On October 20, 1959, at 6:30 P.M. the Council of the Student Association met in the SA Office.

The President welcomed the newly elected Council members; these representatives are Margaret Rogers and Sid Tate, Freshmen Representatives, and Jerry Figgins, Senior Representative, who was elected to fill the vacancy which occurred as a result of Paul Tarrence's leaving school.

Business attended to was as follows:

1. It was announced that on October 23, 1959, the SA would be in charge of a Chapel program designed to familiarize the student body with Harding's "Pay-For-A-Day" program.

2. The Council agreed to provide workers to place foam rubber padding in the song racks in the Large Auditorium; the Work Office will provide the rubber padding. Edna Knore and Jerry Figgins were placed in charge of this project.

3. Another SA project, the Pantry Shelf, was discussed. The President requested methods of advertising the project; posters and chapel announcements were suggested.

4. In connection with Homecoming, the Council was asked to select judges for the floats which will be a part of the Homecoming Parade. Mrs. Mason, Mr. Russ Simeons, and Mr. Cathern, representing the Faculty, the Staff, and the businessmen, respectively, were chosen.

5. The President requested that the Secretary send a note of thanks to Mr. Russ Simeons for helping the Council prepare the scroll which was presented to Dr. Benson on his 61st Birthday in appreciation of his years of service to Harding College.

6. It was reported that Linda Hartman had completed the SA bulletin board; it will be hung in the Student Center and will be used for posting SA meetings, as well as articles, pictures, etc. concerning various SA activities.
7. The President informed the Council of a decision made which would provide only an informal Inter-club Coun-ciai composed of the presidents of the men and women's social clubs. This Council will function only when situations arise which call for such a joint meeting.

8. A suggestion concerning the SA's handling used books
in order to make these used books more accessible to the students was discussed. It was decided that a letter requesting information concerning their used book exchange be sent to the Arkansas State Student Council President.

cerning SA activities be checked by him in the future.

10. The Council agreed to request that Dr. Benson permit
students to be in charge of Chapel each Thursday.

Mrs. Hart who is in the hospital.

12. A regular meeting time was discussed; it was decided that the Council would meet each Tuesday evening at
