Dear Brother Vaughan:

Please include the following in Gospel Advocate's
"News and Notes".

"Brother W. A. Bradfield recently conducted a Gospel Meeting for the Northridge church. This effort resulted in thirty-two baptisms and twelve restorations.

"Some interesting statistics were derived from this group: Two complete families were baptized during the meeting. Four other families were united in that the husband or wife, who was not a Christian, was baptized. In six families all of the children were baptized.

"According to the reports of many bretheren who have been in this area for a long time, it was the most successful Gospel Meeting ever held in the Dayton area."

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
