Summer Bible Workshop to Have New 13-in-1 Concept

The Harding College Bible Department has announced a new concept in the summer workshop trend with a 13-in-1 Seminar set for August 7-10, 1978 on the Searcy Campus.

The 13 workshops will be conducted simultaneously to cover all phases of service for Christian leaders. Participants will receive a minimum of 16 hours of intensive instruction from well-qualified individual and group instructors.

Dr. Jerry Jones, chairman of the Bible Department, said, "I believe the 13-in-1 workshop will provide a great spiritual feast for entire families. It will be an opportunity for whole congregations to come and whole families to be together at one time. The fellowship to and from Searcy will provide a great opportunity for sharing.

"After the workshop, brethren can go home and share the ideas they feel will best work in their local situation. The workshop is designed to provide the maximum in the shortest amount of time. The making of new friends and the renewal of old friends will be a great benefit to each and every one."

The individual workshops are set for the following: (1) Biblical Forum; (2) Bus Workers; (3) Church Leaders; (4) Deaf Workers; (5) Educational Directors; (6) Mental Health; (7) Missions; (8) Personal Workers; (9) Preachers; (10) Visual Aids; (11) Christian Women; (12) Youth Workers; (13) Campus Ministers.

A program is being planned for children of participants, but no youth program as such will be conducted. Children three years of age to first grade will be cared for at the College Church of Christ. Various activities will be conducted throughout the workshop for students from 2nd through 8th grades and also from 9th through 12th grades. The activities will be only for youth accompanied by their parents, and will be held only while parents are attending the workshop.

The format is designed to begin each day with a devotional on the front lawn of the campus at 8 a.m. Lectures and classes will continue from 8:45 a.m. through 4:30 p.m. All groups will assemble each night at Harding's Athletic Center for a period of singing and an address by Avon Malone of the Harding Bible faculty, Landon Saunders, radio speaker for Heartbeat, and Jimmy Allen of the Harding Bible faculty, respectively.

At the conclusion of the 13-in-1, a subsequent seminar on "Historic Principles of the Restoration Movement" will be held at the American Heritage Auditorium. This workshop is not an official part of the 13-in-1, but will be occurring Aug. 10-12 and may be of interest to some who wish to

'Try to Remember' is Theme For Homecoming Weekend

"Try to Remember," the 1977 Homecoming theme, will be carried out in numerous festivities planned for the weekend of Nov. 5.

The theme is taken from the song of the same name in the Homecoming musical comedy, the "Fantasticks." The Harding stage presentation will run Nov. 2-5.

Friday's events include the following: The Black and Gold Alumni Banquet at 5:30 in the Heritage Cafeteria. Harold Hazelip, Dean of the Harding Graduate School, will be the speaker. Robert Helsten will serve as master of ceremonies and entertainment will be provided by the Belles and Beaux. Dinner music will be played by the Orchestra directed by Travis Cox.

The annual chili supper will be from 4:15-6:00 at the College Park. Cost without meal ticket is $1.50.

At 9:30 Friday evening there will be a Lily Pool devotional.

Saturday's events will begin with a complimentary continental breakfast in the Student Center lobby from 7:30-9:00.

Alumni chapel will meet from 10:00-11:00 in the American Heritage Auditorium.

The parade, sponsored by the Student Association, will begin at 11:00. An engraved trophy will be awarded to the best club float and $25.00 checks will be given to the winning class float and best marching club. The Bison and Memphis Harding Academy Bands will also participate.

Pregame ceremonies will begin at 1:40 p.m. All alumni football players and cheerleaders have been especially invited back to tuck part in this year's Homecoming. The Bison Band will perform under the direction of Dr. Eddie Baggett in both pregame and halftime shows.

Crowning of the queen will highlight the halftime activities. Nominees are Kathy Florence, a nursing major from Worthington, Ohio; Pam Logan, an elementary education major from Plano, Tex. and Cilla Riley, a special education major from Little Rock.

Entire Nursing Class Passes State Boards

All 46 nursing graduates at Harding taking the State Board of Nursing Examinations last July successfully completed requirements to become registered nurses. The first graduating class actually had 48 students who earned the bachelor of arts degree in nursing, but two of these were already registered nurses. Harding was the only college in Arkansas to record a perfect 100 per cent grading.

