Mr. & Mrs. Tom Rowlett
P. O. Box 85
Murray, Kentucky

Dear Aunt Dewdrop and Uncle Tom:

We received your letter yesterday and wanted to let you know of the plans in connection with the wedding.

Jerry Campbell and his wife, Barbara, will be coming to the cabin on the night of June 9th, Tuesday evening. They will stay there through the morning of June 13th, which is Saturday morning.

My suggestion to you, if this is possible, would be to leave the key to the cabin over the door as you did with Sue and me. Jerry does not have the slightest idea how to get to the cabin, and I would not attempt to direct him. I would like for Uncle Tom to give complete directions all the way from Nashville to the cabin. If you will mail those to me within the next two weeks I will get them to Jerry and he can use them in finding the cabin.

I hope that this letter furnishes you with all the information necessary and again Sue and I both wish to thank you for allowing us this privilege.

I hope that you and Cathy are all doing find.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk
