Dear Brother Hardeman:

The members of this congregation are looking forward to your meeting with the group at Smithville. Several are already making their plans to attend the meeting.

The Elders here have asked me to inquire as to any available time you might have immediately following the Smithville meeting. We extend an invitation to you to come and speak Monday through Wednesday, April 4-6, 1960.

We are aware that this is an unusual plea. It will be possible, we know, only if you have the week following the Smithville meeting open. If you can and wish to accept the invitation you may inform us by return mail. Needless to say, the entire congregation desires you to come.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