"The 100 per cent achievement by the Harding graduates is a remarkable one," said Mrs. Mildred Armour, R.N., executive director of the State Board of Nursing. "And since this was the first graduating class, the record is even more commendable. It is most unusual for a first class to do so well."

Dr. Joseph Pryor, academic dean at Harding said, "The nursing program at Harding is an excellent example of an effective combination of a broad liberal arts background with a highly professional vocational program. The preprofessional background includes basic courses in the humanities and fine arts as well as the basic sciences. These courses teach students to think and apply their knowledge."

In the state, 614 took the Examination and 456 passed the tests. According to statistics from the State Board of Nursing, at no other time in recent years has a nursing school of comparable size had 100 per cent success.

Twenty-nine of the class took the exams in Arkansas. The remaining 17 sat for the standard tests in their home states.

"The perfect success rate attained by our first nursing graduates on the State Board Exams is indeed a remarkable performance and one which the students and entire college can be justifiably proud," said Mrs. Michele Warren, director of the program who is now serving as a consultant.

"Not only did the entire class of 46 successfully pass the five sections of the Examinations, they did so with scores well above the mean," she added.

"In my opinion, this excellent and unusual performance was due to three major factors. The students entered the nursing program in their junior year with a solid foundation in general education; we have a highly competent and professional nursing faculty; and all of us trusted in God to give us wisdom."

Mrs. Cathleen Smith, chairman of the department, reflected the general feeling of the announcement.

"I am extremely pleased, but not surprised," she said. "We had and continue to have very capable, intelligent students. Their success is due not only to the program, but their own individual capabilities and the Lord's hand."

Phil Gramm

January Business Seminar to Feature Batten, Gramm

The Sixth annual Management Seminar for businessmen sponsored by the Harding Department of Business and Economics and the American Studies Program has been set for Jan. 27-28. The program will feature Philip Gramm on Friday evening and Joe Batten on Saturday.

Gramm, an economic analyst with Texas A&M University, will keynote the session on inflation and our economy. After receiving his Ph.D. from the University of Georgia, Gramm went to A&M. There he has written over 40 articles and books which cover the spectrum of economics from environment and energy to banking and inflation. He has served as consultant to organizations such as the National Science Foundation, the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, and the Public Health Service. For his work on energy, Gramm was named a Senior Fellow by the American Institute for Economic Research and for his work on inflation he received a Freedoms Foundation Award in 1976.

Batten, a nationally recognized lecturer and writer, is president of Batten, Batten, Hudson & Swab, Inc., consultants in management, education and research. Batten is the author of the all-time best seller, Tough-Minded Management, published by the American Management Association and now is in its 17th printing. Other books he has authored include The Confidence Chasm, Beyond Management by Objectives and Developing a Tough-Minded Climate . . . For Results. He has led conferences and institutes across the nation.

remain and continue a study in this vital area. Speakers for the seminar will be announced.

The cost of the three-day seminar will be $7.50 per person, youth included. Participants will pay $5 for two days and $2.50 for one day attendance. The fee will cover the cost of instruction and a syllabus.

Housing will be provided in the campus dormitories at $4 per night per person in air-conditioned rooms and $2 per person per night in non-air-conditioned rooms. Participants will be asked to provide their own linens, towels, pillows and soap. There are also a number of motels in the area.

Meals will be served in the college cafeterias during the workshop and there are also many restaurants in the Searcy area.

A complete brochure of the workshop is available from the Harding Bible Department, Box 939, Searcy, Arkansas. Reservations are being accepted and may be made with the Bible Department beginning immediately.

Further details will be announced concerning the event.

All Nurses Pass

The College began the program in 1972 when Harding's Premedical Advisory Council of 23 physicians recommended the initiation of a nursing education program. A pre-nursing program had been conducted for 25 years. The Arkansas State Board of Nursing approved in November 1974 Harding's baccalaureate degree program. Classes for the two-year program began the Fall of 1975.

Mrs. Warren was selected the chair the department and initiate the program. During her tenure, the curriculum was organized and the Old Science Building was remodeled and converted into the modern Olen Hendrix Nursing and Home Economics Center. Mrs. Smith was appointed chairman of the department in August.

