Old Pathe Book Club
Box V
Rosemead, Calif.

Attention: John Allen Hudson

Dear Brother Hudson:

I have appreciated the fine opportunities that your Book Club presents to the student of the Restoration Movement. You have made available at convenient and reasonable prices many good works that otherwise would possibly be extinct to the average person. Due to this and many other reasons I have leared to appreciate and respect the Old Pathe Book Club.

Due to various circumstances I will be unable to participate in the Club for the next several months; therefore, I wish to request that I be placed on the inactive list of club members. When I am once again able to resume an active part in the Club I will give you proper notice.

Again, I say, thank you very much for having presented me with some wonderful opportunities.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P. S. I have almost completed your new book, "How to Read The Bible". I find it an excellent work, not only for the deep student of the Bible, but also for the average reader. It is just one more reason why the Club presents many opportunities to the interested public.
