Spring Sing

Welcome to Spring Sing at Harding!

Your presence on the Harding University campus and your attendance at Spring Sing '90 gives us great pleasure. Consider yourselves our special guests for this 17th annual show.

Much work and effort have been extended in preparing this revue for your enjoyment. The students have practiced many hours and have devoted much thought to the details of their particular show, all in the interest of giving you a good evening of entertainment.

We're always glad to have guests on our campus. Please come back to see us again. We want you to have good memories of being on the Harding campus.

Hosts and Hostesses

India Medders

India is appearing as Spring Sing Hostess for the second time, having filled the role for the '88 show. A senior English major, she has, during her four years at Harding, played leading roles in "The King and I" and "Carousel" Homecoming musicals, been elected class representative for Homecoming four times, and participated in International Campaigns to Scotland in 1988. The queen of Chi Sigma Alpha men's club, she is a member of Ju Go Ju, the Concert Choir, Alpha Psi Omega and Campus Players and has been selected for Who's Who.

Julie Svymbersky

A senior majoring in advertising and radio-TV, Julie is the daughter of Gail and Philip Svymbersky of Derby, Kan. A former member of Belles and Beaux, she is a member of Ju Go Ju, the American Studies Institute, American Marketing Association, JOY, and the Future Alumni Communications Team (FACT). She is vice president of the Career Planning and Placement group and has been a finalist in National Association of Teachers of Singing regional competition. During the summer, she will be appearing at Opryland USA in Nashville, Tenn., in "And the Winner Is..."

Conrad Ekkens

Conrad, a senior voice major from Bay City, Mich., is the son of Cathy and Ed Golson and Conrad E. Ekkens. The president of the Concert Choir, he is a member of Chi Sigma Alpha men's club, Campus Players, Alpha Psi Omega and the Future Alumni Communications Team (FACT) for the Harding Alumni Office. At Harding he was named Outstanding Music Major of 1989, and received the L. O. Sanderson scholarship two years. He has played leading roles in "Carousel" and "Brigadoon" Homecoming musicals and has won regional and state awards in the National Association of Teachers of Singing. Following graduation, he plans to pursue operatic studies at the University of Mississippi.

Kendall Hewitt

A senior whose hometown is Little Rock, Ark., Kendall is majoring in mass communications and television broadcasting. He is a member of Kappa Sigma Kappa men's social club at Harding. During the fall semester, he won a spot as the news anchor on the university station's broadcast team for TV19. Kendall is the son of Ann and John Hewitt.

JOHN H. RYAN

Spring Sing Coordinator

A professor of communication and chairman of the department at Harding University, John Ryan serves as coordinator of the annual Spring Sing production. His area of special interest is ensemble interpretation. Ryan is an alumnus of Harding and holds advanced degrees from the University of Illinois and the University of Missouri. He has twice received the Distinguished Teacher Award. On occasion he can be found on entertainment rosters with his special brand of ragtime piano playing. He and his wife, Marjorie, have two children, Julie and Kevin.

ROBERT PATTON, JR.

Choreographer

Robert, a graduate student who is pursuing a degree with an emphasis in elementary education, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patton of Clio, Michigan. He is a member of Chi Sigma Alpha social club and Campus Players and he has earned membership in Alpha Psi Omega drama fraternity. Formerly he toured with Up With People. He has served as choreographer for several homecoming musicals, the Belles and Beaux and for Spring Sing.

MORRIS R. ELLIS

Technical Director

Morris Ellis, a native of Monett, Missouri, is director of theatre at Harding. On the faculty of the department of communication as an associate professor, he has served as both artistic director and technical director for homecoming musicals, "The King and I," "Carousel," "Brigadoon" and others as well as for additional dramatic productions. He serves as director of the Searcy Summer Dinner Theatre. He holds the doctorate in fine arts from Texas Tech University. He and his wife, Leigh, have a daughter, Heather.

LEIGH ELLIS

Costume Coordinator

Leigh Ellis graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in theatre with an emphasis in costume design. She received the Master of Education in English from Harding University. She teaches art and English at Grif-fithville High School. She serves as assistant director of the Searcy Summer Dinner Theatre. She and her husband, Morris, have a daughter, Heather.

STEVE HOLDER

Director of Hosts and Hostesses

Steve Holder is a teacher of music in the Rose Bud, Arkansas, public school system. In 1974, Steve was director of the Sound-sations, the band that accompanied the hosts and hostesses for the first Harding Spring Sing. He received a double major in vocal and instrumental music at the baccalaureate level and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in music from Harding University. He and his wife, Julie, have three children, Heather, Zakery and Haylee.

DAVID WOODROOF

Sound Director

David Woodroof became Director of Media Services for the university in 1988, after working as a media specialist in the department during his years as a student and also since his graduation in 1982. The son of Louine and Jim Woodroof of Searcy, he is married to the former Debbie Ann Heffington and they have three daughters, Elizabeth, Erica and Emily.

ANDREW KRONENWETTER

Stage Manager

Andrew Kronenwetter is a graduate assistant in the department of communication pursuing a master's degree in education with emphasis on communication. He is director of a children's theatre group at Harding called The Pied Pipers. Formerly he directed a similar group at Ohio Valley College in West Virginia. A native of Tarentum, Pennsylvania, he is the son of Howard and Nancy Kronenwetter. He and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Thad-daeus and Tabitha.

STEVE MARTIN

Lighting Director

Steve, who holds the Master of Science in Accounting from Harding, is the assistant director of media services with the university. As a student, he was employed in the educational media center four years. He is a member of Pi Gamma Psi accounting honor society. The son of Charles and Barbara Martin, he is married to the former Joetta Jones. They have one son, Jacob.
