HARDING GIRLS WIN STATE DEBATE MEET

By Mrs. W. W. Pace and Billie Mattox

At the annual debate contest of the Arkansas College, a preliminary round on Monday night, and a final round on Tuesday afternoon, the Harding girls team won first place. During the course of the contest, they met and defeated representatives from the other colleges in the state. The Harding team did an excellent job of answering and rebutting their opponents' arguments, ultimately securing their victory.

HARDING COLLEGE, MORRITON, ARKANSAS, March 10, 1932

HARDING COLLEGE
VOLUME III
NUMBER

See the Contest Play

PLAY CONTEST OPENS IN LITTLE ROCK

Judges and Directors Meet at Little Rock for Monday Evening

With a luncheon for the judges and directors on Wednesday evening, the tournament began Monday. Many of the schools were present, and the opening play was presented last night.

In the competition, the rules of previous tournaments were followed. Each team was given ten minutes to prepare their opening arguments. The tournament has been divided into four preliminary rounds, and each team is expected to go through the four preliminary rounds. The rules state that the first place team shall be awarded first place.

The Harding team will be represented by Dr. Schrader, Mrs. D. M. Wade, and Mrs. B. F. Poe, Prelims.

The tournament has been divided into four preliminary rounds, and each team is expected to go through the four preliminary rounds. The rules state that the first place team shall be awarded first place.

Saturday's thoughts: A day spent in nature, surrounded by the beauty of the Arkansas countryside, brought a sense of peace and tranquility. The gentle rustling of leaves and the chirping of birds filled the air, creating a soothing atmosphere.

The work done by the children was extensive and hard. They were taught to make their own clothes and care for their own needs. The children learned about the importance of nutrition and hygiene.

The following day, the children were taken on a trip to see the surrounding area. They were shown the beauty of the Arkansas countryside and the importance of protecting the environment.

The acting of Addie D. Tankersley as the warden of the county prison was particularly well received. The character was dynamic and captivating, capturing the audience's attention.

The acting of Mrs. C. H. Harper as the medicine man was also well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. W. W. Pace as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

Saturday's thoughts: A day spent in nature, surrounded by the beauty of the Arkansas countryside, brought a sense of peace and tranquility. The gentle rustling of leaves and the chirping of birds filled the air, creating a soothing atmosphere.

The work done by the children was extensive and hard. They were taught to make their own clothes and care for their own needs. The children learned about the importance of nutrition and hygiene.

The following day, the children were taken on a trip to see the surrounding area. They were shown the beauty of the Arkansas countryside and the importance of protecting the environment.

The acting of Addie D. Tankersley as the warden of the county prison was particularly well received. The character was dynamic and captivating, capturing the audience's attention.

The acting of Mrs. C. H. Harper as the medicine man was also well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. W. W. Pace as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

Saturday's thoughts: A day spent in nature, surrounded by the beauty of the Arkansas countryside, brought a sense of peace and tranquility. The gentle rustling of leaves and the chirping of birds filled the air, creating a soothing atmosphere.

The work done by the children was extensive and hard. They were taught to make their own clothes and care for their own needs. The children learned about the importance of nutrition and hygiene.

The following day, the children were taken on a trip to see the surrounding area. They were shown the beauty of the Arkansas countryside and the importance of protecting the environment.

The acting of Addie D. Tankersley as the warden of the county prison was particularly well received. The character was dynamic and captivating, capturing the audience's attention.

The acting of Mrs. C. H. Harper as the medicine man was also well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. W. W. Pace as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

Saturday's thoughts: A day spent in nature, surrounded by the beauty of the Arkansas countryside, brought a sense of peace and tranquility. The gentle rustling of leaves and the chirping of birds filled the air, creating a soothing atmosphere.

The work done by the children was extensive and hard. They were taught to make their own clothes and care for their own needs. The children learned about the importance of nutrition and hygiene.

The following day, the children were taken on a trip to see the surrounding area. They were shown the beauty of the Arkansas countryside and the importance of protecting the environment.

The acting of Addie D. Tankersley as the warden of the county prison was particularly well received. The character was dynamic and captivating, capturing the audience's attention.

The acting of Mrs. C. H. Harper as the medicine man was also well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. W. W. Pace as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

Saturday's thoughts: A day spent in nature, surrounded by the beauty of the Arkansas countryside, brought a sense of peace and tranquility. The gentle rustling of leaves and the chirping of birds filled the air, creating a soothing atmosphere.

