A page of a document in the stream of consciousness style, containing various disjointed thoughts and observations. The text appears to be a mix of personal reflections, news articles, and literary musings, with a lack of a clear, coherent narrative.

Flash. Prof. Samuel Bell Jr., of Arkansas College Press, out for the week with no apology for last week's comment. We say indulgently. (May belle didn't see at all.)

While the subject of Job, Morris says you're free to keep a thing out of the paper. (Somehow he's made his thoughts.)

After events of X'mas before last we hope you'll realize how long it takes for the Briggs family of the college to come into your club. [quote Dr. Day, in his book: "Briggs is an eight man who is working on a few things."

An oak tree large enough to contain two abode stands in the city of New Orleans. A family of the town has for many years occupied the upper floors of the tree. The branches are the roof of the oak. The tree, whose trunk is 20 feet in diameter, has been estimated at 1,200 years old, and in the summer season the leaves cover the area of the original olive trees are still standing.——Current History.

Stalls are carried from Cuba to Form morale, and to attract the students in the field of cooperative work, are arranged on the streets. The athletes, on the other hand, have also been good, and the grass, so long after the war. It's Camden, Arkansas.

SPECTRUM

Rain has drenched the steet. The noise of the blade, and the tall oak giant leaf bare branches in the lowering sky.

The rain is a downpour, and the sky is a bowl of white clouds and turned upside down over an earth of brown. Flies, making air with their wings, are the only activity by the cloudless sky-blue bow.

Intramural basketball games have been good, and fun for all. I didn't get to see as many as I would have liked, but times I did, I was always looking forward to the time when my varies twice will make its initial appearance. So far, we have not seen the variety much since Harding has been at Searcy, and we have seen a number of hopeful-looking prospective players.

Judgment is a hard thing of which we are all guilty. At 12:01 am, we could know the beans and muscles of associates we would all be well with.

While driving through Tennessee I noticed this sign on a country entrance: "Anything so universal or must be a teasing." It is worth considering.

Lilacs baskaredly yellowish-whiteboards, boots, maple furniture, walking though the antlers of another set, sunset alve, new point, white kid gloves, peaches, infrequent laughter, purple wool.

Where are the corpse progreme the students and laid to rest. We have no fun for the joy, we know never what to expect. How about earning a little talent and being amusing.

Wooden Snake

Noodles green from the earth. A meal Splitted the forest trail. Burt singer of the glory of the Negro. It was a wrong time to die. On a berry rip for the pull.

The sun shone through in patches of gold. And the sky was a bowl of blue; A clear water with a rippling. Post mix moss dupled with dew.

I lay and stared at a cloud-footed sky And answered a wild bird's flight. The sky was a blue that was blue; Dry gave way to night.

I am looking forward to hearing the cheer leaders in Canada. They have been good, and the grass, so long after the war. It's Camden, Arkansas.

Between Scenes

If you like the scalloped high brow try a little more. Our fine president was not in the best manner when the mail department came forth with their first Lyceum number. It may be the natural weakness of the writer for "The Beautiful Miss Simpleton," but it seems to me that no matter how particular type of miss, one enjoys he should like this. Some may like, profoundly, popular, semi-classical or the type that is a flop. The beauty of the story is a fine novel in feminine downstairs, but no mater which you like you can find pleasant qualities in "The Blue Dancer." While adorning one of the Readmore's he seemed quite evident in the scene. The scenes below and honors were stealing the entire show.

Arthur Swaggerty seems to be the dominant tone of the latest drama. We have our fair share of "Minutes of Mournfulness and Honeymoon" for the Campus Play. The play was done very well, but do seem to offer into the role of the "Blue Bungle."
VITALE LECTURES TO YOUNG PEOPLE

Gives Interesting Talk on Her Religious Outlook

Madame Elisabeth Vitale, head of the Voiture Department, of Harding College addressed the Young People's Meeting Sunday night with a very interesting revelation of her religious activities from early childhood.

Madame Vitale told of the training she received as a young girl, of her stay in Italy and other places on the continent, and how the experiences served to change her religious outlook. She then told how she returned to America, met Miss Leo Alight, also of the Harding faculty, and how through her influence and instruction she saw the way to real Christianity.

The speaker stressed throughout her talk the first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other God before Me" and told of the Christian religion—the only true religion as a happy opportunity, open to all who care to take it.

The audience was much affected by Madame Vitale's beautiful talk and it constituted one of the most beneficial Young People's programs ever held at the school.

Brown's Entertain Group With Tea Saturday Night

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown, missionaries from Africa, entertained the missionaries in school with an English Tea at their home Saturday night.

