The meeting was opened with a prayer by Norman Tubb. The minutes were read and approved.

The talent show will not be held this week because of conflicts; it will probably be at the end of next week. There will be a movie Saturday night—"Mountain Road," starring James Stewart.

The time for the campaign to raise money for Jerry Starling's trip to New Zealand was discussed and will be done after lectureship.

Bob Brewer moved that we drop the pantry shelf project; the motion was carried unanimously. Besides the money for Jerry Starling, it will cost some money for the orphan project.

Joel Anderson was asked to make the "plea" at the SA movie. It was pointed out that unless the SA gets more donations the number of movies will have to be cut down. Also discussed was the conduct at the movies, i.e. talking during the show, throwing coke bottles, etc. Measures are going to be taken to improve this situation.

Don Gettys brought a pin to show a general style for Student Council pins.

Bob Brewer suggested that the SA bulletin board be used more and advertised well. The deans' offices should be notified that they can use it for important announcements for the student body.

The tape for the Belles & Beaux will be sent tomorrow.

There will be no meeting next week due to lectureship.

It was suggested that the girls' reception room be opened to boys from 6:30 p.m. on Sunday (boys can't come in now until 7:00) because early church is out before 7:00 and there is a 30-minute lapse.

Norman Tubb suggested that we have a project of replacing the electric lights on campus with gas lights. He is in charge of getting information on this subject.

Dr. Gilliam read in the Constitution where the graduate students are to have two representatives on the Council. This matter will be discussed at the next meeting.

Because of the change in the chapel schedule this week due to the SA speakers and the visiting speaker, the SA was given the authority by Dr. Benson to decide whether or not to have short chapel. It was decided that we would have short chapel on Friday.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
