This original play was adapted from American folktales and songs by the troupe of nine players. After reading the stories, they improvised the actions and dialogue to create a unique experience for their audience. We hope that you enjoy the performance as much as we did the creation of this production.

Summer Dinner Theatre Workshop

The department of speech will produce Dinner Theatres in the Student Center during each of the two sessions of summer school.

For the first session, June 6-July 8, Morris Ellis will direct Bull Bark and Candle on June 23-25; and Star Spangled Girl on June 30-July 2.

In the second session, July 11-August 12, Robin Miller will direct Story Theatre on July 28-30 and one which will be announced for August 4-6.

Early auditions for the shows will be held from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. on April 30 in the Little Theatre on the second floor of the Administration Building.

Auditions will also be held on June 6 and July 11.

Participants may earn college credit through enrolling in the Summer Dinner Theatre Workshop.
