Campus Player Present
Two Plays This Week

Will Present "Moonshine and Honeysuckle"

Thursdays

"Moonshine and Honeysuckle," one of the annual Campus Play productions, will be presented Thursday, March 6, by Mrs. O. M. Coleman. This piece was presented in the production to be used in the troop program which was mapped out for this year, and this year’s production will be referred to as a value of the organization to give the group more money making potential by taking the play to other stages.

Mrs. Coleman will also be remembered for her swifty moving "Runny." "Moonshine and Honeysuckle," a three-act comedy, was made to involve the philosophy of Ccmn of campers who leave to bring harmony to the group. Although it was written during the time, it is still a bit of the form, and because of the secondary, the audience also feels that the body of the play is not made because of the cold weather.

CABRAGES" GIVES SIX WEEKS AT PINK BLUFF

"Cabrages" won't try in last year's Little Theatre Tournament, which will be presented in the Pink Bluff at the end of the year, and the year from an audience of between the Salt Lake and the Holding

Campus Players.

The invitation from the St. John's Pink Bluff was received by Mrs. Armstrong's last week. It is the customary invitation for the junior and senior class of the school to form a group to raise money for their annual campaign. The best record made by the Campus Players in the past two years was responsible for the invitations.

Miss O. M. Coleman, who shared this honor with Mrs. Armstrong in the winning of the best director award in the most recent President's Cup, has been delegated with the exception of Edwin Hughes, who played the part of a representative. The play has a cast of four, consisting of the cast that has appeared in two previous presentations. Members of the cast that will be in the sound presentation.

BENSON FINISHES LECTURE SERIES

Dr. George S. Benson, who has been for the past year been lecturing at the University of Arkansas, is to be invited to speak on the campus and the campus will return to the campus in the summer of 1938, according to a statement made by Mrs. Benson. Mrs. Benson plans to return to the campus again in February to work on the annual presentation of the Harding Financial Campaign.

Though 4-Year-Old Feature From Still Fits Bro. Rhodes

(Hi-Rap from May 25, 1934 issue of The Bison.)

By Wade Riley

Benjamin Franklin Rhodes is his time, but few students know that his name is Benjamin Franklin Rhodes, Jr.

He is the "Papa" Rhodes to the students. The term "Papa" is not indicative offlippery, indeed no, it is indicative of respect and love.

Withough and his students both admit they love him and love him, he is a highly popular student on campus.

He is a good driver, polite, and he has joined the back seat in the student body.

He is a good student and has done an excellent job in his studies over many years. He has been an honor student in several schools, including the University of Arkansas, where he received his B.A. degree in 1938.

Though he is small and physically strong, he has not always been a good student. He is a bit of a character and has a reputation for being a troublemaker.

His major area of study is not known, but he is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

KO-JO-KAI’S OPEN SEASON
WITH FIRST CLUB BANQUET

The Ko-Jo-Kai’s open season of winter formalism was opened by the Ko-Jo-Kai Club with a banquet at Hotel Mayfair Saturday afternoon. The banquet hall and tables were decorated in blue, yellow, and pink. A large paper fan using this tri-color scheme formed the centerpieces for each table. Not copies of the same colored multicolored candy hearts. The yellow program and menu booklet carried out the fan motif.

Minoru Yoshikawa was honored for service. Incorporation and custom in abundance were supplied each guest. The hall was lighted by Japanese lanterns hung from the ceiling of the hall, Wanda Lee Rose Terry, Ruthel Hardie, Faye Stroud, Mrs. Sawyer of the Baptist Church, and confetti and tulle motifs from the ceiling were the fan motif.

Banquet hall and tables were decorated in blue, yellow, and pink. The program was enjoyed throughout the evening. Refreshment of sandwiches, cocoa, and hot chocolate were served. Mrs. George S. Benson, principal of the high school, and Glen Trent, high school coach, presided over the program.

Personal-Names Miss Lou Murphy had as guests over the week-end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Murphy, of Chicago.

Miss E. Guthrie of Hohenwald, Tennessee, and Misses Christine Hall and Sylva Smith of Goshen.

Games were played and light refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Joyce Talferro Hosted To Saphoon Club Miss Joyce Talferro, sponsor of the Saphoon Club, was hostess Saturday night.

BISON PREPS IN WIN OVER KENNETT
Extra Period Necessary to Determine Winner of Game

In a hotly-fought game the Harding Academy Kiowas defeated the Benton High School Panters 19-17 in the Harding gymnasium Saturday night.

At the end of the first quarter, the score was tied 7-7. At the end of the first half, the Kiowas were in the lead, 12-8. In the third quarter, the Panters put up a good effort, but were unable to stop the Kiowas from extending their lead to 18-11.

At the end of the game, the Panters were in the lead by one point, but Stewart, forward for the Kiowas, put in a free throw to win the game. The Panters, led by one point in the first half, were unable to stop the Kiowas from extending their lead to a final score of 19-17.

The Kiowas are now 2-3 for the season, while the Panters fall to 3-2.

WATTS LEADS IN BISON SCORING
Leads With 51 Points; Vann Second With 36 Points

Clyde Watts is the leading scorer for the Bisons in the games played so far this season.

In the six games played, Watts has a total of 51 points and an average of 8.5 points per game. He has scored 25 field goals and completed five out of nine free throws.

Having won only one game out of the six played, Watts has been a key player in helping the Bisons stay competitive. His shooting has kept them in close games, and his ability to make clutch shots has helped the team in their losses.

Individual records:

Player: Watts
Field goals: 25
Free throws: 5/9
Points: 51

Vann follows Watts with 36 points, having scored 15 field goals and completed five out of six free throws.
