takes proper interest in her

house with anyone anybody.

May you enjoy the sympathetic quaintness. One can invective or comparison. When it raises, a large puddle of water was left standing for the students to walk in through to reach the house. A useful and beautiful piece of work cannot be done, and it is needed very much.

Marionette Show Plays at Harding.

Several short stories were made at the service station, February 28. At the morning service three farmers from the region were made the "clowns of the show." Those who spoke were Leslie Lewis, Barker Rowen, and J. A. Armstrong. C. P. Ends, Adah Jones, and James Adams spoke at the evening service. They had their turn at the 12th chapter of Romans. The talks were short and to the point and commanded the attention and interest of the listeners.

Robert Boyd, Luda Boles, and Woodwin Allen were in town. Members of the Harding Academy football team made a surprise visit to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Floyd, February 17.

The college band under the direction of Robert Boyd entertained before the show.

J. D. Boll and J. M. Strock will talk at the country fair Monday afternoon, March 3.
