Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Flatt, Sr.
Algood Rd.
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Bro. and Sis. Flatt:

Sue and I appreciated the note we received the other day from you. It made us both feel that someone in Cookeville was genuinely interested in our coming. It took a great deal of prayerful consideration to finally make the decision. To say the least, we are now looking forward to the time when we can leave.

We want to sincerely solicit your help in our work with the Broad Street Congregation. Any suggestions and criticisms which are aimed at making us better servants of the Lord will be gratefully appreciated.

It is our hope and prayer that our <sup>mutual</sup> continual efforts will become and continue to be great successes for the Lord and his Church.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. I thought Big Wes would be interested in knowing that "one of the Flatt Boys" now attending Freed-Hardeman College, has been ~~by~~ elected a ~~national~~ officer of the National Future Teachers Organization.
