Mr. Leroy Garrett
Restoration Review
1916 Western Drive
Alton, Illinois

Dear Brother Garrett:

I wish to express my gratitude for the two copies of Restoration Review. Needless to say, I have found both of them to be extremely stimulating. Let my mention of one article display my sentiments. "Toward Emotional Maturity" contains some valuable information. The depth of thought and the clarity of style make the article a genuine expression of rich ideas.

Obviously, we differ on many points but I could allow the above-mentioned reflections to go unexpressed. Enclosed you will find my check for one year's subscription.

I hope that you will expose the weak places in our plea. More especially, I hope that we will repair the weak spots and thereby become more pleasing to God and His Son.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
