MINUTES OF NOVEMBER 12, 1957

Meeting opened with prayer led by Glenn Parrish. Minutes read and treasurer's report by Sallie Turner.

Bill Floyd mentioned that there were possibilities for getting a beaded screen for better showing of movies.

Announcement of movie for Saturday night, "The Good Earth." Council members are encouraged to mention these things to students.

Council members encouraged to try to get feelings of students on various matters. Dean Priest mentioned to have exams strung out over a longer period of time. He is to see Dean Sears about this matter. Variety in chapel - especially in devotional. Bill Floyd to write letter to Dr. Benson regarding matter. Subject of student speakers in chapel discussed; more interest needed. Leon Clymore suggested cooperation between speech department and council. Claudette Du Bois mentioned holidays at Christmas. Bill Floyd stated that he had spoken with Dean Sears in the summer regarding this matter; Leon Clymore stated that a group who work a couple of weeks before Christmas has a conflict since we don't get out until Dec. 19. Motion made by Wayne Arnold and seconded by Glenn Parrish that we get an explanation from Dr. Benson as to why this is being done. It was unanimously approved and Leon Clymore to report back to council.

Letters read from Dr. Benson.

Discussion on having a day off during the year. No one knows until the day comes. "Beautiful Day" at Lipscomb discussed by Kue Yokomori. Leon Clymore to mention this to Dr. Benson, also.

Wayne Arnold reported on talk with Mr. Moore about telephones. One cannot be installed because it would be misused with regard to long distance calls. It could be done, however, if a kind of short wave type of telephone could be installed. Wayne Arnold is to check with science club regarding this possibility. Scales idea was vetoed with the reason that the college was getting too many concessions. Was not definitely decided against.

Leon Clymore suggested selling umbrellas to make money. Idea stated that it wouldn't work.

Bill Floyd mentioned that he received a letter from a board member who wants to sell some signs at the lectureship. A group on campus could sell them and we could get the commission. Motion made by Wayne Arnold to do this; seconded by Peggy Watson, and was unanimously approved.

In cooperation with the Gospel Light, Harding is printing this month's issue. Mr. J. C. Moore wants us to help sell these along with the lectureship books of last year. Sell one week on campus and then during the lectureships. Free copy of paper to be given to students; subscription is $1 instead of regular $2. Student council to get $.50 for each book sold. Book costs $2.50; normal price, $3.00. Motion made by Jim Borden that we try this; seconded by Leon Clymore, and unanimously approved. Glenn Parrish to prepare schedule for selling.

Ideas by Ottis Hilburn - contest to name the little man representing the student council in the paper; council approved the idea.

Weekly column to be written by each council member. Discussion pro and con. Bill Floyd to talk with Ottis about it. Idea that it might be stressing the association too much.

Chapel program suggested to be given by the student council.

Claudette DuBois said that some suggested that spontaneous singing be restored to the chapel services; however, Dr. Benson vetoed this idea in past years. Wayne Arnold moved that the meeting be adjourned, Dean Priest seconded, and it was adjourned.
