MINUTES OF THE CABINET MEETING

The Cabinet met February 11, 1958 for their regular meeting. The coming conference was discussed and all cabinet members were urged to attend the meetings.

The first question discussed was: How to keep boys from getting into the wrong crowd when they come to school?

It was decided that nothing could be done when they first came to school because there would be no way to tell about their character.

Suggestions were:

1. Small vespers in the suites
2. Try to take into group the wayward fellows
3. Orient them into small groups in which a positive outlook toward the school and rules is taken
4. Have floor counselor take interest in the boys by having discussions with them/
5. Have a special group appointed to help the new boys

It was discussed whether to have this work organized or have it on an individual basis. It was decided that through organization the boys could be reached more effectively. It was also suggested that the floor counselors be in charge of these groups or organizations.

The topic for discussion at our next meeting will be: The relationship of members of the church to non-members.

Respectfully submitted,

Martha Tucker,
Cabinet Secretary
