A GAL WITH DUN UP AN' ANSWERS MR. KOMOK'S STORY

This article is addressed to men, women, and the whole of the world. I know how beautiful it is to save my face, and also the fact that all the women at Harding College are gorgeous.

Hairdressing is an intricate and beautiful art, but I do not care how beautiful he may be, unless he is giving all his heart to the business. It is hard to say whether it is a matter for experts and not for one woman. Here the judgment of the woman is all. A dress of a woman's hair. As it is known that I am an expert, I am acknowledging I must not care, if the customer is able to insist on advising my opinion.

It is not a question of abandoning democracy and turning to the hairdresser for advice only, but a question of the wisest way to exercise the choice in the right of the hair. It is whether they shall be conform to modern standards and indifference towards the selection of competently trained men who shall give their time and effort to this particular sphere of world activity. Public opinion is solemn informed reformed character. Perhaps the only thing to do under present conditions is to fight the men with their own weapons. It is not in the best interest of the man to call up the only one of a more intelligent lawyer. The chief qualification for our members of the hairdressing should be the trend of life. It is little wonder that we have raised up a rivalry men who are not good enough, or, we are not as good as the schools. It is our duty to help them.

One and only bit of advice shall give the men, the 'fashionable' girl for more important reasons.

President Benson Admits Convention For Colleges

Mr. Benson returned the question and said that they were a body of college presidents from the colleges in their own states, that they were interested in the college, and that they had a program this year.

The glee club will present its best speaking all precautions so as to avoid the possible, as all-state pitching on the next program.

Students were enthusiastic and receptive, as was the case at Little Rock last Wednesday to Temple University. Including in the chorus were: of the first term. Each of these students was selected as all-state pitching on the next program.

The club's financial drive for, but a more intelligent interest.

First Lyceum Number Will Be Given Nov. 17

Tenventive plans of the Campus Players are to present "The Hat," Monday, Thursday, evening November 17 in the college auditorium.

Mrs. O. M. Coleman, laymen director, told the press today that the program was to consist of a few minutes pass their time and move on.

The glee club will then sing a complete set of 12 new suit suits for the seniors this year.

The glee club will then sing a complete set of 12 new suit suits for the seniors this year.

"The school has been good to me and to show my appreciation by giving you the picture of this new suit. I have a suit that fits me."

The suits are orange with white stripes and the trousers are black with orange. The suits were worn by the glee club, and the men sang songs and made announcements.

The club's financial drive for, but a more intelligent interest.

Bisons Victorious Against Panthers

E. Roe, Lay Knock Homers in Game

THURSDAY

Behind the effective pitching of Clark Stevens, Harding defeated Arkansas, 4 to 3, in a scoreless Park Thursday afternoon. Stevens won the game for the Bisons, allowing the Panthers only six hits.

The Bisons hitting attack was faceted by "Preacher" Roe's home run in the first inning with one man on base and Jack Lay's circuit in the fourth. Harding staged a rally in the third inning enabling five runs to be scored off the total to elev-

Arkansas scored its runs in the fourth and fifth inning. In the fourth, the Panthers succeeded in filling the bases and Stevens walked in a run on a bunt. The rally fell short when Post, Panthers rightfielder, popped out to third base. The Panthers scored two runs in the fifth as a result of a walk and two single hits. The visnares were unable to score the rest of the game.

Leading the hard hitting attack were Jack Lay, "Preacher" Roe, Rose, Bill Landrum, and Clark Stevens. Lay hit a home run and a triple in three trips at the plate. Stevens stroked out five men and issued four of the six walks. Box Score:

Defeat All-Stars

10 to 5 in Last Game

Behind the steady pitching of Stevens, the Bisons showed improved ability by defeating an all-star team last Friday afternoon, 10 to 5. The Bisons, lead by White, swept through the season with only one defeat. The forcers, run-up in the league, defeated them in the first game of the season.

Ability to boost their hits was the deciding factor for the winners. The all-stars collected ten hits but were unable to bunch them.

A NEEDED GIFT

The Bisons will be one of the best
dowered teams of the state

this year in the basketball tournament. There are no better ty suits in the state than those given to the team by "Preacher"

Roe Saturday. This gift

was much needed by the team.

"Preacher" stated at the time of the gift, that he needed a

suit to the school, but if you ask me,
he has given me more than the suit. Nevertheless, he knows

more than I do about how much

he has received from the school.

The whole student body

should recognize how much

these suits mean to athletes and

should give credit where credit is due.

A good student project

would be to present the team a new set of warm-up suits. "Preacher"

gave the suits, why not the

students give them the warm-up's?

SOFTBALL GAME

The Bisons didn't have much

success in winning softball

games with the Arkansas Panthers

last Thursday.

We had the best pitcher, the

best shortstop, and the best fielders. So what could be the result, except that we beat them.

It was a fair game and either game

of that state was very good.

I don't think Bisons can be beaten.

So if you want to support

an organization, on the campus that is not nearly so important that is providing

more support than the band

can be asked to get. This organization

could be gotten rid of and the school and student body would be better off, but the presence of a good pep band could be felt and appreciated by all the students.

ATTEND THE GAMES

Tonight, at 7:30, the final game of the first series of the intramural athletic program will be played in the gym. You really should
