      1. Am I one among many?
      2. Am I adding to the confusion because I started something to meet my fancy?
      3. Or is this thing divine and truly a work of God?

B. If this question is vital for me as a member for my own peace of mind and enthusiasm, think how much more important it is for the "campaign worker" and frontline evangelist.

   2. How will I answer people—why bring the church of Christ here?
   3. Could we today seek an answer?

4. Are we jealous or generous?

B. Naturally there are many other things to say about the church even as Paul preached many sermons.
   1. May this talk now add at least a few points
   II. If I attend the church of Christ's choice, or establish it in a new community, what may I expect to find?

Marguerite O'Banion's mother died of a heart attack. It occurred Sunday morning at Swifton, Arkansas. After the usher had seated her by the aisle, she said I am sure I am going to die—but I want the Lord's Supper. She took the bread, slumped over in death just as the cup was passed to her.
