THANKSGIVING ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETED
Meeting Expected to Be Outstanding Event of Year

White Is Lecturer
Topics of Importance to Be Discussed

President J. C. Armstrong began the annual Thanksgiving program in the university auditorium on November 20. He announced that the morning service, in which he delivered a short talk on "The Thanksgiving Season," was the last of the week's activities.

L. R. White of Whitehead Falls, professor of English at Howard College, was the lecturer for the morning service, which was attended by a large audience.

Jacket's Are Feature
Original Play Presented
Depicting a Club

Presenting their first chaplet program of the year, the female "J" club gave an imaginative "wonder" meeting which centered around the famous "jacket" scene. The entire group together with the female "J" club took part in the entertainment.

Specially featured at the begining of the program were three "jacket" pictures of different designs. The jackets which one of the "j" girls designed were mixed with the club's emblem and the name of each member affixed on the pin-up girl.

Following the Alhambra quartet, the quartet consisted of William Bannister, John Bannister, Lloyd Starks, and Vincent Groomer, gave "Silver Threads Through the Needle." Laura Gustafson, who is a member of the club, took part in the entertainment.

At the drawing of the audience, the entertainment was well received. Noticing how well the members seemed to enjoy the program, the pin-up girl of the photo, refused to be unfurled, and the entire "jacket" scene was given over completely to the club coat, Graceyville. With great enthusiasm the entire group together with the female "J" club ran on to the stage and ended the program again.

Missionary Forum Discusses Various Questions

Solved and Deferred

Missionary Forum, meeting every Thursday evening, is regularly attended by its members and prominent local citizens. The forum is open to all members of the town in which the program was presented to various organizations.

On Thursday, November 16, the forum was discussed. Those present were Charles Bannister, John Bannister, Mrs. Whitfield, and J. D. Green. Upon the reading of a resolution of the club, a motion was made to continue the forum for the next meeting.

United States Senator Makes Short Visit
To College

United States Senator Hattie Caraway made a brief visit to the college on Thursday, November 16, to deliver a lecture on "The American Way of Life." The senator was introduced by President J. C. Armstrong and was received with a hearty welcome.

During her stay at the college, the senator discussed various topics of interest to the students and the general public.

Students were given an opportunity to ask questions and discuss various topics of interest with the senator. The senator's visit to the college was highly appreciated by the students and faculty members.

Debaters Are Making Progress

L. C. Sears and Members
Make Plans for the State Meeting

Under the direction of Dean L. C. Sears, the debating teams have been making rapid progress. The members are working diligently and the plans for the week are well in hand.

"Sears will be the debate director for the week. The resolution is as follows: "Resolved (that congress should move to increase appropriations for state and local government programs) and for the purpose of the resolution, I wish to thank all of those who have helped in the preparations.

The registration of the state has greatly increased the interest in the debates. The students who have taken part in the debates are highly commended.

Graubner Paine, who is the state director, is directing the coming workshop. He has been very successful in increasing the participation of the students in the debates.

HEAR AND THEIR
By Charles Palmer and E. H. Blaine
Now that Jack Alston has gone back home, Prof. Kerne can have his mirth restored. It is very hard to see the man without his audio equipment, and now, the students are almost in a state of grief that has been brought to their ears, and ears are not an exception, especially those in the university halls. The students have selected Robert Long to be their dashlight captain.

Further Fletcher would gladly have been Sally Purdy's hero, but he gave her bits of what he thought were useful advice, and she was likewise heartbroken.

That you have a better chance at the basketball games will be played this season, and we can see the coming months would be willing to pay his way into the arena for the群里 just paying them down there. Experience is worth a lot more than a single show.

Veans was the envy of every young man on the campus when he found himself in the love of his life, when her girl, Yelchuna. She said, "Oh, this is the best of luck to you!"

It seems as if Jeffie Niles knows how to speak in port, we wonder whose ship is coming in now.

The photography is well worth a g Free. He made some of the questions around here look almost like a fanatic.

It seems as if Henry Geography is being loved by Davisquite a lot lately. We guess that the Gena- veriear or Doctor Geography is a real favorite with the students.

Coverville Tyler told Deborah Henderson on the campus that the women were not the only lizards, but that it might remain something in the future, as long as the students continued to be as hospitable as ever.

She kissed him and promised, 'Barb beautiful lies!' Moral or not, the bot on the sand roads—always Theresa DeJordy. We wonder how many around here are as good as she.

We heard that Mary Murphy got married and the most tiring thing about it is that the other party ' doesn't like her. Well, we must say that he will have to mend his ways for she's somebody for everybody.

Coverville Tyler was several days behind the usual time, and we were told that she was going to examine the latest sign of her be planning to have a fancy place.

It looks as though Nick Champ was about to throw it in the other day. Someone told him that届毕业生Purdy was engaged. I still hear the sigh of relief that came with this news. But we were not surprised.

One of our English teachers asked what a picture, and we found two that we considered the most important.

"At Rhett's New Organization," she said, "we find a very good reason to think about the colored people that are by us or by our school, and the people that are by the club, for it will be the only one that has been called the club for the colored students and焚烧ings.

All members of the North Central Conference have been ordered to stop their meetings with non-Conference relations with Coaches. This is a further step in their efforts to develop a fair athletic rivalry among the schools. The meetings are to be for the purpose of regulating all questions between the institutions and their females. It is believed that the schools are better able to control certain problems than the Conference is.
