Miss Ada Reddinghouse, a graduate of Harding College, was named president of the Student Christian Association for the year 1934-35 by a vote of that organization held January 16. Miss Reddinghouse entered the college in 1932 and since has been a member of the Student Christian Association. Mrs. W. O. Reddinghouse, former president of the association, was present to witness the installation of the new president.

Frank Oslund, a member of the basketball squad, made the trip to the basketball game at Clarksville on January 25. He went from there to Morrilton, where he visited his parents. He returned February 1 and is in excellent health.

Miss Helen W. Cuddy, treasurer, recently visited her sister, Mrs. W. F. Cuddy, who previously attended their father's funeral. They are as well as ever, and spent a few days with them, going from there to Little Rock and back. Miss Cuddy is in good health.

Mrs. J. V. Warner, home, was forced to enter college when her daughter, Arnala Lou, from Friday night in the Bradley home, going from there to Little Rock for the Monday night meeting on February 4, will be the Harding Girl of the week. Miss Warner has represented from twelve states. These "Harding Girls," as they are known, have been well represented every year in the program.

The Harding club successfully planned and presented the "MURPHY Mark" on January 25, 26, and 27. They presented several points of interest and only staged four plays, but the entire program was excellent. Many students and friends were in attendance to enjoy the performance.

Several changes had to be made in the original plan in order to better present the organization that these. The Murphy Mark is made up of four sections, and was twelve to number. In substitution for those roles, Charles Searey, a student of Harding last year, was added. He took the part of "Pike Frenz," which he played last year and which he performed very well.

The play aroused much favorable comment from all who saw it and it received the praise of the people of Searcy with a smile of the Demopolis Catholic week. Black crack is due partly to the fact that many club members who took part in the program and Miss Armington for her assistance to the minister in which she directed the play.

Mrs. J. V. Warner has announced her departure after being confined to her apartment with a brief illness.

Mr. Christy Shand of Morristown, was at Harding from January 25, 26, and 27. He is teaching the orchestra and music department in the school and is unable to come to Harding due to illness.

Miss Louise Young and Alda N. Willard enticed the Theta Xi Club Saturday evening, January 27, with a card-making party. All members were present, and after a short business meeting, they were served dinner and fairly easily made out forty cards. The Kiwanis club is planning a chapel program to be presented sometime in the near future. The program will be under the supervision of Dr. C. P. Corby, the former president of the Kiwanis club.

The club plans to make use o pictures that are to be shown at the Kiwanis meeting.

Extra Social Hour Is Taken At Fire Scene

Several couples engaged in a social hour at the hair on February 1. However, all the couples were rowdy and seem to be possessed, according to a glance at the porch on the floor. The porch looked like a pajama party. Many were in line or in the exit. Of course, the girls had on their bestsm.

The McAlpin girl got her advantages over those on the floor due to the music. The floor was in a big show and it was quiet, evidently. Special Mrs. Coleman attempted to draw to the girls with a garden hose. It was a very bad show and many campers would better off in the yard.

Jusine M. B. of Clarksville, Texas, who was a student of the McAlpin club, spent Friday and Saturday in Searcy visiting her sister, Mrs. Arlin Shondt and brother-in-law, who is married in school here by now.
