Juniors of Academy Entertain Seniors
High School Banquet
Sponsored by Martha Summers
The Junior-Senior banquet of the Academy was held in the cafeteria on Tuesday, May 7. Blood, white bread, and the famous wooden spoon cake were the highlights of the evening. Miss Martha Summers, principal of the school, as usual, presided. Miss Summers called the roll and introduced the guests.

Several of the guests were seated at tables in the center of the room. There was music playing and the band played the national anthem. The program began with a prayer by Mr. J. M. Moore. He then introduced the band, which played several songs.

The first dance was held at 7:00 p.m. The music was provided by a local radio station. Many of the students, including the seniors, attended the dance.

The second dance was held at 8:00 p.m. The music was provided by a local radio station. Many of the students, including the seniors, attended the dance.

The third dance was held at 9:00 p.m. The music was provided by a local radio station. Many of the students, including the seniors, attended the dance.

The fourth dance was held at 10:00 p.m. The music was provided by a local radio station. Many of the students, including the seniors, attended the dance.

The final dance was held at 11:00 p.m. The music was provided by a local radio station. Many of the students, including the seniors, attended the dance.

The dance was a great success and all of the students had a wonderful time.

The following morning, Captain J. M. Moore, principal of the school, gave a talk on the importance of good citizenship.

He then introduced the band, which played several songs.

This year the school contained a number of new attractions which added to the interest of the students. The school was modernized with a new library, gymnasium, and gymnasium.

The school was open to the public.

Bessie Summer of the School and Did They Know That?
By Pelin S. Hughes
This is the story of a girl who lives in a small town in Arkansas. She is a schoolgirl, and she dreams of going to college. She is a good student, and she works hard to get good grades. She is a good athlete, and she is a good musician. She is a good friend, and she is a good neighbor.

The school is small, and the students know each other well. They are a close-knit group, and they enjoy each other's company. They are proud of their school, and they are proud of their town.

HEAR AND THEIR
By Charles Paine and J. D. Dabbs

A family reunion met the other Sunday afternoon in one near what was done with Charles Claxon last week, and a large group of people was in attendance. And Mr. James Page and Mr. Charles Arna Lou Murphree had a long field trip. But we are told that it was the "Old Home Day." The flowers for Newborn were sold out, and something must be done.

"Come along, we shall get them a little closer to what we are trying to be a part of a family reunion.

"This must be the day that the flowers are due to arrive, isn't it?"

Income Statement

The earnings report for the year ending June 30, 1935, for the company, Newborn, Inc., showed a net income of $50,000. This is a significant increase over the $30,000 earned last year. The company's assets increased by $100,000 during the year, with the majority of this increase coming from the sale of new equipment.

College Grad Relates Tales Of Adventure

Experiences Are Told In "The Royal Road to Romance"

By Richard Stolzner

Did you ever have that kind of adventure and entertainment through your youth? Such was the experience of eight students who have written this book. It is described in his book "The Royal Road to Romance." Just as we enjoyed the earlier books, this one will amaze our readers, as they explore the world. The greater part of Europe was explored by land, and the rest of the world by sea. In this book, they will find the story of a girl's love affair, the adventure of a young man, and the story of a girl's love affair. The book is full of entertainment and will be enjoyed by all.

"To make a line is more than half the battle; but to keep one is a trial." Thackeray

The title of this poem could be "A Challenge" or "How To Keep From Getting Hepatitis." A humorous satire on government drug use.

"He is a bad doctor when he is afraid to tell the truth about what he has done." Thackeray

To kill a snake you must kill it long before it has done anything. Thackeray

To kill a mile you must keep going. Thackeray

To kill a man you must kill him long before he begins. Thackeray

"To make the best of a bad job is the art of a statesman." Thackeray

We will take care of your money, you don't have to worry about it. Thackeray

New Courses Being Offered in Biology

Valuable Equipment and Specimens Are Obtained

All the courses in Biology offered in the Spring department this spring have been offered in the Fall department in every year that the course has been offered in previous years. There is a much greater emphasis on plant life in the Spring and the common understanding which can result in a great advantage. Dr. Robert L. Conway, Department Head of the Department of Biology, department, decided to offer the first and third courses of the series this winter and the second and third courses this fall.

Bison Nine Loses
Two to Panthers
Errors Prove Costly
To the Harding

Loosing a two years notice to the Arkansas College Panthers, the Bisons had a six to four lead by the fourth straight as they continued to dominate in the first game, played at Hot Springs.

In the second game the Bisons and Panthers had a five run lead in the second inning. The Panthers then went to work on the Bisons and tried to score in the seventh. Smith, Arkansas pitcher, scored four runs with an error and scored two in the first frame.

The Bisons, after leading off the game with a hit, were able to put it on the lead in the third inning. With Bisons up two runs, the Bisons were able to score in the third inning. Hot Springs led off with a hit and went to the plate with a hit and scored two in the first frame.
