MINUTES OF SA MEETING

October 31, 1962

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Tom Reppart. The minutes were read and approved and the roll called.

Carroll Osburn gave further information concerning the project for the orphans. It could probably be done through social clubs. Dr. Benson is behind the idea and will provide the college bus for transportation if necessary. This project will be brought up before the Inter-Club Council and if agreed upon will be carried out.

Bob Brewer reminded the SA that several tools are missing and must either be found or replaced. Some suggestions have been made by various students that perhaps the parade should be done away with because of expense and time involved. In chapel Harmon Brown is to announce the proposal to the student body for consideration.

The tape recorded in the cafeteria is broken again.

The meeting with the man from NCAA was held today.

It was voted on to continue the study of the meal ticket problem. Don Gettys reported on the line cut card committee's discussions.

Janie Miller gave report of her committee meeting concerning the girls' dorm problems. A committee of Harmon Brown, Jenette Buchanan, Becky Martin, and Marsha Bailey was set up.

School devotionals were mentioned. Spontaneous devotionals will be announced as for time.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
