ASSOCIATED WOMEN MEET AT ALSTON HOME

The June meeting of Associated Women for Harding was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Alston, 5 Magnolia Drive, on Monday, June 12, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Pat Berry, first vice president, presided over the meeting. New AWH Yearbooks were distributed, and reports were given by various members.

Mrs. Loudine Petway, Gift Fair Chairman, encouraged members to begin working on projects for the Gift Fair. Mrs. Petway has acquired two old trunks from Mrs. Louise S. Tucker that would make excellent projects for someone with a knack for refinishing furniture. Mrs. Zora Prince needs small bowls to be used to hold artificial flower arrangements. She could also use a few bud vases. Anyone interested in making a quilt or patchwork pillows for the Gift Fair can get quiltblocks from Mrs. Florence Hays. She has several left from a project last year.

Mrs. Berry read a report submitted by Mrs. Alice Privett on the Nearly New Nook. The procedures for workers were explained, and special thanks was given to the housekeeper for her excellent job in keeping the Nook clean.

Following the business meeting, members were able to examine gifts and new ideas for Gift Fair projects which were on display in the bedrooms.

Approximately 65 members and guests were present, and they were served pie and coffee or tea preceding the business meeting. Several arrangements of roses and daisies adorned the dining room and kitchen. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Dot Yingling and Mrs. Lou Lawyer.

AWH - Searcy

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Heidleberg, Germany
June 20, 1972

Dear AWH members,

I know you had a fine June meeting in Betty Alston's home and are all looking forward to the July Ice Cream Supper at Stephanie Carr's! On our French Work-Study Tour my family and I are not only traveling with 12 of Harding's finest students, but meeting everywhere we go--Belgium, Germany, France, and Switzerland--Harding graduates working as missionaries and teachers. I'm reminded all over again of the scope of Harding's influence: it is worldwide! We can truly be proud to help her through AWH.

Let's work hard for the Gift Fair! I'm not forgetting it, either. In Paris, up on Montmartre, I bought 18 medium size prints of Parisian scenes to be matted and framed for sale in November. It will be fun to put them together. We return to Searcy on July 15. As you know, there is neither a meeting nor a newsletter in August. I will be eager to see all of you at our September meeting. Enjoy that ice cream and bientot! (See you soon!)

Sincerely,
Dottie Wright,
President,
AWH, Searcy Chapter

Florence Hays and her mailing committee.

Mary Brown and her telephone committee.

Dear A.W.H. Members,

I'm still seeing Cherry Blossoms every time I close my eyes! The Oriental Style Show theme was perfectly carried out, and our blooming trees in Searcy cooperated as beautifully as everyone involved in this year's show. All this was due to Cheryl Elliott's careful long-range planning. An over-flow crowd for the Style Show and Smorgasbord

Recipes for the Spring Cookout, Volume 11, are being prepared for the meeting which had been written to Dr. Gauss from a student telling of her rewarding and enriching experiences at Harding College. It makes us feel satisfied that in some small way we are helping make life a little more pleasant physically for the students. Our meeting date has been changed to the second Thursday night of each month. Membership growth is moving slowly, but we are "keeping the faith" and hoping for a bigger second year.

The names of the hostesses for the April meeting of Associated Women for Harding were erroneously omitted in the article in yesterday's Citizen. They were Mrs. T. A. Formby, Mrs. Elbert Eubanks, Mrs. Bill Harris and Mrs. Nelson James.