In addition to offering the bachelor of arts degree in nursing, the program, operating under a $401,325 grant given by the Kellogg Foundation in 1976, also offers instruction for Family Nurse Practitioners.

Woodruff Attends NSF Meet in Washington

Dr. George Woodruff, a teacher in the Harding biology department, traveled to Washington, D.C. Oct. 12 as a member of a National Science Foundation panel which judged proposals from around the nation for special training of creditable high school juniors.

Woodruff joined about a dozen other panelists to plan the program which is designed to allow high school juniors to take courses on college campuses as they enter their senior year.

Dr. Max Ward, program manager for the Student Science Training Program of NSF, said the group read and evaluated the proposals and training plans which have been submitted by various colleges and universities. The panel selected about 25 programs for implementation.

Class Executives Elected

The Harding classes have elected leaders for the 1977-78 school year.

Serving the Senior Class will be Mark Showalter of Searcy, president; Tommy Carr of Searcy, vice president, David Ozbirn of Searcy, secretary and Danny Keahey of Montgomery, Ala., treas.

The Junior Class will be represented by Steve Beliech of Pensacola, Fla., president; Eddie Blackshear of Callahan, Fla., vice president and Melanie Watson of Gadsden, Ala., secretary.

Leading the Sophomore Class will be Buddy Barkalow of Columbia, Tenn., president; Jedonna McAlister of Maypearl, Tex., vice-president; Patti Jo Dillard of Tempe, Ariz., secretary and Brenda Nash of Nashville, Tenn., treasurer.

Harding Librarians Attend Convention

The Arkansas Library Association's state meeting was held Oct. 2-4 at the Camelot Inn and Convention Center in Little Rock. Those attending from Harding were Ruth Browning, Winnie Bell, Elizabeth Dykes, Travis Cox, Suzanne Spurrier and Joe McReynolds.

The keynote speaker was Dr. Robert Stuart, an Arkansas native, who is director of the library school at Simmons College in Boston. He stressed the importance of taking professional courses and continuing education.

Other topics considered were management in libraries and faculty status of librarians.

More than 500 librarians from the state attended the convention.

Members of the Oral Roberts University Research Team were on the Harding Campus this month to conduct fitness tests on a control group of Harding students. They will compare these tests with those of ORU students who have been on an aerobics program.

54th Annual Bible Lectureship

Gary Beauchamp, Houston — "How We Can Reach the Lost"

Doug Parsons, Overland Park, Kan. — "Why Are We Here"

Charles Hodge, Ft. Worth — "The Real Issue: Dying to Live"

Basil Overton begins Student Day with a devotional on "The Whole Earth is Full of God's Glory."

Help Find Lost Alumni

We need your help. Sometimes alumni move and forget to inform the Alumni Office of their new address. As a result we are unable to send them the Harding Bulletin and other informational materials. Below is a list of Harding alumni who have been placed in the inactive file because we do not have an accurate address. Additional names will be run in future Alumnotes. If you can provide an accurate address on any of these alumni, please write the Alumni Office, Box 768, Station A, Searcy, Arkansas 72143. The Alumni Office wants to provide information to all alumni. Help us find these "lost" alumni.

Sexogenarian is Full-Time Student

by Beth Henneman of the Bison Staff

John E. Dunkin has proved that life doesn't end at 65. At age 69, he is the oldest full-time student ever to be enrolled at Harding.

Why is a 69-year-old man going to college? According to Dunkin, a Bible major, this is an often asked question. He replies to those who ask, "I am going to learn to teach the Bible."

Dunkin is no stranger to Bible instruction. Eleven years ago, when the last of his four children left home, he sold his successful business in Grand Junction, Colo. and moved to Denver to attend Bear Valley School of Preaching. Two years later he graduated near the top of his class.

The following year, Mr. and Mrs. Dunkin left for Johannesburg, South Africa, where they worked as missionaries for four years. They were supported by the Alpine Church of Christ in Longview, Tex. There Dunkin was the editor of the "Christian Advocate" magazine.

The next two years were spent at the Pontiac, Mich. School of Preaching where Dunkin taught while serving as elder for the University Church.

