MINUTES

The All Student meeting was held in the large auditorium. The entertainment committee headed by Ken Noland provided a good program before the bussiness session began. All The members were seated aroundt the table on the stage. All the members were introduced to the student body and the minutes were read by Joan Nance. All the student councils' accomplishments of the year were included in the minutes. Various questions were asked the members from the floor. The bussiness discussed was as follows:

1. Wednesday night prayer meeting was discussed. Some thought that students should be required to go but this was over ruled. The closing of the library was also discussed, but this also was over-ruled.

2. The building of a more spiritual atmosphere was discussed. The students were asked to encourage the Monday night meeting attendance.

3. The inner-communication in the boys' dormitory was discussed. The council could do nothing about it as we had already asked for it prviously.

4. More entertainment for the week-ends was discussed.

5. Quiet hour on Sunday after-noons was also brought before the council. We explained that this was no longer in the hands of the council and we could do nothing about it.

The meeting closed by a prayer led by President Paul Magee.

Respectfully submitted

Joan Nance