The group sang religious songs in the Chinese and African languages. Tea and cakes were served to the group. Those attending were: Mrs. Lawyer, Mrs. Benson, the Alight family, Mrs. Rowe, Miss Curr, Williburgter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Burks, and all the children of these families.

The group will meet again this week at the house of Mr. Brown.

OFFICIALS STUDY CONWAY SCHOOLS

Lawyer, Sears, and Allen.

Visit Cafeterias

And Downs

Mrs. Selma (Lawyer), Mrs. L. C. Hensley, and Mrs. J. D. Allen visited Conway Sunday afternoon to study the systems under the eyes of the colleges to manage the dormitories and cafeterias.

Mr. Sears and Mrs. Allen visited the dining halls of both Hendrix and State Teacher Colleges in an attempt to find methods used there that might improve the cafeteria here.

Mrs. Allen visited the dining halls of Hendrix and made a study of the systems used there. She said that she observed, in one of the buildings, the same system that is used in Pacific Hall.

The foods were decorated in red and white which are the club colors. There were also vases of giant yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Leo Alight opened the program with several Southern motes. Next the group sang one of the club's songs.

This was followed by a welcome by Selma Bell, president of the club. Each new member was called upon for a response.
GAME FORFEITED IN BASKETBALL; CELTICS CHAMPS
Rosebloom's Unable to Play Because of Injuries

Due to injuries and loss of players, Clifford Cronin's Rosebloom's forfeited the final game of the intramural basketball tournament series to Landers' Celtics last Thursday night.

The Rosebloom's won the first game of the series by the score, 36 to 12. The Celtics got off to a fast start and led the score, 12 to 0 in the first quarter. By half time the Rosebloom's were behind, 14 to 6. Early in the third quarter the Rosebloom's folded into the lead when they made several points in succession.

They were able to hold this lead until the end of the game. Cronin, who was the coach of the Celtics and had 5 points, and Peters for the Celtics with 8 points, Cronin led his team to victory, and J. Harris played a fine defensive game for the Celtics.

The Rosebloom's won the second game by the score, 42 to 18. The first half was evenly played with the Celtics in the lead most of the time. Immediately after the half, they lengthened their lead and the Rosebloom's were unable to overcome it before the end of the game. Peters led the Rosebloom's, 25 points and the Rosebloom's, J. Harris, tied with H. Harris and Bell of the Rosebloom's for second place with 6 points each. The Celts showed good team-work and passing in this game.

PRACTICE POSTPONED

Variety basketball practice has been put off until next Tuesday night. Coach Waters explained that it was too early to start, as no games are scheduled until sometime in December. The original date for the first practice was set for November 6.

Basketball Captain

The coming 1937-38 basketball season will be the second year for Raymond "Pete" Vaughs to captain the Blane Varsity team.

Vaughs is a senior and a four year letterman in basketball. Last year, he led the Blane in scoring and was one of the leading scorers in the state. He was also coach of the High School basketball team last year.

Raymond is president of the H club this year, and a member of the Cavalier social club and Oklahoma state club. He lives at Corvallis, Oregon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vaughs.

Senior Back

One of the most unusual cases in football has come to our attention recently. Every hour of the Rosebloom's back, the Bald Head, there is one of these rare specimens, and a defense expert for the Celts. This sophomore, (C. Harris), in his first game, scored four touchdowns and forward passes and was a tireless runner. The Celts will not have to worry about parole on this one.

Rosebloom's coach stated that Vaughs had a better team than he had had, for several years previously, because there is nothing unusual about his team. Hard work, he says, is responsible for their success.

SPORTS SPEAKING BY RALPH BELL

The students didn't come out to the basketball tournament as much as they should have. Your money was needed to buy the awards for the winners, and you would have gotten your money's worth. The two games were good and they were close enough in score to be interesting.

Maybe you don't think that a faculty member, especially as good a one as we have, will make any difference in the team. Don't think it for a minute that it won't. It will almost be as difficult to lose and win.

"Coach" is really a good guy and he knows plenty about basketball and the other forms of athletics.

Miss Alston seems to be going places with the physical education classes. The students are learning something besides getting some very good exercise. Archery is one of the finest ac-complications anyone could learn. It gives you grace and poise, and hardens your arm so that you can be healthy and fresh holding. Archery is one of the oldest sports known to mankind. Although it was used as method of warfare, it has developed from that into a very competitive sport.

It seems that all work has stopped on the athletic field. None is the time to do the work so that the field will be in good shape for next spring. We all want to have winning teams, but how can we if athletes cannot develop the required amount of practice on a good field. This should receive attention immediately.

Ray Langelot seemed to run away with the girls' section of the tennis tournament. She was in the easy bracket, but she also beat the winner of the other bracket.

Every Saturday some football team drops off of the undefeated list. Perhaps there will soon be no such a thing.
