant the idea in their minds. Even better still, bring them to the campus and let them see, experience and feel the idea firsthand.