After recuperating from major surgery, Dunkin decided to come to Harding this fall.

After attending the University of Wichita for one semester during the Depression, Dunkin was financially unable to continue. "I was literally starved out," he explained.

However, lack of a college degree did not stop him from starting his own business, Dunkin's Blueprinting and Engineering Supply Company.

Forensics Team Wins Tournament Award

Harding's forensics squad captured sweepstakes in its first tournament of the 1977-78 season at Southwest Baptist College in Bolivar, Missouri, Oct. 1-2.

Twelve members of the squad made the trip to debate and participate in numerous individual events, competing with students from 12 other schools.

The topic which will continue to be debated this year is "Resolved: that law enforcement agencies should be given significantly greater freedom in the investigation and prosecution of felony crime."

In the competition, the team of John Jordon-Alan Pogue won first place in the open division, and Jordon won first place speaker in the open division.

Ken Longnecker placed second in extemporaneous speaking and Bob Chandler won second place speaker in junior division debate. The team of Chandler-E.C. Umberger won third in the junior division debate.

Others making the trip were Donna Coker, Jeff Hobbs, Dal Narramore, David Satterfield, Pam Ellington, Lloyd Thoburn and Jake Jensen. Dr. Pat Garner sponsored the group.

John Dunkin [right] is counseled for classes by Allan Isom of the Bible Department.

His wife and children are very supportive of his decision to come to college. "I probably wouldn't have come or stayed here without the continued encouragement of my wife," he commented. His wife is a former registered nurse. All four of his children have their degrees.

Dunkin is taking 14 hours this semester. He hopes to complete the requirements for a degree in three years. He plans an art minor.

Dunkin indicated that there are advantages of being an older student. "When we study about the Mona Lisa or the Parthenon or something like that, I can remember the thrill of seeing it. I enjoy learning about it more than a younger person probably would," said Dunkin.

This coming year, Mr. and Mrs. Dunkin will spend the spring months in Turkey touring some of the Bible cities on a self-arranged tour.

Are these ambitious plans for a man 69 years of age?

"My grandmother lived to age 90 in full possession of her health and mental faculties. I fully intend to do the same thing, the Lord willing," Dunkin said.

Attention A Cappella Chorus Alumni

The present chorus would like to take this opportunity to invite all of you, your family and friends to our Homecoming Reunion on November 5. This is a traditional time for chorus members to come back and sing under the direction of Andy T. Ritchie, Dr. Elre T. Moore, Dr. Cliff Ganus III and Dr. Kenneth Davis. The reunion will be in the Recording Studio immediately after the Bison-Southern Arkansas University football game. It will consist of food, fellowship, and singing. This gathering has been a highlight of Homecoming ever since it was begun in 1972.

There are still some spaces for Tour '78 remaining to be filled. For those who have not received information on the tour, it is to be made in connection with International Campaigns in the summer of 1978. We plan to participate in the campaigns for four weeks and then tour the British Isles for three weeks. Those who would not be able to participate in the campaigns may join us for the tour only, although we would like very much for as many as possible to help us work in the campaigns. Campaigns begins in the middle of May and we will expect to return to Searcy in time for enrollment in the second session of summer school, which begins on July 10. If you are interested, please write for information as soon as possible. Tapes of the songs for the tour will be available for learning purposes.

As many of you remember, we have asked for some help in the form of scholarships from the chorus alumni for deserving music students. With the cost of education escalating, it is increasingly difficult for talented young people to attend private schools. Our plan is for each chorus alumnus who can give $25 or more each year in addition to what he is already giving to Harding College toward a scholarship fund, the interest of which will go to scholarships and the principle of which will grow to increase the scholarships available from year to year. This is a very needed and worthwhile project which has the backing of President Ganus. A small amount has already been received and we would like to set January 1, 1978, as a target date for the first deposit.

The Music Department is having a banner year with all phases continuing to grow and improve. The Band now numbers 104 and has added an 18-member flag corp. Chorale and A Cappella have increased in size to 85 members each. Upcoming activities of Campus Singers, Belles and Beaux, Chamber Singers and Orchestra will be announced in future "Bulletins."

All music alumni and those interested are invited to visit the Department whenever they are on the campus.

