The first Cabinet Meeting of the 1956-57 year was held Thursday, October 25, 1956, at 6:00 p.m. in Room 215, American Studies Building. Dick Richardson, President of the Student Council, presided at the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting was to have a group picture made and to get acquainted with other members of the Cabinet. The following are members of the 1956-57 Cabinet:

- Louis Eckstein, Press Secretary
- Merlen Ward, Secretary of Programming
- Betty Ann Floyd, Secretary of Social Affairs
- Nina Harvey, Student Relations Secretary
- Bob Keith, Intra-organizational Secretary
- John White, Secretary of Projects
- Lyman Turley, Special Secretary
- Evelyn Lawrence, Cabinet Secretary
- Nadine Pate and Edsel Hughes, representatives of the Council to the Cabinet.

The President briefly gave the duties of each member.

Each member will have a notebook listing the duties and responsibilities attached to each position. Also each member will have a staff that he will select to assist in carrying out the duties. The members for the staffs will be selected from the work sheets that were turned in at the beginning of the semester.

The President stressed that the Cabinet members have no authority or legislative power. The Cabinet is an experiment, and the Council approved of it as such. The President pointed out two reasons for having a Cabinet to work in conjunction with the Council, and they are (1) to have students specialized in a certain field to work in that field and to make recommendations to the Council; and (2) to give more students an opportunity to work in Student Government.

Folders containing materials pertaining to each position were distributed to the members.

Walt Gilfilen made the picture.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Evelyn Lawrence
Cabinet Secretary
