FAILING HEALTH FORCES DR. WINN TO RESIGNATION

Department Head Goes to Washington for Treatment

A vacancy was created in the Harding faculty last week by the resignation of Dr. Francis M. Winn, head of the college mathemat-ics department. For many years, Winn's resignation came about as a result of his failing health. He was born February 4th, 1902, in Des Moines, Iowa, where he was raised. His graduation from the University of Arkansas in 1926 was followed by his appointment as assistant professor of mathematics in 1928, and by his appointment as professor of mathematics in 1932. In 1937, after completion of his Ph.D. degree at the University of Wisconsin, he returned to Harding and served as professor of mathematics until his resignation.

Dr. Winn has also been a member of the teaching faculty at the University of Tennessee, spoke at the Oklahoma School of Medicine, and in a number of other institutions. His work has been characterized by his dedication to the cause of medical education.

The vacancy created by Mr. Winn's resignation has been filled by the appointment of Dr. J. S. Armstrong as head of the college mathemat-ics department. Dr. Armstrong has been a member of the faculty for many years and is well known for his contributions to the field of mathematics.
