11-25-1932

The Bison, November 25, 1932

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/thebison

Recommended Citation
MUSINGS OF A RECEPTION ROOM PIANO

Chop Sticks again! Chop Sticks! Each time one would come along who would recognize Chop Sticks. I feel as though I might start crying except for the hope that some one with just enough imagination to really play on me again, I would know some of the things I have learned, they seem to have been forgotten.

Peace and quiet, but for long. The telephone rang. I was out of my chair, shut down a quiet sort of nameless ditzy, and without location. There’s nothing till one has the brains. Won’t you come. It was me, but a sound tape of Polly Parrott. She said, "I shook your hand over the phone after it had been here. I am not actually here, but I am walking around the world, I was talking in my room, and I don’t know I can’t do it very well."

Brother W. W. Pace and others are cancel to the effort. The company hold the effort. The company hold- ing time. The great saving to the

JUNIOR CLASS HAS
OUTLOOK AT SUNRISE

Shenandoah Lass - Seven
Birthday Celebration

"Sal," famous frang steamer of the 40’s, has been fitted, furnished by the boat’s owners, and is out in an excursion boat in a big way. With her skip-トル, her fine mate J. Lewis Fron- tor her fine mate J. Lewis For- tor her fine mate J. Lewis Fron- tor her fine mate J. Lewis For- tor her fine mate J. Lewis Fron-mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp- oser J. Lewis Opp- oser J. Lewis Opp- oser J. Lewis Opp- oser J. Lewis Opp-trol, her fine mate J. Lewis Pro- trol, her fine mate J. Lewis Pro- trol, her fine mate J. Lewis Pro- trol, her fine mate J. Lewis Pro-trol, her fine mate J. Lewis Pro-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
mats, her first mate J. Lewis Opp-
improving the world.

The hope rose at Homer’s call.

The hope rose at Homer’s call.

They had a game of new football. In the first place whoever heard of beans for breakfast? No! One of the students had the brains and the rest were good! What’s the use of having the brains, boy, stein, apples, cooking something to eat. "Beans yardback there three..."

Honey! I might as well throw the whole speech down. The best deaf. The funniest thing ever heard.

Laurence Puckman Elected

Irene Puckman Elected

Laurence Puckman Elected

H. C. ALUMNI HOLDS

SEMI-ANNUAL MEET

Organization Promised to Raise

$17,500 on Drive

HARDING COLLEGE, MORRILLTON, ARKANSAS

NOVEMBER 25, 1932

ARE YOU HELPING TO RAISE THE

HARDING COLLEGE DEBT?

Write Your Friends Now and Shoulder a Part of the Load

VOLUME V

HD 5V E

NUMBER 11

STUDENT DRIVE SHOWS PROGRESS

Promise to Help Liquidate College Debt by

Donations and Gifts

The students of Harding College have pledged themselves to raise over $18,000 to liquidate the institution of debt. Numerous letters have been written to the different congregations and to individuals "back home," and many have joined in the effort.

Individual letters or general letters have been prepared by the secretary, and are to be sent out, with each one asking for a gift. Budd-

Brother J. N. Armstrong has en- lished all the study groups in getting the different Returns from the field, where the debt are available and are to be

All the students of Harding College have been written to ask them to contribute to the effort. The company hold- ing time. The great saving to the

THE STUDENTS OF HARDING COLLEGE have pledged themselves to raise over $18,000 to liquidate the institution of debt. Numerous letters have been written to the different congregations and to individuals "back home," and many have joined in the effort.

Individual letters or general letters have been prepared by the secretary, and are to be sent out, with each one asking for a gift. Budd-feel that you are old friends and we welcome you as such. You thought enough of us to pay another visit no way. We are glad to have you even more. As old friends we would separate your assistance in entertaining our new visitors. They will be old friends next year.

THE MAN WHO WARS THE BENCH

When the president of the club calls the house to order and the business of the meeting starts there are two things permanent that do the major part of the talking. They make all the motions, all the speeches, against anything which may come up, they are the only active part of the meeting. The rest or the members are like spectators which watch way the wind blows, voting on the side which seems the most favorable. Their chief function seems that of a new quorum. They are nothing but bench warmers.

Every club, class, or other organization is made up chiefly of bench warmers. They are not, to a great extent, an evil however until they are made active members of themselves. When a bench warmer gets too high an opinion of himself he is a menace to the health of the club. He sits and listens to an active member make a speech about some local sports. If he is an active member he is trying to "run" the organization. He is learns to proceed to vote down anything, however worthy it may be, that the active member may support.

We favor an amendment to the constitution which reads thus: "No person who has neither ambition enough to try to guide the organization in the direction he wishes it to go nor spineless enough to let some one do the guiding for him without kicking about what it goes is worthy to be a member of this club.

A QUARTER—OR A DOLLAR?

More than five hundred dollars of the debt against Harding was taken care of by the Morrilton congregation last Sunday. In a general meeting held to raise funds for the home being made by Arkansas churches the home went more than thirty-three percent over the goal. As much was raised as is being made by Arkansas churches the home went more than thirty-three percent over the goal. As much was raised as the church goes to the Wheel of Fate.

WE WELCOME VISITORS

On behalf of the whole college, the Bison welcomes every visitor to the Harding Thanksgiving meeting Monday. It is our desire to try to make everyone perfectly welcome here at any time but Thanksgiving is our official open day. At this time also we must try to put our best foot forward. Everything that pertains to your happiness of our guests and to making this a great meeting.

We would like to make this first time feel free to ask any student for information or assistance and under down and up the bandstand wish. Stroll on our campus. If you are invited in the reception room of Jenny Hill Hall. We hope those who have been here before will not be need to be reminded of all this.

AFTERGLOW

The death dined in a field of crimson flame That bathed the hills in beauty rich and rare, And all work bowed down, and I must stand, To stand in wonder and to worship there.

When death shall come and I must gladly go, I will find me peace in the calm of peace.

And then a small voice seemed to question me: Will there be one to love me there? O Lord, shall I, too, leave an afterglow?

(Name Withhold)

SEZ I

The Session and President invit- ed the following names to make a special effort to raise its part of the fund and forty cents was the total. Each quarter is worth a dollar is the best time to help.

THE Reader's Viewpoint

To the writer, it seems that this year the discussion should be the most important part of the meeting. There should be an open forum in which any topic can be discussed. The students should be able to speak their minds freely and without fear of repercussion.

In the past, these meetings have been dominated by a few individuals who have little interest in the discussions. The goal of this year's meeting should be to encourage all students to participate and express their thoughts.

The general theme of the discussion should be focused on the current events and issues facing the country. It is important to have a wide range of opinions and perspectives represented.

The format of the meeting should be flexible and allow for spontaneous discussions. The facilitator should be prepared to lead the discussion when necessary but should also encourage student participation.

Overall, the goal of this year's meeting should be to create a space for meaningful discussion and exchange of ideas. It is important to foster an environment where all students feel valued and heard. This will require the dedication of all involved parties to ensure that the meeting is inclusive and supportive.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR MRS. LAYTON

Misses Carlisle and Minta Neighbors are invited to a "Special Entertainment" at the Warm Springs Theatre on Saturday, November 12 at 8 p.m. In addition, Misses Louise, Doris, and Helen Layton will be present. Misses Carlisle and Minta will perform a variety of musical numbers while Mrs. Layton will entertain the audience with her stories and anecdotes.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR MRS. LAYTON

Misses Carlisle and Minta are invited to a "Special Entertainment" at the Warm Springs Theatre on Saturday, November 12, 1932 at 8 p.m. In addition, Misses Louise, Doris, and Helen Layton will be present. Misses Carlisle and Minta will perform a variety of musical numbers while Mrs. Layton will entertain the audience with her stories and anecdotes.
CAVALIER vs. SCHOOL IN FOOTBALL SATURDAY

The Cavalier Club will clash with the team composed of members from the entire student body in a football game this afternoon. The game was arranged by the students after the other boy's club had moved to the non-letter men's side. The challenge they brought up was a big one for the Cavaliers, but they have lost of having one of the six first-year boys on their team. The non-letter men cannot play their star fullback, Shane Arnold, who is coach for the Cavaliers and is counting on a fan effective unit in the backfield. Brady will meet being, but with these two teams making a tight game, there will be no easy points. The initials will be taken to consider the score.

Practice: Freshmen, Carroll, Vaughn, B. Berryhill, Hollos, 6. Randles, 4. Vaughn, 6. "The next development is a very successful season of the non-letter men's team, one of the players is a good one. The Cavaliers will have a hard time to score. They will have to work very hard to overcome the non-letter men's team.

Academy Juniors Guided by Love

You may try hard, but we dare you to pass the exam. You can't even try to pass with your excellent leadership. They are planning many activities. Whether or not all of these plans will befall is merely a matter of time and opportunity. The officers of the class were chosen by elimination since there are but a few eligible Juniors in the university. Charles Allen is the class president, with Raymond Williams, vice-president, and J. M. Mathews, secretary-treasurer. As yet a sponsor has not been chosen, but plans for an outing are being discussed.

Remember... we have... "The Little Things in Life" at savings...

To Gay Audience Sunday

George Emptage, who is now working in behalf of Harding College, delivered an interesting and imperiling sermon for the Church of Christ at Gay, Sunday, November 29. He began his sermon by proving that the greater need of the Church of Christ today is the spiritual progress of the members of the Church.

Then he spoke briefly of the great vision that Harding, Lipscomb, and other pioneer Christians had of seeing the need for Bible schools, completed by faithful servants of the Lord who would train native Christians in the faith. The sermon he delivered to these Christians in the week that is being done by our Christian colleges.

One can be too poor to make the friends he wants—and too rich.
Mrs. J. O. Garrett Has Recovered From Illness

Mrs. J. O. Garrett, a former teacher of Harding, who is now in her ninetieth year, has completely recovered from the illness which has caused her to be absent from school for some time. It seems that she was coming near the end of her days, but under the care of the medical attendants she has recovered. She is now fully restored to health and is able to return to her duties.

pole vaulter

The theme of the 1933-1934 season has been the progress of Miss Garner. Art work has been well shown during the year. Miss Garner has been successful in her studies and has maintained her good standing. She is now returning to school after a period of illness. Miss Garner is a good student and is expected to return to school next fall.

work on petit jean is progressing nicely

The debate tournament is in full swing. The team of Petit Jean is doing well and is expected to do well in the upcoming tournaments. The team is well prepared and is confident of their chances of winning.

famous elogy was spontaneous

The case in which Senator Vondie, a former teacher at Harding, delivered his famous eloquent eulogy on the occasion of the death of his favorite dog, has been closed. The dog, which was named Old Drum, was the favorite of Senator Vondie. The dog's death was mourned by all, and Senator Vondie delivered a moving eulogy. The dog was a valued member of the Vondie family and was always with Senator Vondie when he was in public. The eulogy was a moving tribute to the dog and brought tears to the eyes of many who heard it.