
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

9-18-1958

To: J.R. Powell

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1958). To: J.R. Powell. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/125>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

September 18, 1958

Mr. J. R. Powell, Evangelist
East Main Street
Huntingdon, Tennessee

Dear Brother Powell:

I was certainly pleased to hear of your new "outline and chart book". This certainly is commendable. I hope that it will be well received in the brotherhood. At the present time I am sorry to say I do not feel a pressing need for the book, but hope sometime in the future to be able to purchase it.

I am writing especially to ascertain the situation about the book you sent to me previously. I was under the general impression that I had sent you the money for that book. Your letter received last week did not leave me with that impression, however. Please advise what the true situation is and if I have not paid you, I would certainly appreciate your notifying me so I can immediately.

I trust that the work at Huntingdon is progressing and wish you the best of God's blessings in your every endeavor.

Our work here in Dayton continues to be very satisfying. To date we have had seventy responses to the invitation of the Lord this year and are setting records almost every week in attendance at all three services.

Please give my best regards to my many acquaintances and friends in Huntingdon and to your lovely family.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk