SATURDAY the THIRTEENTH of MAY 2000

IM BILL MCINTEER

Today Jim Bill McInteer will receive his pin for an unprecedented 50 years of service on Harding's Board of Trustees.

Jim Bill graduated in 1942 with a B.A. in social science. He was elected in 1950 to the Board, for which he has been secretary since 1980. In 1964 Jim Bill was named the school's Distinguished Alumnus, and Harding awarded him an honorary doctorate in 1991. In 1994 the University named its center for Bible and world missions in Jim Bill McInteer's honor, acknowledging his life of faith, integrity and service.

A Nashville, Tenn., resident, Jim Bill preached for the West End Church of Christ for 30 years before his retirement. He is now president and publisher of 21st Century Christian.

At 79 he is still very active, spending 32 weeks out of the year preaching in evangelistic meetings around the country.

He met and married Betty Bergner at Harding, and they now have been married 57 years. They have two children, Mark and MariLynn (Canterbury), both Harding alumni.

CADEMIC HERALDRY

A time-honored tradition of great dignity, the wearing of academic apparel is a survival of the ecclesiastical garb of the late Middle Ages, in turn a survival of still earlier civilian fashions. The academic gown, necessary for a scholar's warmth, and the hood to protect his tonsured head were apparently first regularly adopted in the thirteenth century, at the University of Cambridge (1294). The University of Oxford was soon to follow. The custom was transplanted to this country in colonial times by Kings College in New York, now Columbia University.

In 1895 American universities and colleges decided to standardize their academic styles and developed the intercollegiate code of academic custom. In general the style follows the Cambridge tradition. The characteristic elements of academic regalia are three: gown, hood and cap.

The gown is usually of black material (serge or worsted for bachelors, the same or silk for masters, and silk for doctors). The doctors' dress gowns of the chief British universities are scarlet. Bachelors' gowns have pointed sleeves, masters' have long, closed sleeves, lunate at the bottom, with slits at the elbow from which the arms protrude; the doctors' have wide, round, open sleeves. Doctors' gowns are faced with panels of velvet down the front and three bars of velvet across each sleeve.

The hood, worn around the neck to hang down the back, is the principal emblem of the nature and source of the degree held. It is edged with velvet of the colors of the degree, while its lining of silk bears the colors of the institution which granted the degree. Bachelors' hoods are three feet long, masters' three and one-half, and doctors' hoods only have wide panels at the sides. Hoods may be worn only after the degree has been granted.

The cap, the square mortar-board in American universities but a round, soft, flat velvet hat in British, Canadian, and some European universities, bears a tassel which may be black for all ranks and degrees or may be of gold thread for doctors and the color of the degree for bachelors and masters. The doctors' caps only may be of velvet.

The degree colors are appropriate to the category of the degree, rather than to the scholar's major subject. For example, the appropriate color for degrees in Arts and Letters (B.A., M.A., B.Lit) is white; in Commerce, sapphire; in Dentistry, lilac; in Education, light blue; in Engineering, orange; in the Fine Arts, brown; in Humanities, crimson; in Laws, purple; in Library Science, lemon; in Medicine, green; in Music, pink; in Pharmacy, olive; in Philosophy (Ph.D.), dark blue; in Physical Education, sage; in Science, golden yellow; in Theology, scarlet. These colors are used for the edgings of all hoods and may be used for the velvet facing and sleeve bars of doctors' gowns and tassels on bachelors' and masters' caps.

The institutional colors, with which hoods are lined, indicate the university or college granting the degree. Among the hoods worn by our faculty are those for Alabama, crimson and white; Arkansas, red and white; Auburn, orange with two navy chevrons; Boston, scarlet with white chevron; Colorado, black and gold; Emory, blue and gold; Florida State, garnet with gold chevron; Illinois, navy blue with two orange chevrons; Indiana, crimson with white chevrons; Kansas, navy blue with cardinal chevron; Kentucky, azure blue with white chevron; Louisiana State, purple with old gold, parti-per-chevron; Michigan, maize with azure blue chevron; Mississippi State, maroon chevron on white; Mississippi, royal blue with crimson; Missouri, old gold with two black chevrons; Nebraska, orange and white; Ohio State, scarlet with silver gray chevron; Oklahoma, red with white chevron; Penn State, royal blue and white; Rutgers, scarlet; Tennessee, white with orange chevrons; Texas, white above orange, parti-per-chevron; Texas A&M, maroon and white; Tulane, green and blue; and Vanderbilt, black and gold.

