I had a woman about five feet tall, working in my family's restaurant. And the funny thing wasn't that she was small; the funny thing was that in the classroom, I gathered she had had a very interesting life.

So, by means of an "interviewing question," I found out some of what I wanted to know about her. And about the same time I'll pass the information on to you. If you had thought about it, you would find that you will find it interesting.

The first thing I asked her was the most interesting work she had done (except teaching psychology, of course).

"Working with the underprivileged, Hubba," she said, and began to tell me about some of the marks she had worked with, and how it was that among all these people, usually a child, but in her hands in order to serve it more simply.

"Probably the most interesting..."

A. D. BURCH: We are several reasons. I had been—Lipossy two years, but I wouldn't have felt right to go anywhere else.

MAURICE HENDRICKS: The main reason was to learn to be a better Christian.

LILLIAN WALEND: I have so many relatives to come here and they gave it such a good name, that it impressed me.

ARTHUR RICHARDSON: Harding is the one college I know of that can get a job and not play on the football team.

VARSITY DEFEATS ALUMNI PLAYERS IN ANNUAL GAME

Vaughn Tied With Parents For High Scoring Honors

Playing in the annual homecoming game, the Varsity defeated the Alumni, 20 to 17, in the college gymnasium on Thanksgiving Day, despite the fact that the Alumni had been prepared for the game.

Continuing their record of not scoring a game to the former gymnasium on Thanksgiving Day, since the affair was originated, the Bisons played a very smooth game that enabled them to outscore the less conditioned Alumni team with very few points each.

"Puto" Vaughn, returning to the lineup after a year's absence, had the scoring for the Varsity and tied with Curtis Peters, of the Alumni, for high scoring honors, with 15 points each. Captain Julian Dewberry, followed, with eight points, and Hay Ros and Otto LaVoere followed with seven points each.

Running two complete teams in alternation, the Varsity never slackened their pace throughout the game. Every member of the squad saw action in Thanksgiving Day.

Gran Heflinning, "Blackie" Berryhill, brother to Coach Berryhill, and Ragnell Smith were the outstanding men on defense for the former students. Handicapped by the lack of practice, the Alumni scored seven touchdowns and six field goals, but as yet no games have been matched.

In ease of injury to any player of the Varsity squad or any vacancy in the squad, the vacancy will be filled by the advancement of a "B" squad player to the Varsity.

Coach Ros's boys will practice every Monday morning and probably two or three times during the week. A definite schedule has not been worked out yet, but it is hoped that the squad will be able to work out five times a week.

Those who reported yesterday were: Bill Landrum, Billy Hopper, Wyrone Spraggins, Smokey Rhodes, Arthur Stoeberling, R. T. Clark, Herbert LaShae, George Fergason, Clark Howes, Ralph Peterson, Jim Huddles, Travis Blue, Louis Green and James Ellms.

Tourney Held Here This Week

Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, the Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament in the college gymnasium. There have been six teams invited to participate in the tournament.

The two teams invited were: Griffithville, Plainview, and the other six teams of the man out of school basketball games that will be played in the college gymnasium this year.
