Dear Bro. Vaughan:

I would appreciate it if you will place the following statement in the Advocate's News and Notes.

The Northridge Congregation recently completed its second annual Vacation Bible School. For the second time in as many years we were able to break the all time city record for attendance. Our average totaled 360 per day. The high attendance for the week was Friday June 19, when 379 were present.

Construction on our new building is almost at the halfway mark.

Fraternaly yours,

John Allen Chalk