Important! . . . If you wish to receive information on future tours open to alumni and general chorus news, complete the form below and return as soon as possible. PLEASE PRINT

Youth Keynotes Cager's Outlook

Prospects for the Harding College Bisons can be summed up in two words, young and inexperienced, as coach Jess Bucy prepares the Bisons for the basketball season opener November 14 against School of the Ozarks.

For the first time in four years, Bucy will be without the services of Butch Gardner, a three-time NAIA All-America performer who rewrote the Bison record books in scoring and rebounding.

Only two starters return, senior David Baker (6-8) of Haverton, Pa., who will be at the post position, and junior Stan Eckwood (6-4) of Brinkley, who will head up the Bison floor game at a guard position. Baker averaged 11.8 points per game last year and Eckwood hit at a 10.5 point clip per contest.

"We're awfully young everywhere," coach Jess Bucy said. "With only two starters coming back, it's obvious that we will have to look for the new men to help us earlier than usual."

Bucy indicated that it might be possible for a couple of the freshmen to work into the starting unit. Offensively, Bucy said he was expecting Eckwood to be one of the league's outstanding players this year.

"Stan has speed, exceptionally quick hands and has developed into a fine shooter," Bucy said.

Another pair of cagers, junior college transfer Mike Paxton (6-6) of Paris Junior College (Tex.) and sophomore Bruce Binkley (6-5) of Tulsa, will bring the most experience among the rest of the team. Paxton, a Texarkana native, was a starter on the Paris JC team and Binkley made rapid progress in the final half of his freshman year. Other returning lettermen include junior Daryl Thrasher (6-4) of Little Rock, and sophomores Phil Carter (6-7) of St. Louis, Jeremy Shackelford (6-5) of Shreveport, La., and Bruce Lowe (6-2) of Collinsville, Okla.

Bucy expressed pleasure with the freshman candidates which include all-stater Ricky Treadway (6-5) of Little Rock Ole Main, Ken Wilson (6-4) of Judsonia, Tim Flatt (6-1) of Memphis, and Bobby Stokes (6-7) of National City, Calif. Also expected to help in the backcourt is Haze McClary, a 5-9 guard from Rochester, a transfer who will be eligible at midterm.

*AIC Games

Returning Bison starters shown with coach Jess Bucy are Stan Eckwood [12] and David Baker [40]. The roundballers will open their season Nov. 14 with non-conference opponent, School of the Ozarks.

Footballers Now 4-2, Prepare for AIC Stretch Drive

The Harding Bison footballers, now 4-2 at the midseason mark, take on a pair of intersectional opponents before hosting conference foe Southern Arkansas in the Homecoming Game November 5.

In Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference action, Coach John Prock's gridders fell by a 9-0 verdict to nationally ranked Henderson State. Since that game, the Bisons have recorded a 29-15 victory over arch-rival Ouachita Baptist University and a 14-12 win from Arkansas Tech University.

Intersectional action will find the Bisons meeting Mississippi College and Tarleton State (Tex.).

The Bison passing combination of quarterback Cam Prock of Searcy and wide receiver Max Ellzey of Osceola is setting a torrid pace in the AIC. Prock has connected on 47 of 110 aerials for a league leading 599 yards.

Ellzey, a 5-9 junior with sticky hands, has caught 23 passes for 290 yards and a touchdown. Equally valuable has been junior tightend Gail Gregg, who has caught 17 for 228 yards and three touchdowns.

Nagging injuries have slowed Bison fortunes and co-captain Allen Grieb was lost for the season with a knee injury which required surgery. A 205-pounder from Oklahoma City, Grieb came into the season with 1,557 career yards rushing.

Despite the injury in the Southwestern Missouri game, Grieb added 173 yards this season to close out his career with 1,730 yards, to rank fifth on the all-time school record list.

Stepping into Grieb's shoes has been a junior college transfer, Mike Vanlandingham of Seminole, Okla. After overcoming early season injuries, the 6-0, 200-lb. tailback ran for 114 yards against Ouachita Baptist and 101 yards against Arkansas Tech.

After the Homecoming tussle with Southern Arkansas, Harding will close out the season with the University of Arkansas-Monticello at home Nov. 12 and the University of Central Arkansas Nov. 19 in Conway.