The work done by the children was extensive and hard. They were taught to make their own clothes and care for their own needs. The children learned about the importance of nutrition and hygiene.

The following day, the children were taken on a trip to see the surrounding area. They were shown the beauty of the Arkansas countryside and the importance of protecting the environment.

The acting of Addie D. Tankersley as the warden of the county prison was particularly well received. The character was dynamic and captivating, capturing the audience's attention.

The acting of Mrs. C. H. Harper as the medicine man was also well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. W. W. Pace as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.

The acting of Mrs. B. F. Poe as the singing group was well received. The character was well portrayed and added depth to the performance.
Another much-looked-forward-to meeting of the W. H. C's was on Thursday evening last night. They were delightfully entertained by Otis Morehead, Novia Capps, Lillian Quinlan, and Nell Swanger.

In a short business meeting the Officers reported that they were on record as having paid up for the term. There being no idea of dissension they concluded that the frolic started. There were some interesting games played and the two leading girls were voted for the term. Mary McPhy and Eva Johnson won the other.

"Balls" was played and there will probably be no old maid in the club because there were so many old ones coming and going.

Miss Louisa T. Lee was a guest of Miss Pauline Hill at Fort Wayne last week.

Miss Louisa T. Lee visited over the weekend in Van Buren last week-end. The dormitory girls were delighted to welcome her visit.

An interesting description of an aspect of our students' behavior was the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Billie Mattox spent Tuesday evening last visiting Mrs. Mattox's and James Whittington and other Harding friends last Thursday. Mr. Mattox knew him welcomed his visit.

Another informal gathering of students was that of students at Mt. Claire last Friday when Miss McClure and Lois Watson were entertained by Willa Mae Atkins in the morning and at Ellis' chapel in the afternoon. Bro. Armstrong preached at Fort Wayne and Lowery.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Mattox spent March 1, visiting Mrs. Mattox's and James Whittington and James Harding friends last Thursday. Mr. Mattox knew him welcomed his visit.

Miss McClure and Lois Watson visited in their homes in Nash- ville last week-end.

Will D. Parley of Chelsea, Okla-homa, visited Miss Louisa T. Lee and other friends last Thursday. Will D. was in school at the time, and everyone is assured that he knew him welcomed his visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Mattox spent March 1, visiting Mrs. Mattox's and James Whittington and James Harding friends last Thursday. Mr. Mattox knew him welcomed his visit.
The model of the future has yet to be raised to the height of a 100-foot cigarette chimney.

Rules for Baseball
- A strike is called if a player strikes out or if three strikes are called against them.
- A walk is awarded if a player reaches base safely after four balls are pitched to them.
- A home run is scored if the ball is hit over the fence in fair territory.
- A runner is out if they are tagged out or if they are involved in a play that takes them off the base they were on.
- A game is tied if both teams have the same score at the end of nine innings.
- A game is decided by extra innings if the game is tied after nine innings.

Advertisements
- BENTLEY'S Meat Market
- Fresh and Cured MEATS and SEA FISH At All Times. Phone 30
- The REXALL Drug Store
- TWENTY-FIVE YEARS IN THE DRUG BUSINESS

HEWITT'S SHOE STORE
- "WE KNOW YOUR FEET!"
- REPAIRED SHOES LAST LONGER

ADVERTISING PAY
- The Necessity of Neatness of a Hair Cut

T. C. ADAMS - JEWELER
- Gifts for Every Occasion
- Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty

J. C. ADAMS - JEWELER

MORRILLON BARBER SHOP
- 10 Good Reasons Why Every Respectable Thinking Man Must Vote

KODAK FINISHING AT REDUCED PRICES
- FREE KODAK ENLARGEMENTS
Basham’s Gro. & Meat Market
LET OUR PRODUCTS PROVE THEIR VALUE
Phone 7 or 11

Yes, it’s the same ol’ story, but we want you to know that we appreciate your patronage.

Collage Book Store

Harding Co-Ed’s Necessity
THE LITTLE STORE
GROCERS
Henry Mitchell, Prop.
GAS & OIL

SMITH SHOE SHOP
AND SHOE STORE

North Street
Come in and See Us