SPRING SING

2022

MOMENTS

“Life is not measured by time.
It is measured by moments.”

– Armin Houtman

We often think of life as a collection of years that roll along. It's not. Dottie keeps a calendar on our refrigerator and marks down the moments that matter every year: plays, graduations, baptisms, doctor appointments, births, weddings, visits, deaths, all of them. I love it. Life is chock full of these moments that truly matter — moments of clarity, truth, perfection and connection; moments that signify insights, turning points, prayers answered and serendipities.

College is not about preparing you to work at a job for the rest of your life. It is about collecting moments and then learning to be happy with your work, your home, your life, your God. That allows a lifetime of creating new moments that matter. Experiences shape us here at Harding — chapel, travel, dorm life, Spring Sing. Each moment is a deposit in becoming better human beings.

Spring Sing 2022 celebrates the moments that define us, the shared memories and events that change us in a thousand different ways. Those moments happen every day here at Harding University. They are about to happen again on the stage. We are so glad you have taken a moment to join us.

HOSTS

Keller Montgomery

Classification: Junior

Major: Theatre

Social Club: Chi Sigma Alpha

Hometown: Nashville, Tennessee

Parents: Kevin and Trina Montgomery

Other shows at Harding: Matilda the Musical, Hands on a Hardbody, Vintage Hitchcock: A Live Radio Play, Struggle Bus, Elf the Musical, The 24-hour Writing Project, One Acts

Favorite moments at Harding: "I've loved hanging out and messing around with my friends during and after a show. Every cast I've been a part of has been a blessing and a blast to be around!"

Asher Patten

Classification: Junior

Major: Acting

Social Club: Theta

Hometown: Searcy, Arkansas

Parents: Todd and Felicia Patten

Other shows at Harding: Matilda the Musical, Hands on a Hardbody, Much Ado About Nothing, Spring Sing 2021, Elf the Musical, Antigone

Favorite moments at Harding: "Some of my most memorable moments have been getting to sing and perform concerts with the Chamber Singers. We once held a concert in the Benson staircase, where the acoustics are incredible. The walls seem to embrace the sound, as if they are sentimentally clinging to it for as long as possible. It was one particularly valuable moment for me, and I have been very blessed to be part of such a talented group of singers."

HOSTESSES

Lydia Leila Black

Classification: Senior

Major: Acting, minor in Entrepreneurial Management

Social Club: Campus Players

Hometown: Kilgore, Texas

Parents: Sonja and Wayne Black III

Other shows at Harding: Big Fish, The Giver, Matilda the Musical, Vintage Hitchcock: A Live Radio Play, Struggle Bus, Much Ado About Nothing, Elf the Musical, Little Women

Favorite moments at Harding: "Working in the theatre scene shop and getting to laugh and dance and create has been a wonderful part of my time at Harding."

Camille Overman

Classification: Senior

Major: Vocal Music Education

Social Club: Phi Kappa Delta

Hometown: Carthage, Texas

Parents: D.J. and Kelly Overman

Other shows at Harding: Elf the Musical

Favorite moments at Harding: "When I think about my most memorable moments from my time here, a lot of them include performing. Any opportunity that I get to bring the gift of music to others — whether as an individual or as a part of a group — is one that I hold dear."

Washington Bee.C. is home to a happy hive of busy bees, but they have suddenly lost their beloved leader! A beehive can't survive without a queen, but when two possible candidates emerge, tradition demands they fight to the death to determine the rightful successor. What a buzzkill! Will the bees stick to tradition? Bee patient, and you'll find out!

Have you ever visited campus after midnight? When four unfortunate students miss curfew, they get the opportunity to experience Haunted Harding — where skeletons rule the Pryor - England Science Center, ghosts float through the Brackett Library shelves, and zombies bring life to the Rhodes - Reaves Field House. It's a new but frightening place for this band of students, but what if the monsters that haunt our campus aren't as scary as they expected?

MUSIC

Daniel Wade Smith

Daniel Smith holds a bachelor's in vocal music education and is in his fourth year of teaching, serving as the choir director for Ahlf Junior High and Southwest Middle School. He has collaborated in recitals, auditions (including Spring Sing), concerts and other performances at Harding — recently for the Arkansas Choral Directors Association all-state performance. He and his wife welcomed their first child in November 2021.

Renee Maynard

Renee Maynard performed as a Spring Sing ensemble member, choreographer and hostess. She currently teaches elementary music and serves as music director at The Biz Academy of Musical Theatre in Avon, Indiana.

She also was a member of Harding Chorus and Chamber Singers and participated in Homecoming musicals, including "Crazy for You" and "Shrek the Musical."

Chandler Grows

Chandler Grows holds a Master of Music in performance and pedagogy from Oklahoma State University. An adjunct music instructor at both Harding and Freed-Hardeman University, he has taught and arranged music for multiple programs. He also has performed with vocal and instrumental ensembles in several countries in Europe, Asia, South America and North America, and his students have competed and performed all over the world.

Welcome to Spring Sing 2022!

Prospective students, alumni, parents and visitors, I want to extend to you my personal welcome to Harding University and Spring Sing 2022. Hundreds of our talented students have spent countless hours on their performances, and I know you will be impressed. This high-energy show is full of excitement and camaraderie, the perfect way to showcase the Harding spirit.

While you are on campus, I hope you will take the time to visit our facilities and get to know our outstanding students and faculty. At Harding, we are committed to integrating faith, learning and living in all that we do. The relationships that are built here are what make the Harding experience so special.

This year's Spring Sing theme is focused on the pivotal moments that make up all of our lives. For many years young people have experienced many of those important moments on this campus, and we celebrate that legacy this weekend. I hope you will sit back and enjoy each group's performance as you reflect on your own milestone moments.