The colors of Harding University are black and gold. They were adopted as the school colors when Harding was chartered in 1924.

ARDING UNIVERSITY Chartered in 1924 as a senior institution of higher learning.

Harding University has a rich history of quality education within the hallmark of Christian principles. This ceremony today recognizes the achievement of the students who have devoted themselves to the goals and standards of the university.

Harding was chartered as a senior college in 1924, when two junior colleges, Arkansas Christian College and Harper College, merged their facilities and assets, adopted the new name of Harding College, and located on the campus of Arkansas Christian in Morrilton, Arkansas. Harper had been founded in 1915 in Harper, Kansas, and Arkansas Christian had been chartered in 1919.

The school was moved to Searcy in 1934 after the purchase of a site on which Galloway Women's College had operated.

Harding was named in memory of James A. Harding, a pioneer Christian educator who founded Nashville Bible School (David Lipscomb college) in Tennessee. He challenged his co-workers and associates with an enthusiasm for Christian education that remains a significant tradition at Harding University.

At the charter, J. N. Armstrong, who had served five years as Harper's president, became president of Harding College.

In 1936, George S. Benson returned from mission work in China to assume the presidency of his alma mater. Benson, one of Harding's first graduates, directed the college from a deep indebtedness into a state of financial stability, national recognition and academic accreditation. When Dr. Benson retired in 1965, his 29 years of tireless service were more than evident in a multi-million-dollar campus, regional accreditation, a strong faculty and a continually growing student body.

Dr. Clifton L. Ganus Jr., a 1943 graduate, served as president from 1965 to 1987. A former history department chairman and vice president of the college, Dr. Ganus kept alive his predecessor's drive for excellence by leading a plan of campus improvement and expansion. Seven major academic buildings, four large residence halls and several married students' apartments were constructed. At his retirement, Dr. Ganus became Harding's first chancellor.

The Board of Trustees approved a recommended change of Harding to university status and on August 27, 1979, the name of the institution officially became Harding University.

Dr. David B. Burks became president May 19, 1987, and was inaugurated as the fourth president on September 18, 1987. A 1965 graduate, he has been a member of the faculty since 1967 and has served as dean of the School of Business.

Dr. Burks initiated a theme, "Integrating Faith, Learning and Living," as the goal of his administration. With that goal in mind, the university seeks to develop the whole person through a commitment to the Bible as the Word of God. Students find a spiritual emphasis in academics, athletics, Bible classes and chapel. They are empowered for ministry, for church leadership, and for a lifetime of Christian service.

This fall, a record 4,455 students registered for classes, representing 50 states and 37 foreign countries.

Harding is committed to the development of a solid foundation of intellectual, physical and spiritual values upon which students may build useful and happy lives.

LMA MATER

Near the foothills of the Ozarks, Midst of hill and plain; Stands our glorious Alma Mater; Harding is her name.

Chorus: Sing the chorus, shout it loudly! Echoing thro' the vale. Hail to thee, beloved Harding! Alma Mater, Hail! Christian standard is her motto; Christian life is stressed; And in ev'ry branch of learning, Each one does his best.

Harding opens wide her portals, Thus inviting all Who would tread the path to knowledge, Heed then to her call.

To God Be the Glory

Fanny J. Crosby and William H. Doane

To God be the glory, great things He hath done; So loved He the world that He gave us His son, Who yielded His life an atonement for sin, And opened the life-gate that all may go in.

Chorus: Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, Let the earth hear His voice! Praise the Lord, let the people rejoice! O come to the Father, thru Jesus the Son, And give Him the glory, great things He hath done.

Great things He hath taught us, great things He hath done, And great our rejoicing thru Jesus the Son; But purer and higher, and greater will be Our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see.

O Worship the King

Robert Grant and J. Michael Haydn

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavillioned in splendor and girded with praise.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail; Thy mercies, how tender! How firm to the end! Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend!
