The Cabinet met November 12, 1957 at 7:45 p.m. for their regular meeting. After calling the meeting to order, Bill Floyd President reported that the Council had decided against a weekly column in the Bison concerning Student Association work. They felt it would be better to have a column occasionally publicizing important events.

The President reminded Otis Hilburn and Lavonne Thompson that they are to plan the contest for naming the man representing the Student Association.

At the present weekly meetings do not seem to be necessary so it was suggested that the Cabinet meet every other week unless there arises a need for weekly meetings. A motion to this effect was placed before the Cabinet and was accepted. There will be no meetings during test weeks and we will always meet the first Tuesday night following a holiday.

Since Harding is to enter into intercollegiate basketball, Otis Hilburn suggested that the Student Association sponsor a chapel program concerning the school's intercollegiate program. A representative from the faculty and one from the student body could be chosen to give brief speeches.

As yet, the cheerleaders for the basketball season have not been chosen but the Council is setting up a plan for their selection. Cabinet members opinions on having all girl cheerleaders, all boy cheerleaders, or a mixed group are as follows:

All girls—-Sallie Turner, Glen Parish, LaVonne Thompson.
All boys—-None
Mixed-----Otis Hilburn, Bill Biles, Mary Dunn, Harold Vanderpool, Benny Porter, Dick Hawkins, Bill Stafford, Glenda Calvert, Kay Wilson, Bill Floyd, and Martha Tucker.

Otis Hilburn and Kay Wilson are in charge of designing and making the sportsmanship sign for the gym. Dick Hawkins has charge of a program for the Children's Home in Jackson.

The Cabinet discussed a series of chapel programs on the topic of marriage and the home. Suggested topics were God's Plan for the Christian Home, Courtship, The First Two Years of Marriage, Rearing Children, The Aging Home, and Problems of Marriage. It was suggested that similar programs had been presented in the past and something new might be more effective at the present time. This led to a discussion of the dating rules on campus and how these might be changed and improved to increase interest in dating. The President suggested that John White be invited to the next Cabinet meeting to discuss this problem with us. Members of the Cabinet are to consider this problem until the next meeting, bringing their plans before the Cabinet at that time.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Martha Tucker, Cabinet Sec.
