The Student Council met November 1st at 9p.m. in the seminar room of the library. Prayer was led by Jay Byerley.

Business Discussed:

I. Reports from Committees:

Jay Byerley reported on furniture in the student center. The school budget has included repairs on the furniture. Chairs will be recovered, also table tops will be redone. Date of completion was not set.

Also a mat for Cathcart porch will be purchased. Bro. Croom will contact Mrs. Wilson for the details about the mat.

Milk dispensers were called to Bro. Croom's attention. He had no information regarding them. The dairy downtown was contacted and had no information. Mrs. French will obtain some data on the dispensers.

Janis Lyles and Jerry Martin contacted Bro. Croom about the music machine. Bro. Croom will discuss the matter with Dr. Benson. Bro. Croom will ask Mr. Lewis to help us find a good machine at a reasonable price.

Sallie Turner and Doyle Ward talked to Bro. Dykes about reopening the Emerald Room. He approved of the idea. There is a need for more games so more students could participate. Sallie and Doyle will check on where games came from and where we can get some more. Two Students from the council will work on Saturday nights until clubs take action on the plan. Each of the council members will be scheduled for one night. Peggy and Nina will work Saturday Nov. 6.

II. Bro. Fullbright presented an idea that will help the Saturday night problem and chapel program problem. A quiz program is planned consisting of 8 teams. Each team will be headed by senior and will consist of a freshman, sophomore, and a junior besides the chairman. 4 senior boys and 4 senior girls will head the teams. Run offs could be held on two consecutive Saturday nights with the final run off in chapel. Suggested moderator, Jim Atkinson. Student council would be responsible for boosting and setting the time. Team chairmen and members will be chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship. Questions will be made out by faculty members. Doyle Ward will cooperate with Bro. Fullbright in finding an open date.

III. Weldon Hendrix will have copies of the amended constitution duplicated so each council member may have one.

Meeting Adjourned;

Respectfully submitted,

Nina Harvey, Student Association Secretary
