Mr. W. A. Bradfield
Freede-Hardeman College
Henderson, Tenn.

Dear Bro. Bradfield:

I enjoyed talking with you on the phone yesterday, and had intended to use the opportunity to talk to you about prospective students, but the reports of your meeting caused me to forget about it.

I am enclosing in this letter a list of names that I would like for you to put on the active list of prospective students. I will indicate beside each name what year of high school these persons are.

I am especially interested in a young man on the list whose name is Dorian Dodd. He is planning to preach, and will be ready for college next year. I have talked with him about Freede-Hardeman and by that he is definitely interested.

Please give my regards to your family and accept my wishes for a good year at school.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
